Awakening.

As the days go by and the beautiful corn in the windows in L. M. Wood's store, in tiers, six high, attract more and more attention, our people are realizing more and more the true and substantial benefit it is to them as well as to the farmer.

Monday evening a business man came to us and wanted to make a donation to be used as premium money, and our reply was: Too late to do you any good for the list of subscribers are now cut out and we have all the money we need for the 1909 corn show. Save your money and get into the ring next year, for this year as soon as we secured as much money as we needed, we quit soliciting because we did not care to carry a large amount over.

A. F. & A. M.

Special communication of Monroe Lodge No. 64, A. F. & A. M. tomorrow, Friday, evening at 7:30. Work in the F. C. Degree. All members are urged to be present. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

A mighty good time for Painting, these "sun-shiny" days, and the "Sun Proof" Paint is a mighty good Paint—works well, looks well and wears well, and is sold by W. H. MOSS, Druggist.

Miss Nell Gallaher of Rensselaer, was with Monroe friends Monday. She was enroute to Perry to visit friends.

Mrs. Jefferson Brown and daughter, Miss Barbara, of Hannibal have been visiting Mrs. Brown's uncle, H. G. Fuqua and family.

A. R. Tucker, of Clarence has been with his friends in this city.

Confirmation at Holy Rosary Church

Archbishop Glennon who had been confirming classes in the various Catholic Churches throughout this part of the state for the past few weeks arrived in Monroe Wednesday evening, and on Thursday morning confirmed a class of sixty composed of children and adults in the Holy Rosary Church.

All the solemn ceremonies were carried out during the administration of the confirmation, and the singing of appropriate hymns by the choir contributed to the solemnity.

The Archbishop also addressed the large audience present, and in the eloquent sermon he preached many points of interest and importance were touched upon. From Monroe Archbishop Glennon went to Palmyra to confirm a class there.

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will serve oysters and other good things from 11 a. m. to 9 p. m., Saturday, and will conduct an exchange at Christian's old stand. Come and help a worthy cause.

Engagement Announced.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Anna Boulware was hostess to a few of her lady friends, who had been asked to a "Thimble Party" given in honor of Mrs. John Zeleny, of Minneapolis, Minn. Time sped quickly on as the nimble fingers plied their stitches.

Delicious refreshments were served after which Mrs. Brulware announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Anna McPike Boulware to Mr. Mark Hoblett, whereupon Mrs. Zeleny, in a charming manner, gave the following toast:

"Here's to the one we love
Here's to the one she loves
Here's to the two we all must love."

To which the guests responded in the usual happy way; but amid the merry making there was a vein of sadness when we thought of our loss in a social way and in the church, as the efficiency of Miss Anna in both is well known. **

Yates-Montgomery.

One of the most interesting matings of two of the old families of the Holy Rosary Church was that of yesterday morning when Rev. Fr. Jno. Ryan joined the hands of Miss Anna Lu, the estimable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Yates and J. Alexis Montgomery, whose hearts had been given to each other in childhood.

The pretty bride was gowned in Copenhagen blue and the bridesmaid, Miss Imogene Bell in green. The groom's brother, Dr. A. B. Montgomery was best man.

The groom is one of Monroe's best business young men being a member of the firm of Anderson & Montgomery.

After the ceremony the bridal party was driven to the home of the brides parents where the wedding dinner was served and again to the home of the grooms parents. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Montgomery where a wedding supper awaited them.

The young people will immediately go to housekeeping as soon as the dove cote can be arranged.

Without an exception every one wishes them God speed and happiness.

Palmyra, Mo., Oct. 26.—William Lovelace, his wife and four children were injured Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock when a small bridge near Schenk's shop, eight miles north of here collapsed as they were passing over the structure in a wagon. All were injured but Mrs. Lovelace and her 4-year-old daughter, Mary, sustained broken arms, the other members of the family receiving only slight bruises.

Charles Sullivan left Monday evening for Sacramento, Cal., on a prospecting tour. He may locate there. If so we wish him success.

Odd Fellows.

The Monroe County Odd Fellows reunion was held at Paris last Thursday. About 500 Odd Fellows were present.

Able addresses were made by former Gov. A. M. Dockery and Grand Master D. S. Bond.

The Degrees were put on as follows:

Initiatory by Sante Fe Lodge.
First by Paris Lodge.
Second by Stoutsville Lodge.
Third by Madison Lodge.

Each team did itself proud in the able manner in which the Degrees were exemplified.

Quite a number from here attended and have only words of praise for the meeting. The Mississippi Valley reunion will be held at Hannibal next Tuesday.

Resolutions of Respect.

It is with deep sadness that the members of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church record the death of their dearly beloved president, Mrs. Martha B. Scott which occurred on Oct. 2, 1909 at the family residence in Monroe City, Mo.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father in his divine wisdom has called one of our most loyal and earnest sisters to "come up higher." Each member of this society has sustained an irreparable personal loss. Therefore be it

Resolved, that we give expression of our deep sorrow for the loss of one whose memory will be tenderly cherished for her valued words of counsel, and noble leadership in the Masters service. In her sweet spirited gentle manner she was always ready to lend the hand of assistance and the voice of sympathy to any who found lifes burdens hard.

Resolved, that the church and Sunday school have lost a most faithful, zealous and devoted member and teacher.

Resolved, that while we deeply feel our loss, we recognize that our Heavenly Father who permitted the shadow to be cast over us, can lift the cloud; that we may see the sunlight of His day. We extend loving sympathy to the bereaved loved ones of her family upon whom the affliction most heavily falls, and commend them to Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, that this tribute be sent to the Central Baptist, The Word and Way and the local papers for publication.

Miss Ella Gentry,
Mrs! John L. Owen, } Com.
Mrs. Geo. L. Turner }

D. D. MELSON.

For Sale.

Mr. Farmer, if you want some fancy Seed Corn, and you do, attend the sale of the Corn Show Saturday afternoon and get it. There are single lots of corn (10 ears each) that are worth their weight in silver and you cannot afford to let the entire lot of white or yellow, or Dent corns go for less perhaps than a single lot of 10 ears is worth. Now is the time to get a lot of choice corn for less money than you can buy it anywhere for.

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will serve oysters and other good things from 11 a. m. to 9 p. m., Saturday, and will conduct an exchange at Christian's old stand. Come and help a worthy cause.

Mrs. Harry Jarman is enjoying the possession of a new piano. Thursday evening with the assistance of Misses Anna and Edna Nolen she entertained the orchestra and served refreshments.

Forgive the Reporter.

When we consider that Hudson did not discover New York Bay, but that Verrazzano did; when we consider that Fulton did not invent the steamboat, but that Fitch did; when we consider that Bell did not invent the telephone; that Morse did not invent the telegraph; Gutenberg did not invent the printing press; that Morton did not discover anaesthesia; that Darwin did not discover evolution; that Shakespeare did not write "Hamlet"; that Homer did not write the Iliad; that Galileo did not say "And still it moves"; that Wellington did not say "Up, guards, and at them"; that Washington did not win the battles of the revolution; that Robespierre did not create the reign of terror; that Nero was not a monster; that Cleopatra was not beautiful—when we reflect that history is emblazoned with the titles of usurpers and that true merit lies unchronicled in the grave, let us address a word or two of apology to that much berated enemy of the truth, the newspaper. If history, with a thousand years' leisure at her disposal, cannot find out just who set up a new throne or pulled down an old one, let us forgive the reporter if he misspells the Christian name of the prominent citizen who was thrown from his automobile at 2:30 a. m.—New York Post.
