NUMBER 27

FOSTER.

Candidates are ripe and quite numerous these days.

Dinah wants her Georgia cousins to send her a Magnolia flower from where the sweet Magnolias bloom.

Mrs. Will Finten and children of Virden, Illinois, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Parlier.

We are sorry to learn A. E. Perkins was stricken with paralysis at his home in Hume and is in a critical condition.

Will Frankenfield and wife departed Sunday on the afternoon passenger for their home at Pittsburg, Kansas, after a week's visit in Foster.

Mrs. Joe Smith, living three miles southwest of town, was taken to the hospital Saturday to undergo a surgical operation for appendicitis.

D. L. Hughes was a business visitor to Rich Hill Monday.

J. L. Bell is building an addition to his residence on Seventh St.

P. L. Shelton and family were out of town visitors Sunday.

Grover Arbogast returned home from Radlev, Kans., Friday.

Ray Lockhart and wife moved to Foster last week and will work this summer for Edgar Waller.

The musical entertainment held at Clarence Clicks Monday night was well attended.

Mrs. Will Humphrey visited relatives and friends in Rich Hill Monday and Tuesday.

Prof. A. C. Moreland visited with homefolks Saturday and Sunday at Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bradshaw spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Loran Bright of Old Walnut.

W. B. Hamilton came down from the city Wednesday to visit his children and renew old acquaintances.

J. J. Finten and wife of Virden, Illinois, were arrivals Monday on a few days visit with relatives and friends.

Joe T. Smith is building an addition to his beautiful country home west of town. Mr. Smith recently moved here from Butler onto the farm he bought of J. O. Shofner and is doing quite a lot of improving this spring.

Mrs. Mark Thomas Hurt

Tuesday evening of last week while Mrs. Thomas was in town doing some shopping as she started home the horse she was driving, which was a high spirited one, became unmanageable and ran away. When in front of the old Zeal building the horse turned north, throwing her to the ground. In the fall Mrs. Thomas was rendered unconscious. When help arrived she was taken to the home of Henry Briscoe and medical aid summoned. Dr. Rhoades found, on examination, that no bones were broken, but she was suffering from concussion of the brain and it was feared she was fatally hurt. Friday she was able to be taken home and it is hoped for a speedy recovery.

DINAH.

Elkhart.

We had quite a rain and wind storm last Saturday night, but no damage done.

Harve Johnson, who wants to be the next sheriff of Bates county, passed through Elkhart last Thursday. We think that he was doing a little missionary work with the boys.

Mrs. Charley Spillman and daughter visited at W. H. Keeton's one day last week.

Col. Lockeridge and wife, George Lockeridge and wife were trading in Amsterdam last Saturday.

A. H. Hall made a flying trip to Adrian last Saturday in an auto and he says the greatest sights he saw was the bad roads.

J. H. Keeton was out buying calves one day last week.

Lige Spillman's two sisters were over and spent the day with him.

George Lockeridge and wife, and son Lawrence, called on Emmett Wymer last Sunday evening.

While in Adrian we met the McGuire boys, living east of Ballard. They have sold out but want to buy closer to some good town.

A. Westover and wife, A. Jackson and wife called at the home of Will Westover last Sunday evening to see Mrs. Francis who has been quite sick for some time.

I see a letter in Adrian Journal, wrote by W. G. Dillon in regard to the single tax, in reply to Col. S. W. Dooley, who seems to be in favor of the single tax. Come again Will, your letter was all O. K.

It was reported that there was a meeting at Elkhart Saturday night to form a "No Tax" club against the single tax, which seems to be the talk among the boys in this part.

George Fulkerson was trading in Butler last Tuesday, buying tools to farm with this year.

The writer and Charley Spillman made a trip to Adrian one day last week and took in the sights. About the greatest sights were the bad roads. It has been a good while since we were over to the little burg, and it is coming to the front. They have put up some good buildings and still more are going up. We had the pleasure of meeting a good many of our old friends and talked over old times. We called on the editor of the Journal and his two sons, who were hard at work.

The Elkhart court met last week and swore in the road overseers, Oscar Hand, J. M. Chambers and J. B. Clements. New, we expect to see the dirt fly and have good roads.

The writer is keeping batch a part of this week, as his wife has gone to Drexel on a visit. I guess that she will find things in a good shape when she gets home.

While in Adrian last week I met my old friend Mr. Frazier, who was elected mayor on the Democratic ticket, while the town is Republican. We wish him good luck in the discharge of his duties as mayor of that city.

Miss Flossie Fritts left last Saturday for Bison, Kansas, where she will spend the summer. JOHNNY
