by his son John, left Monday night for St. Louis and will spend a week or ten days sight seeing at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walls of Adrian, and Mr. and Mrs. Mercer of Racine, Wis., visited relatives and friends in Butler the last of the week.

Bring us your produce, we are offering prizes for the greatest amount of produce brought to our store during this month.—Butler Cash Department Store.

Mrs. F. H. Crowell entertained a select party of lady friends at cards on Saturday afternoon. Refreshments were served and a jolly good time reported.

The person who cannot bring the greatest amount of produce to the Butler Cash Department store may still draw the prize for greatest amount of packages.

Chas. B. Parker, of Spruce, made us a business call on Tuesday. They are preparing for a big time at the Odd Fellows picnic on August 20th.

J. L. Glazebrook, formerly of Adrian, orders his paper changed from South Bend to Raymond, Wash., and favors us with renewal.

Our old friend John Busch, formerly of this county, now a prosperous farmer near Manhattan, Kansas, observes his annual custom by sending remittance for renewal.

Oscar Sisson and wife, of Springfield, Mo., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sisson.
Mrs. Sisson who recently fell and injured herself, is improving.

Prof. W. H. Morris requests us to say that while his family has moved to Neosho, he will be detained here several weeks settling up his business affairs.

The Cass County Democrat says, the little eight year-old son of Harry Jackson, who lives near the Duncan Barned farm, was kicked by a calf Tuesday evening just below the knee and the leg was broken in two places.

J. J. Caven, of Oklahoma, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Hupp.
Mr. Caven is an old Bates county boy, but went to Oklahoma and got a good claim at the first opening in 1892, which is now quite valuable.

The Butler Cash Department Store is offering prizes for the greatest amount of produce and the greatest number of packages of produce brought to their store during the month of August.

L. H. Logan and Miss Dannie A.
Morris of Nevada, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Jackson in Butler, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. They were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F.
Moore.

Saturday morning as a number of western horses owned by D. A. Colyer, were being driven into the feed yard, one of the most valuable animal was so severely snagged on a projecting plank that he had to be killed.

Misses Orna and Ina Tucker of Livingston, Montana, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O Warford, of Adrian. After a couple of weeks of sight seeing at the World's fair they will return to their Montana home.

W. H. Christoleer, from Grand River, says the prospects in his section now are that farmers will raise enough corn to carry them through the winter and much more than was expected a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Robert Stubblefield had a nasal hemorrhage on Saturday which continued throughout the night and until 10 o'clock Sunday before she could be relieved. She was much weakened by loss of blood.

Wm. M. Berry, sheriff of Union county, Ky., was here Friday, to get Wm. Osborn, who is wanted for house burglary at Morganfield. Osborn had been working at the Wm.
Speaks coal bank for some time.
The sheriff returned with his prisoner Friday afternoon.—Amsterdam Enterprise.

Bert Allen had his pockets picked at Rich Hill, but Bert confesses it was filled principally with bread tickets with 30 cents in cash. Now the question is what right did he have carrying all that money around as a temptation to pickpockets.

Arthur Morris, who had been spending a few days with his mother and numerous friends in Butler, left the last of the week for Chicago, where he will open an office for the "Ad Writer," a St. Louis publication with which he is connected.

Miss Jaunette Bewley, eldest daughter of Rev. W. C. Bewley, of Carterville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. D.
Allen. Miss Bewley is a graduate of Cottey College, Nevada, and has accepted a position as teacher in the Carterville schools the coming year.

Dr. G. R. Smith left the last of the week for Duncan, I. Ty., where he is engaged in the practice of dentistry.
He will stop off at La Harpe, Kan., for a few days to visit his brother John. He has been home for a month recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Henry W. Gilmore, an old and highly respected citizen of Deep Water township, died at his home Sunday evening, after a protracted illness. He leaves a wife and six children, Art, Gilmore, Mrs. Bert Radford, Mrs. Mabrey, Mrs. James Keene and Mrs. Bert Graham.

John McKlaick has returned to Butler and purchased an interest in the business of Hotel Ross from his father-in-law, George Frank, and will assist in the management. He has had considerable experience in the hotel business, having been connected with several hotels in Kansas City.

Mrs. J. M. Christy and Mrs. Thos.
J. Smith gave a reception to their lady friends and the young folks on Friday evening from 7 to 11 o'clock, at the home of the former on North Main street. The interior of the house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, ferns and vines. Delicious refreshments were served and a delightful time reported.

Farmers on the highlands adjacent to the river bottoms, say their places are overrun with vermin and snakes, many of them venomous, which were driven out of the bottoms by the unprecedented high waters of the past few months.
Many big timber rattlers, copper-heads and moccasins have been killed.
One farmer said a large number of mink and polecats appeared on his farm.

The Adrian Journal reports the death, August 2nd, of J. Herson Harris at his home near Burdett, aged 74 years, after a lingering illness.
Two sons and a sister, Mrs. L. M.
Six of Adrian survive him.

A number of the Butler ladies spent Thursday afternoon at the Christy lakes, and prepared a delicious supper for their poor tired hubbies, who managed to get off in time to do full justice to that part of the program.

Walter Haggard's children found a quartz rock on the home farm two miles northwest of Adrian that contained gold in large quantities. The rock was shown a miner from Colorado and he pronounced it genuine gold bearing quartz, says the Journal.

It is stated on the streets of Rich Hill that John B. Armstrong, one of the prominent farmers of this township, positively declines the nomination for judge of the southern district which honor was conferred on him by the Republican convention Saturday—Rich Hill Review.

Dr. L. Lamb, formerly of Virginia, now of Ollie, Iowa, was a pleasant caller at THE TIMES office and had his dates set ahead. He came to the county with his wife to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. R. T.
Judy. Dr. Lamb has a big practice and is well satisfied with his present location.

Madames Jessie McKibben, Alice Allen, Mary Pettis, Maud Armstrong and Lizzie Warnock, spent a day the last of the week visiting Mrs. A.
Lindsay and her father, F. M. Wyatt, at Ft. Scott. It was in the nature of a reunion of the "old crowd" of girls and a very enjoyable day was spent. Mr. Wyatt, who is a paralytic, especially appreciated the visit.

Paul Bengsch, wife and son left for Colorado Springs, Col., on Sunday, where they go for the benefit of Mr.
B.'s health, a specialist in Kansas City having pronounced one of his lungs affected. If he is not speedily benefitted there he expects to go to Arizona for the winter. Mr. Bengsch's many friends here hope to hear of his full recovery at an early date.

The Odd Fellows out at Spruce are preparing for a big picnic to be held at that place August 20th. Unless all signs fail the picnic will be one of the most pleasant ever held in the county. The people out at Spruce know just how to get up a picnic and the best cooks on earth live in that neck-o'-the-woods. So you can look out for plenty of good things to eat and a jolly time.

Robert J. Lynn, published in all the papers as having drawn a claim in Rosebud, S. D., drawing last week. was Robert J. Lyle, of Peru, this county, son of M. R. Lyle. He is a worthy and industrious young man and deserves his good luck. He was offered one thousand dollars for his claim before leaving Butler, but said he would stay with it and make a home. He has a young wife.

Captain W. C. Bronaugh, of Henry county was a pleasant caller on Friday. The Captain was in good spirits and predicts are increased majority for the whole ticket. Captain Bronaugh made an honorable, clean race for railroad commissioner and by his withdrawal in the way he did he unquestionably nominated Rube Ogleby. He has no sore spots, but is for the whole ticket from Parker down.

Ted Kendall received a letter from Edgar Williams, at Rush Springs, Okla., last week, which said that corn in that vicinity would make sixty bushels to the acre, that rural delivery service is in operation and telephone wires are strung all over that country. Edgar had engaged a car on the following Monday for his water melons, and said that six more cars, averaging 1,000 melons to the car, were shipped the same day. Mr. Kendall owns a farm in that locality, which he won in the drawing two or three years ago.

Dan McConnell's house boat party embarked at the wire bridge south of town on Tuesday, bound for the World's Fair at St. Louis. Dan was in to see us on Monday and said they anticipate a very pleasant trip.
They will go by easy stages, with frequent stops for hunting and fishing. They had a little misfortune when they launched their boat, as it capsized, but they soon had it righted. They have it fully equipped and provisioned for the journey. We promised Dan a good obituary if he was drowned, but hope we will not have to keep the promise.
