

The Butler Weekly Times.

State Historical Soc.
elv.

VOL. XXXVII.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1915.

NUMBER 50

In and Around Mayeburg.

Mrs. Wesley Dale is still very sick. There is not much change in her condition the past week.

Jim White of Eldorado Springs spent Friday with his brother, Tan White. He is up looking after his farm over on Smokey Row.

While unhitching a team last Thursday Mrs. Sam Staton was knocked down by one of the horses and pretty badly bruised about the face and one shoulder. She had failed to undo all the tugs and when she undertook to lead the horses from the buggy it frightened them in some way which caused them to run.

Miss Stella Ramsey visited Miss Mable Sherman last Friday night. Mrs. Sherman is a niece of Mr. Owens and is making them a visit.

Several expect to fill their silos next week if it doesn't rain too much.

Mr. Ben Harrison expects to rebuild his silo next week. It was blown down by one of the big rain storms we had last summer.

Rev. McCormack filled his regular appointment Sunday with a special sermon to the men and boys. Quite a number of special songs suited to the occasion were sung.

Mrs. Ica Hibbs was quite poorly a few days last week.

The ladies of the Christian church cleared $32 at Mrs. Cunningham's sale from their dinner.

Rev. McCormack and Mr. Sterling Harness and family went to Mr. Sam Grosehart's after church Sunday.

Mr. Walter Staley and sisters have relatives from Illinois visiting them.

Tan White and Sam Farmer dug their potatoes Saturday. Both report a good crop.

Mr. Hook came up from Apple City to see about his farm Friday.

Zella Dale from over near Doton, visited home folks Thursday and attended the sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer took dinner at Mr. Gilbert's Sunday.

A NEIGHBOR.

On the Wing.

Tinker Hedger visited McGraw up on Knabe's creek Sunday.

Esq. Hedger is complaining with a very bad cold.

Uncle Geo. Zinn is building a nice barn. It is shedded on the north.

Douglass Browning and family, and Geo. Lockridge and family spent Sunday with Ike Lockridge.

W. H. Jackson has a nearly new set of double wagon harness for sale.

Marion Hedger sold his hay press to Fred McCall and Doug Browning.

The road was kept hot Sunday and from camp meeting.

Cyrus Nestlerode and Grant Oldham have gone into the sheep business.

Tansy Smith commenced cutting corn in earnest Monday morning.

The camp meeting closed Sunday night at Olive Branch. There were several conversions.

Remember the 29th and 30th is the street fair at Amsterdam, Mo. Kelly McGuire thrashed Monday.

Miss Clara Smith visited her grandpa, I. M. Smith, of near Spruce, Monday for a few days.

Aunt Sarah Adams and Mrs. Jno. Wooters are visiting Mr. Jake Jundy this week.

Mrs. Peter Denning started for Montana to visit her son, Robert, and family.

There was another big dinner at the tabernacle Sunday.

Wm. Hubbard was in our midst Saturday buying hogs and cattle.

Cyrus Nestlerode is having a time with sickness. His eldest boy was kicked in the stomach by the old family mare, but is now feeling along fine, and we think will recover. The third boy has a cold that is just simply the whooping cough.

Harwood was around during 7 1-2 cents for turned to his home in Kansas Monday, accompanied by his wife.

The porch over the Crooka school house door is a nice one. It was put up by Geo. Jackson.

Tom Smith has just finished his new house. It is a dandy.

The brick walls are up and ready for the roof on the Amsterdam school building.

Dr. Lusk had 9 phone calls last Tuesday night.

M. G. Hedger spent Saturday night and Sunday at Happy Hill.

Jno. E. Hedger has moved on the Pierce Hackett farm just west of Jim Hayes, north of Amoret.

T. A. Crabtree on Butler, R. F. D. No. 2 has a Holstein cow for sale.

N. M. N.

Elkhart.

Well, it is not raining at this writing, and we don't need any rain just at present.

Mrs. W. A. Crumley and daughter visited friends in Adrian one day last week.

The birthday party at Mrs. Allen's one night last week was quite a surprise on one of the boys. He didn't know anything about it until the next day when he went home.

From the looks of things out in this neighborhood there is some prospect of another wedding being pulled off soon.

Miss Myrtle Spillman has been quite sick the past week. There was two doctors to set her one night last week. She is reported better at this writing.

The high waters last week were the cause of some of the neighbors pulling out one night last week, but everything was alright when they got back.

The bridge on Knab's creek west of Mr. Clapp is in a bad condition. It is worn out and it is on a mail route.

Will and Boyd Kershner are putting in a concrete bridge on the head waters of the Post Oak, which was very much needed.

If it don't rain all week the street fair at Amsterdam will be pulled off at this week.

Mrs. Ed. Bailey and Mrs. Allen took in the sights at Amsterdam one day last week and got some apples.

Mr. McDaniels and wife of Granville, North Dakota, are here on a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Fred Armentrott.

W. H. Keeton sold a mare to the horse buyers at Amsterdam last Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Stephens was quite sick last week. She is some better at this writing.

We haven't seen Col. Lockridge for some time. We hear he is attending the big tent meeting at the Crooka school house.

The hog cholera is around once more. Turner Henderson has a sick hog and his father has one sick hog. Col. Lockridge has lost the most of his hogs.

JOHNNY.

Merwin Items.

Mrs. Maud Owen and two children left Monday morning for Chanute, Kas.

James Hayes Jr., of Kansas City spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Alamo and Isabel Aurnutte spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Joe Braden.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Corbin of Kansas City spent Saturday night and Sunday with Joe Johnson.

Mrs. Clyde Patterson and Mrs. James H. Hayes have been on the sick list.

Remember the Amsterdam street fair Sept. 29 and 30.

VERGINIA.

Foster News.

On last Thursday morning the Mo. Pac. Ry. agent was found dead at his station. His death was due to heart failure. He was buried at Pleasanton, Kansas.

The funeral was conducted by the Masonic fraternity of which he was member here at Foster.

One of our Foster boys, Ole Gray, was given the position as agent at Worland on account of the agent's death over there. Ole has the best wishes of his many friends here, to success in his new position.

Miss Grace Brown, the primary teacher here, spent Sunday at her home at Walker, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Metzler left Sunday for St. Louis where they will attend the State Fair.

A social dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Dunsworth at their home east of town last Saturday night. Everybody reported a good time.

A good roads meeting was held in town last Saturday for the purpose of seeing what could be done about fixing the road across the river bottom by the way of the Nyhart bridge.

Mr. J. L. Bell made a business trip to the county seat last Saturday.

J. J. Morehouse of Worland spent of last week with his son, L. J. Morehouse, of this place.

Several of the boys and men have been enjoying the fruits of the forest. They have been cutting bee trees, and all say that there is plenty of honey in the trees and a few stings to keep you on your guard.

Mrs. Neil of Kansas City, who owns the place where Henry Dunlap lives is down visiting with old friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lent are the proud parents of a new baby girl, born September 26.

Joe McCall and family spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McCall, of this place.

SLIM.

Summit Happenings.

Fisher Lacy went to Bates City Saturday for a visit with his parents, returning Monday.

Mr. Rankin and wife came in Saturday with their goods. We Summit neighbors give them a hearty welcome. We can't say we like to give up our old neighbors and wish Mr. Tyler well in his new home.

Mr. Leslie Clinkenbeard, Mr. Jim Thomas, Clarence Bolin and Robt. Sturgeon motored to Kansas City Sunday, returning Monday.

Mrs. Oscar Price and daughter, Florence, spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Robt. Sturgeon.

Mr. Wayland was called to Arkansas City last week to be with Mrs. Wayland, who is not so well.

Fisher Lacy and wife were entertained at Dr. Norris' home Sunday.

Percy Tyler and wife spent a couple of days at his father's helping to get things ready for moving.

Mrs. Robt. Sturgeon and daughter, Eulalia, were visitors at T. C. Jones Sunday.

Mr. Hyatt returned Monday from his western trip.

Mrs. Morrison of Kansas City and Mrs. Clarence Bolin of Butler were visitors at Jim Thomas' over Sunday.

SUNSHINE.

Cattle For Sale.

300 head young Angus cows, bred to registered bulls and 200 head calves out of same. Delivery Oct. 25 to 30.

McFarland & Sons,
Kress, Texas.

Mt. Carmel News.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason R. Darnes returned Tuesday night of last week from a week's visit with relatives near Harper, Kansas.

Larris Wheatley delivered hogs to Butler shippers Monday.

Mrs. D. C. Wolfe of the Virginia neighborhood arrived at Nyhart Monday from a several day's visit with her son W. J. and wife near Blue Mound, Kas.

Mrs. John Huffman has been spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Albert Silvers, at Springfield, Mo.

McCann brothers purchased some calves from Joe Piggott one day last week.

Mrs. Let M. Hardinger was on the sick list Sunday.

The ice cream supper at Mt. Carmel was about froze out Wednesday night.

Lee M. Hardinger and brother, Elmer, went to Altona and Adrian Sunday afternoon and night in the interest of the county C. E. work, of which Lee is president.

Mrs. Daniels of Nebraska, spent last week at the home of her brother, Mr. G. W. Jarvis, and family.

Mrs. Lee M. Hardinger is the owner of a new sewing machine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Burk and son, Glen, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Drysdale, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brayton and son, Derrell, Mrs. W. M. Hardinger and daughter, Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Hardinger of this neighborhood and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McElroy of near Butler surprised W. A. McElroy in Butler Monday, it being his seventy-sixth birthday.

W. Y. Osborne of Butler, visited over Sunday at the homes of P. H. and W. E. Osborne.

Rev. Spencer preached his farewell sermon at Mt. Carmel Sunday morning.

Mrs. Rosa Steele, who lives one and three quarter miles south of Virginia will have a sale Tuesday, October 5th.

J. E. Leonard cut corn for W. M. Hardinger the first of the week.

UNCLE HENRY.

Orchard Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Steele and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Lefe Cassidy.

Mr. J. W. Isley spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. M. E. Stoutier.

Miss Pearl Tharp visited Sunday at the home of her brother, Mr. Milburn Tharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Seifers spent Sunday with Mrs. Seifers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Ellington.

Miss Emma Wix, who is attending high school in Butler spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wix.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ball are rejoicing over the birth of a fine baby girl, born Wednesday.

Most of the farmers are sowing wheat in this section.

Mrs. Frank Feely gave a delightful party for the young people at her home Tuesday evening. About forty of the young folks were present and a most enjoyable time was spent.

Poffenbarger and Herrel, the insurance men from Butler were out in this neighborhood last week.

Mr. Carl Welliver is in Kansas City taking a course in automobile repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gordon spent Sunday with Mrs. Gordon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Connor.

Master Frankie Feeley is on the sick list.

Mr. Welliver and daughter, Miss Nellie, spent one day last week at the home of Mr. Clyde Welliver. APPLE BLOSSOM.

Spruce

Mrs. Ira Eads and children are visiting relatives in Kansas City this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Radford spent a few days in Sedalia, taking in the State Fair.

Mrs. Nell Minan and children, of Los Angeles, Cal., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Radford.

Messrs. Ambrose, Keen and Sam Young spent a few days at the State Fair.

Rev. C. C. Miller will fill Rev. J. G. West's pulpit Oct. 1, at Appleton City.

Suit and Coat News From

Our Busiest Department

SUITS and COATS are selling rapidly, our garment makers Evidently hit the mark this season. Our Suits and Coats struck the public fancy as never before. Some of the naggiest garments are now on display and were never lower in price here. Bear in mind that our label in our garments is a pledge of satisfaction and style.

Wonderful Values in Smart Styles of Women's and Misses' Suits
$10, $12.50, $15, $20, $25, $30

Ladies and Misses Coats

Garments of style and comfort, in the deep rich tones of brown, green, navy and fancy mixtures, also black, specially priced

$7.50, $10, $15, $20, $25, $27.50

DRESSES

Serges, Taffetas, Velvets, Crepe, Meteor and Crepe de Chine
$5, $10, $15, $20

Special ONE LOT OF FLUSH COATS LINED WITH SILKERS SATIN... $13.50

A Full line of Children's Coats in a great variety of prices.

Samuel Levy Mercantile Co.

DRY GOODS

CLOTHING

SHOES