Williams Bros.

Cut prices! Cut prices!! Cut prices!!!

We have an exceptionally large stock on hand, and need money worse than we do goods, and from this day on will make prices for cash that will make them go. Now if you have THE CASH, or can get it, you can buy ANYTHING IN OUR LINE at a BARGAIN. Groceries, hardware, queensware, stoves, pumps, implements, wagons, buggies and carriages. We want to convert half our stock into cash, and we know the right kind of price will do it.

Will sell you a Bain wagon for $63.00. Will sell you a No. 1 buggy, with second growth hickory wheels, deep buff leather trimmed, dust proof spindles, roller rubber iron, Bailey body loop, 12 inch rear fifth wheel. Nothing better in Butler except a Sayers & Scovill for $55.00. Will sell you the best 12 inch walking plow for $9.00, 14 inch for $10.50, wood beam tongueless cultivator $9.00.

Kingman Commodore 16 inch Sulky plow $28.00. The Diamond Sulky 16 inch plow $30.00. The Improved Eagle Sulky 15 inch plow $35.00. Above prices for spot cash. Also 8-hoe superior grain drill $42.00. Also 10-Disc superior grain drill

$53.00. No better drills on the market.

We have just gotten it two cars. 1,300 sacks of old wheat flour and this may be the last old wheat flour, we will be able to get. We bought this flour cheap and will sell same way. Now is your time to lay in 500 to 1,000 lbs, while you can get this good flour for your winter's use, as you are all aware that ALL NEW wheat this year is damaged and musty. Everything in our line will go at big reduction in price to reduce our stock for cash. Yours Truly, WILLIAMS BROS.

The Socialists of Bates county held a convention in Butler on Saturday and nominated the following ticket: Representative, Dan McConnell; county clerk, David Walker; circuit clerk, C. L. Phifer; sheriff, Geo Goodwin; presiding judge, J. W. Rostrand; associate, C. A. McCoy and C. H. Williams; probate judge, N. T. Phillip; treasurer, Aaron Thomas.

A deputy United States marshal came down Tuesday to serve notice on the county clerk to attend the the United States court on Nov. 3, 1902 and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against the county for $344,079.36, bonds held by John B. Henderson, Jr. Of this amount $169,528.88 bears interest at the rate of 10 per cent and $174,550.46 bears 6 per cent. The object of the summons and suit is to keep alive a judgment rendered against the county on May 17, 1895.—Oceola Democrat.

Passaic Breezes.

This part of Bates was visited by a gentle rain Sunday and Monday, which seems to us would put a finish on most all the unthreshed grain.

Hon J. N. Sharp was over Monday and reported Uncle Lewis as convalescent and not as badly used up from his 30-foot fall out of that rag weed as was at first thought.

JIM'S SPECIALS

SATURDAY, SEPT. 27.

Gentlemen, do you chew? If so, we will offer you the lowest price ever made on tobacco in Butler. We have purchased a nice lot of horse shoe tobacco right from the manufacturers, cutting out the middle man's profit and giving it to our customers, who are so liberally patronizing us. Horse Shoe tobacco worth 45c to 50c a lb for 30c lb, less than competition can buy it from traveling salesmen.

Old fashioned long green home spun worth 45c lb for 4c per twist.

Any 5c cigar for 3c.

Any 5c package chewing gum 3c. The above prices are for one day only

Saturday Sept. 27, 1902.

But don't forget that we sell cheap for cash every day in the week. For instance, Price's 6 oz baking powder 20c. Ruby flour 65c per sack, $1.25 per cwt. May flower the best hard wheat flour 95c per sack.

Don't buy cheap package coffee. We will sell you a good bulk coffee for 10c lb, try it.

MEAT, MEAT, FLOUR, FLOUR

We can show you more meat and flour than any two stores in Butler, and kept clean and fresh. We turn out wagon loads of the famous White Leaf flour every day. Come Saturday or any other day, and if we are too busy to wait on you at once, Don't, Oh, please, don't do like the poor little girl who came in the rush last Saturday and actually cried because we could not wait on her until her turn came. Ginger snaps 3c per dozen or 2 lbs for 15c. We trade for meat any old thing except old clothes and bad debts.
