BY DOCTOR WJ MCGEE,
Chief of the World's Fair Department of Anthropology.

The World's Fair and other Indian customs were studied especially by the anthropologist, who has written a book on the subject. In the course of his work, he met with many difficulties, but the results of his work are now being published. The book is called "The World's Fair and Other Indian Customs," and it is now in print. The author is W. J. McGee, and it is published by the World's Fair Commission.

ASSASSINATED IN CUBA

Boston Man, Killed in Havana, Shot by Enemies.

An 18-year-old American, James T. O'Brien, was shot and killed in Havana, Cuba, on Thursday night. The young man was a member of the family of the late Patrick O'Brien, who was killed in the same manner in 1902. The body of the slain youngster was sent to Boston, where it was identified by his father and mother. The funeral arrangements have been made, and the body will be shipped to Boston at once.
