

Hon. Jno. P. Gordon and Hon. John M. Atkinson Speak in Butler To-day.

Hon. Jno. P. Gordon, State Auditor of Missouri, and Hon. John M. Atkinson, assistant attorney general of Missouri, will speak at the court house in this city this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and every Democrat in the county should make every effort to be present. As State Auditor, Mr. Gordon has saved the State of Missouri many thousands of dollars through his careful attention to detail in auditing accounts and claims against the State, and in more than one instance has detected and exposed petty attempts upon the part of Republican office holders, to pad their expense accounts. Mr. Gordon is a fluent and logical speaker, and is thoroughly conversant with the financial affairs of the State.

Hon. John M. Atkinson, as one of Attorney General Major's staff, has built for himself an enviable reputation as a lawyer. Mr. Atkinson has successfully handled some of the most important cases which have passed through the office of Attorney General. He is an orator of Statewide reputation and one, fully competent to discuss clearly and convincingly the issues of the day. These gentlemen will speak at Rich Hill to-day at 8 o'clock, p. m.

Stanley Ketchel Killed.

Stanley Ketchel, middle-weight champion pugilist, was shot and killed by Walter A. Dimpley, a deserter from the U. S. Navy last Friday. The shooting took place on the ranch of B. P. Dickerson, a friend of Ketchel, near Conway, forty miles east of Springfield. The remains will be buried on the 200-acre farm which he purchased for his parents, near Belmont, Michigan. His estate will amount to about $10,000.

On next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be an old people's meeting at the M. E. church, South. Old time songs will be sung, "old time religion" enjoyed and an old time experience meeting engaged in. Everybody invited and all old people urged to attend this service.

A Good One on Warrensburg.

We were amused on our return home from the State Fair last week. Two drummers occupied the seat across the aisle, one asked of the other, the population of Warrensburg, which the other one replied: "Just wait until the train pulls up to the depot, then you can see," (as they will all be there).

Judge Sullens to Move to Texas.

Judge John H. Sullens sold his country home, east of town, to James Vaughn. He and his estimable wife will leave shortly for San Antonio, Texas, their future home. Judge Sullens is eighty-two years old, and is very feeble. And it is with deep regret, the people of Foster lose these good old people from their midsts. He has spent forty-five years of his life in Bates county, and was twice elected Judge of our county court and served the people well and faithfully in that capacity. Judge Sullens is one of the old settlers that helped to pave the road to settlement that put Bates in the front ranks of counties of our great State to-day. Long live, the Judge and Mrs. Sullens, is the wish of their many friends. DINAH.

Dolliver, Iowa's Insurgent, Dies in Doctor's Arms.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Oct. 15—United States Senator Jonathan Prentiss Dolliver died of dilation of the heart, caused by an attack of acute indigestion at his residence at 7:30 o'clock tonight, while being rubbed by an osteopathic physician.

Senator Dolliver's demise was wholly unexpected by his relatives and close friends, who thought that he had almost entirely recovered from the attack of indigestion from which he had suffered for a week.

Senator Dolliver was one of the ablest men allied with the insurgent wing of the Republican party.

W. W. Cannon Purchases All Cannon-Weiner Elevator Co. Stock.

The Cannon-Weiner Elevator Company, a corporation, one of the strongest business institutions in southwest Missouri, changed hands last week, when W. W. Cannon, Secretary and Treasurer, purchased all out standing stock and became sole owner of the business.

Mr. Cannon informed a reporter of The Times that it is the intention to dissolve the corporation and to continue the business under the name of the W. W. Cannon Elevators. The transfer includes the plants at Foster and Nyhart.

Mr. Cannon first became connected with the Elevator that now bears his name, at an early age as bookkeeper. In 1901 Mr. Cannon and Mr. Weiner, as the principal stockholders, incorporated under the name Cannon-Weiner Elevator Company. Mr. Weiner serving as President and Mr. Cannon, Secretary and Treasurer.

In 1905, in order to accommodate their large volume of business, it became necessary to re-build the plant at Butler. The new elevator, which was erected on the site upon which it now stands near the Mo. Pacific depot, together with the adjoining grain sheds and warehouses, extends over more than a block and is 90 feet in height. The elevator, proper, and the office buildings are iron sheathed and are practically fireproof. The power house is constructed of brick.

The present capacity of the plant is 25,000 bushels.

Mr. Cannon is a native of Bates county, having been born in Butler in 1874, and received his education in the public and High schools in this city. He is a self-made man in every sense of the word, having attained his present standing through his close attention to business, and his strict integrity in all his dealings.

Emily Blanche Williams.

Emily Blanche Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Boyd Williams, was born in McLean county, Ill., Oct. 28th, 1882, and died at their home near Butler Oct. 4th, 1910, aged 27 years, 11 months and 6 days. She had a quiet, gentle disposition, and had many friends among her acquaintances. She united with the M. E. Church at Hudson about ten years ago, and has lived a consistent Christian life, always enjoying all church privileges. She suffered very patiently and was ready to go, when the call came.

"Lo, I am with always even unto the end of the world," was a precious promise to her.

Wants More of Barnhart's Horses.

J. W. Barnhart, proprietor of the Mound Branch Stock Farm, received the following letter from a horseman who attended his Percheron sale, and who is more than satisfied with his purchase:

Dear Sir:—Arrived home Thursday with my horses. Got through without a scratch. Put a new brass trimmed set of harness on them this morning, hitched to a new wagon and drove them up through town. They went along like old horses. When I took them up town this morning they gathered a crowd equal to a funeral. They are the first pair of thoroughbreds in this county.

We expect to be at your place early in the spring for a stallion.
