A Murderer Killed Himself.

Chicago, July 31.—After a week of mental anguish, during which he contiually wept and prayed, Frank Benedetto, who murdered his wife in a fit of jealousy, committed suicide in his cell in the county jail to day by hanging himself. The murderer made a rope of the sheet on his bed, tied one end around his neck and the other to the highest available point in the darkest corner of his cell. Then he lifted his feet from the floor and slowly strangled to death.
