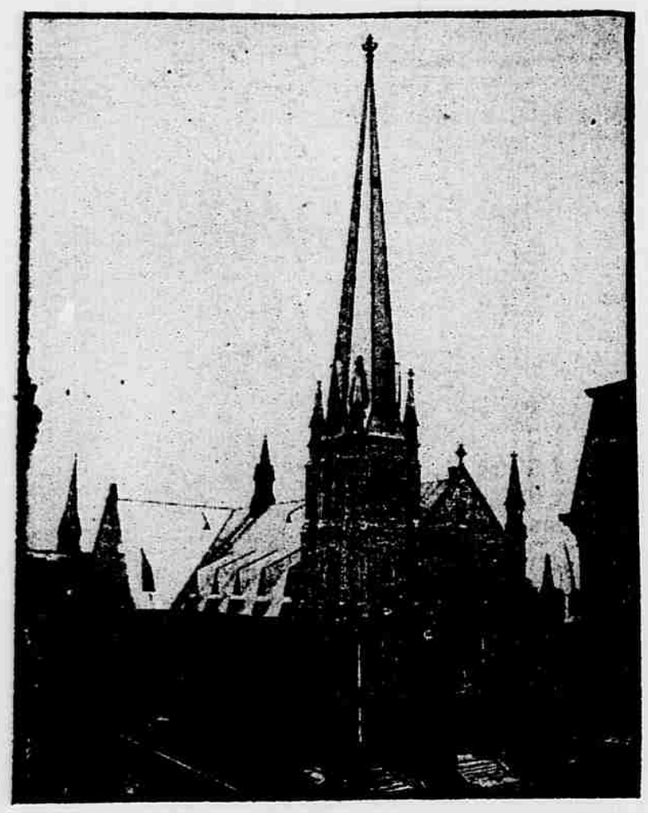
DOWIEITES TO USE SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH BUILDING.



The Second Baptist Church at Beaumont and Locust streets, now known as "The Temple," and which it is proposed to convert into the first Dowieite church in St. Louis.

The latest thing in the evolution of St. Louis churches is the proposed transformation of the Second Baptist Church building, corner of Beaumont and Locust streets, into a temple of Dowieism. This transformation will take place next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the principal party to the act will be William Hamner Piper, overseer of the Catholic Christian Church in Zion in America, who is commissioned by Mr. Dowie to officiate. At this time the Reverend Lemuel C. Hall and Mrs. Mary McGee Hall will be duly installed as the representatives of Dowieism in St. Louis. In the evening, the ordinance of "triune immersion" will be administered to about fifty persons, and there will be also be a reception to members and the administration of the Lord's Supper.

The sudden change of front on the part of the Reverend and Mrs. Hall has been brought about by their recent conversion to Dowieism, and their ordination as "elders and evangelists" in that faith last Sunday at a meeting held in the Auditorium at Chicago. It will be remembered that when Mr. and Mrs. Hall came to St. Louis a year ago they proposed to establish a union evangelistic work, expecting a co-operation of other churches of the city, and so purchased the Second Baptist Church property for this purpose. Not receiving the co-operation they expected, they allied themselves with the National Holiness Association. Later on, however, their relations with this association were severed, and they drifted into Dowieism. Henceforth the Second Baptist Church building will be devoted to the propagation of the doctrines of John Alexander Dowie, one of the principal tenets of which is divine healing.

ARCHITECT TAYLOR TELLS THE GREAT RELATION BORNE BY THE FIRST STAKE TO THE EXPOSITION.

"Mr. President and Gentlemen: From this stake, which has just been driven by the Chairman of the committee that will supply the physical part of this Exposition, the entire Exposition will radiate.

"This stake is the architectural center of the grounds. From it will diverge in all directions the broad avenues, which, beginning April 30, 1903, thousands from far-removed portions of the earth will tread in admiration. Where now the tall oaks and the hills around supply the only vista will be tall, white buildings and statues and cascades and waterfalls. On the great avenues which will radiate from this point will be shown the wealth and the progress of the nations of the earth.

"The ablest men in the country—not speaking of myself—have been engaged to design these buildings, and, if the Lord preserves the health I have and keeps with me the sustaining strength of these gentlemen around me, April 30, 1903, will open to the world the grandest, most magnificent Exposition the world has ever seen."—Architect Taylor's Speech at the Stake-Driving Ceremonies.

PRESIDENT DAVID R. FRANCIS SETS FORTH BRIEFLY THE IMPORTANCE OF THE DRIVING OF FIRST STAKE.

"Directors of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company and friends: We are met here this morning in an informal manner and without notice to take the first step in the physical work of the great undertaking which was inaugurated in this city three years ago. The stake which will now be driven will mark an epoch, not only in the history of this enterprise, but in the history of the Mississippi Valley and of our entire country. We are entering upon a work which will not only broaden and levate this community, but whose beneficent influences will be felt from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the lakes to the Gulf.

"The first stake will now be driven by the Chairman of our Committee on [illegible] who has from the beginning of this work borne a laboring oar and who has done more than any other one man, or any set of [illegible] requisite for carrying to a successful completion the Louisiana Purchase Exposition."—Speech of President Francis at the Stake-Driving Ceremonies.

GREAT CROWD SEES FIRST STAKE DRIVEN.

scope and plan have been prepared, and now we have met to drive the first stake in the practical work of constructing the Exposition. I ask those who have complained to cite an instance where similar work has not required more than double that time.

"This is not a time, perhaps, to praise individuals, but it is fitting that this stake should be driven by one who has been the hitching-post of the movement from the time of his connection with it. I do not detract from the masterly work of President Francis and other men when I say had it not been for the steady hand, the iron will and the quick perception of Mr. Thompson, this stake would never have been driven.

"Now, my fellow-directors, as we have a share in the work, let us continue to stand united and aid these men to deliver this work in its splendid completeness on the day appointed."

PRESIDENT FRANCIS'S CLOSING EXHORTATION.

"Gentlemen," said President Francis, when Mr. Walbridge had finished speaking, "this ends the simple ceremonies of this historic occasion. I want only to emphasize the closing injunction of Mr. Walbridge, and not only ask the Directors, but every man, woman and child in this community to put his shoulder to the wheel and to work earnestly and harmoniously for the success of this great undertaking."

Charles Schweickardt had prepared an elaborate luncheon at the Cottage for the Directors and their guests, and many accepted his hospitality.

PLANNING PERMANENT HISTORICAL MUSEUM.

At a meeting of the Historical Committee, held at World's Fair headquarters yesterday afternoon, it was definitely decided that in the event of the State joining with the committee to erect a permanent fireproof building, to be used as a museum after the Fair, such building would become the State's property, and the State would have the right of appointing the trustees of the museum.

The plan of the committee is to secure an appropriation of $100,000 from the World's Fair Company, $100,000 from the Missouri State Commission and $50,000 by subscriptions, to be raised by the Missouri Historical Society. With the $250,000 it is proposed to erect a handsome building, which will be fireproof and permanent. This will remain as an historical museum, in which historical societies of the State may place their collections if they so desire.

In the building will be an auditorium for meetings, conventions of bodies interested in history, anthropology and archaeology. Societies interested in these subjects will be assigned to permanent quarters in the building. During the Fair proper the State's exhibit will occupy the larger part of the structure, leaving sufficient space for the historical exhibit.

Telegrams were received at headquarters yesterday from A. J. Michner and Joseph Thursby, St. Louis delegates to the letter carriers' convention at Chattanooga, stating that all their World's Fair advertising matter had been disposed of and asking for an additional supply. The messages said that great enthusiasm was manifested in favor of the Fair.

H. P. Rucker, Commissioner of Transportation of the Pan-American Exposition, was in St. Louis yesterday at the invitation of the Fair management. Mr. Rucker had charge of the arrangement of rates to Buffalo during the Exposition with railroads throughout the country. He was in conference with members of the Board of Directors yesterday.

FRANCIS RECEIVES MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT.

The following letter was received by President Francis yesterday from G. B. Cortelyou, secretary to President McKinley:

My Dear Governor Francis: I am directed by the President to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of recent date, together with the beautiful album of views presented in behalf of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, which he is very glad to have.

Thanking you in the President's behalf for your courtesy in this matter, and assuring you of his cordial appreciation of the kindly expressions contained in your letter, believe me, with kind regards and best wishes, very sincerely yours.

(Signed) G. B. CORTELYOU,
Secretary to the President.

T. K. Bruner, Secretary of Agriculture of North Carolina, in a letter to the Legislation Committee says that his State is eager to be well represented at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. For the Chicago Exposition North Carolina appropriated $25,000, and $9,000 additional was appropriated by the State Board of Agriculture. Mr. Bruner believes that this sum will be considerably exceeded and that the State exhibit will be of a higher order at the World's Fair.

George F. Parker, formerly United States Consul to Birmingham, England, was yesterday appointed representative in the United Kingdom for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, with headquarters in London.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO RAISE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

At a special meeting of the Missouri Historical Society, held at the society's rooms, No. 1600 Locust street, last night, steps were taken to raise $50,000 to be spent in the erection of a permanent fireproof building at the World's Fair for the reception of the historical exhibit. D. I. Bushnell, the president, of D. I. Bushnell & Co., stated that his business would prevent him from soliciting funds, but that he would head the subscription with $1,000. A committee consisting of Joseph Wheless, Frank Gaiennie, D. I. Bushnell, F. W. Drostin and I. N. Mason was appointed by the chair to devise a plan for pushing the subscriptions. The meeting was enthusiastic, and all present appeared confident that the required sum could be raised by September 9, when the State Commision will expect a report.

Carthage, Mo., Sept. 3.—In the Circuit Court to-day T. B. Haughawout dismissed his damage suit for $2,000 against Walter Harrington for the loss of a library, when the store of Harrington burned.

PRINCE CHUN IS GUEST OF KAISER.

Expiatory Mission Will Be Concluded To-Day and German Diplomats Are Not Happy.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

Berlin, Sept. 3.—The outcome of the Chinese expiatory mission is a bitter deception for Germany. Prince Chun left Basel, only after receiving the Emperor's assurance that he would be received in private. Kien Chang, the Chinese Ambassador to Germany, alone being present to act as interpreter.

The German Government has also relinquished its claim that Prince Chun should make excuses for the murder of Baron von Ketteler. The conciliatory attitude of the Emperor is due to the energetic intervention of Count von Buelow, who judged it advisable to put an end to the unpleasant incident. Count von Buelow has already returned to Norderny, in order to show that he ignores the visits of the so-called expiatory mission.

The arrival of the mission was a very tame affair, and the members will make out a short sojourn here. The Emperor will start on Friday for the maneuvers and the members of the mission will then cease to be his guests. The other members of the mission will not be received at all by the Emperor.

The Chinese Government having absolutely refused to allow the mission to perform the kow-tow, the great expiatory ceremony planned to take place in the white hall of the Emperor's Berlin palace is abandoned. All together, the semiofficial press is stricken with dumbness, but the opposition journals are making the utmost of the incident. The Berliner Zeitung declares that Germany has suffered no such reverse since Olmutz.

The Volks Zeitung writes: "Prince Chun crosses the frontier as a victor."

The Tageblatt says: "It is well that this incident, which has rendered Germany so ridiculous in the eyes of foreigners, is at last closed."

Prince Chun will lodge as Emperor William's guest, for two days, at the orangery of the palace at Potsdam. It is expected that the Emperor will pay no further attention to Prince Chun after his Majesty has received him in audience.

MAYOR FLEISCHMAN EXPLAINS.

Fined for Trespass, but Did Not Assault an Officer.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 3.—The Fall Festival Association has received a letter from Mayor Fleischmann upon the subject of his reported battle with country Constables and game wardens near his country place in New York State. In it he says:

"Your very kind telegram reached me at Portland, Me., last night, but I was not, as you might infer, a fugitive from justice. According to the Cincinnati papers, copies of which I received a few moments ago, it looks as though I came pretty nearly "knocking out" the glory and honor of Cincinnati, but really I did not pull a knife, did not violate the game laws, nor was I arrested. It is true that I was fishing where I had no business to fish, and the next day I was handed a paper, in which "the deponent" said an awful lot, and upon investigation I found that I was sued for trespass.

"I was advised it was necessary for me to have my attorney appear before a certain magistrate and pay him 6 cents, that's being the trespass fee, together with other court charges, amounting in all to $1.20. This was done and the incident was closed."

THREE PERSONS INJURED.

He was thrown to the street, but escaped with a few cuts on the head. He was removed to his home, No. 7518 Virginia avenue.

SAYS ODELL WILL WIN IN NEW YORK.

Dr. Root, Brother of Secretary of War, Declares Roosevelt Is Dead as Presidential Timber.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Carrollton, Mo., Sept. 3.—Doctor Oren Root of Clinton, N. Y., a brother of Secretary of War Elihu Root, has been a visitor in this city for some days. It is not often that he will talk politics to any one, but to-day he gave his views as to who would be the next candidate of the Republican party.

Doctor Root has lately been all over the West and in many places felt the Western sentiment that is being awakened for Teddy Roosevelt. In regard to this he said:

"New York will not present Roosevelt's name, but will on the other hand be for R. B. Odell, the present Governor of the State."

He claims that Roosevelt is out of touch with the New York machine, and that he is entirely too erratic for the leaders to trust him. He claims that Tom Platt buried Roosevelt in the vice presidential chair in order to eliminate him from New York and national politics. He said the men who control New York is for Benjamin B. Odell. "He has made a most excellent Governor," he said, "disappointing not only his friends, but also his enemies. He acts on all public questions as he thinks best and will turn down a friend as quick as those opposed to him. He has proven that he is not owned by the machine, but rather owns the machine." From what Doctor Root said there is no doubt in his mind that New York will present to the next National Republican Convention Odell's name as its choice for the nomination for President. He does not think Senator Hanna will try for the place. Hanna is a great man, in his estimation, but his great forte is handling conventions. Doctor Root left to-night for his home in New York.

HACKETT SCORES A SUCCESS.

Role in "Don Caesar's Return" All That Could Be Asked.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Sept. 3.—James K. Hackett and Victor Mapes's new play "Don Caesar's Return," opened the fiftieth season of Wallack's Theater to-night.

And it was a rousing reception that Mr. Hackett had in his new play. The house cheered him on his entry, followed him through four acts with close attention, laughter and applause, and at the end of the third act broke out into continuous cheering and handclapping, which would not be silenced until every member of the company had been called before the curtain, the author had followed them and the hero of the evening had acceded to the request for a speech.

Mr. Hackett deserved his success. As the careless, prodigal and dare-devil of high birth who had fallen into evil ways and upon evil days, he bore himself with rakish merriment, but even in his rags remembered and made others remember that he was a gentleman. He lacked only the final grace to perfect self-abandon. He was a trifle self-conscious. His mirth at times was a little hard, forced and mechanic. But as the chivalrous hidalgo, redeemed by a great love, restored by that love to his higher self and sensible of his outraged dignity as a husband whose wife's honor is imperilled at the hands of his own King and master, he struck no false note. He was simple, manly, unaffected and impressive, and his light vein of raillery in the latter acts was admirably sustained.

MARRIAGE OF FORMER PRIEST.

Dismissed From Ministry. He Becomes a Benedict.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 3.—A. F. Goetz and Elizabeth Gilhopper were married in Independence yesterday. Until a week ago the groom was a Catholic priest in Lee's Summit, Mo. A year ago he was transferred there from the parish church in Clinton. He had trouble with the Bishop while in both parishes, and a week ago Bishop Glennon "silenced" him, ostensibly for incurred debts which he could not pay.

Miss Gilhopper was Father Goetz's housekeeper. She is not prepossessing. Father Goetz gave his age at 28, and Germany his native land.

Bishop Glennon refused to see newspaper men to-day, but one of his assistants said: "Mr. Goetz was dismissed from the church seven days ago for commercial lapses. He will not be excommunicated. He has done that for himself. Before being removed he was given the alternative of being tried by an ecclesiastical court or of signing away his church rights. He did neither."

MAY RELEASE JESSIE MORRISON

Case Has Been Appealed to Kansas Supreme Court.

Eldorado, Kas., Sept. 3.—The bill of exceptions in the Jessie Morrison case has been signed by Judge Aikman and filed with the clerk of court. Stylish and Very Pretty

This style hat is quite popular at present. In fact, it is never out of style. It, like all other pretty hats, attracts a great deal of attention, and the hair, of course, is scrutinized at the same time. Therefore, it is quite necessary that the hair should look well. A beautiful head of hair is much more admired than the finest hat ever made. If your hair is thin and falling, a few months' treatment with Danderine, the great hair tonic, will fully restore it and make it more beautiful than ever. If, on the other hand, it should be reasonably nice to begin with, just a few treatments of this great hair beautifier will make it nicer still. It gives new life and vigor to the hair and makes it grow thick, long, silky and glossy without changing its natural color a particle. Now at all druggists' in three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, Ill.

VISITED THE COUNTY FAIR.

President and Mrs. McKinley Saw the Sights at Canton.

Canton, O., Sept. 3.—President and Mrs. McKinley attended the County Fair this afternoon. It was Children's Day and hundreds of children from all over the county were present.

The President and Mrs. McKinley, accompanied by officers of the fair association, drove around the grounds several times, stopping at different places, where something attracted their attention, but did not leave the carriage. They watched one heat of a horse race from the back stretch and the President pleasantly greeted a number of groups of children.

Preparations for the start for Buffalo in the morning made this a busy day for the McKinley home. It was necessary to provide a sort of traveling executive office, so that executive business can be taken care of during the trip of nearly two weeks, and the special trunks prepared for this purpose were made ready to-day. The President saw no callers during the day. The start for Buffalo will be made at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The train will be a special one, and it is scheduled to reach Buffalo at 4:55 to-morrow afternoon.

REDISTRICTING BILL READY FOR SIGNING.

Texas Legislature Passes Measure as Agreed Upon by the Conference Committee.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 3.—The Free Conference Committee's report on the congressional redistricting bill was adopted by both houses of the Texas Legislature to-day after a bitter wrangle and the bill sent to the Governor for his approval.

The bill provides for sixteen districts, where there were formerly thirteen, and, in the rearrangement, it is estimated that four districts are made doubtful, in that too many Republican counties have been grouped. This will likely be the case in Congressman Slayden's district, likewise Congressman Ball's. The El Paso district is also considered doubtful, as well as one of the new North Texas districts. The bill as it goes to the Governor provides sixteen districts, comprising counties as follows:

First District—Lamar, Red River, Bowie, Cass, Marion, Morris, Titus, Camp, Franklin, Delta and Hopkins.

Second District—Jefferson, Orange, Newton, Jasper, Sabine, San Augustine, Angelina, Cherokee, Nacogdoches, Shelby, Panola, Harrison, Tyler and Hardin.

Third District—Van Zandt, Henderson, Wood, Smith, Upshur, Gregg, Rusk and Kaufman.

Fourth District—Grayson, Collin, Fannin, Hunt and Raines.

Fifth District—Dallas, Rockwall, Ellis, Hill and Bosque.

FORCES HER WAY TO SON'S BIER.

Mrs. Othelia Marks Refuses to Leave the House Until an Officer Appears on Scene.

Angered by being refused admission to the house where her favorite son lay dead, Mrs. Othelia Marks of No. 3410 Washington avenue forced her way past the woman who had answered the door bell and invaded the house, despite the protests of her daughter-in-law. She refused to depart until requested to do so by Policeman Fox of the Tenth District.

Jacob Marks of No. 4107 Finney avenue died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. An hour later a neighbor telephoned his mother, telling her to come to the house. Anticipating trouble, Mrs. Catherine Marks, the daughter-in-law, had given instructions that her dead husband's mother be refused admission to the house. Several friends were with her. When the bell rang yesterday afternoon one of these went to the door, where Mrs. Othella Marks confronted her.

"I want to see the body of my son," demanded Mrs. Marks.

"I cannot admit you to the house," was the answer.

For a moment heated remarks were exchanged, and then, seeing that the door was about to be closed in her face, Mrs. Marks dashed into the house. She took a position by the corpse, and, sitting down, refused to move.

Mrs. Catherine Marks sent for a policeman. Officer Fox entered the room within ten minutes. Seeing the officer the mother gave in gracefully, saying that, since she had seen her son, she would go quietly without further words.

Jacob Marks was in the millinery business at No. 704 North Broadway. His mother is said to be part owner of the establishment. The young man married about six years ago, and had several children.

Mrs. Catherine Marks said last night that her mother-in-law had never called to see her son and that on this account she had thought it unnecessary that she should view his body. Mrs. Othella Marks, who is the widow of Henry Marks, said last evening that she was too sick after the occurrences of the afternoon to discuss her entry into her son's home.
