Social and Personal

LIVING PORTRAIT

Three novel entertainments for charity have recently been held in Orchestra Hall, in Chicago. The first, a pageant vivant, netted $22,000 for the Destitute Children Convalescent Home. A committee of well-known society leaders planned and carried into execution this unique form of entertainment, which consisted of exact reproductions of famous portraits by English and French masters, posed by society women. The backgrounds of the tableaux were painted by Frederick Clay Bartlett, and the poses and details of costume were admirably arranged by Ralph Clarkson. The second entertainment was for the benefit of the Chicago Hebrew Institute. Famous by a group of pre-Raphaelite and modern French and English painters were posed in exact copy by men and women under the direction of Charles Francis Browne and Abbie Birdsell Phillips. A number of massive paintings were chosen, difficult of reproduction in pose and costume. A musical program was given by a group of artists from the Italian Grand Opera Company and sixteen members of the Thomas Orchestra. A third entertainment, even more ambitious, was "Living Music," also given by prominent members of society, under the general direction of Mr. James Lindon Smith. Its proceeds, something like $10,000, will go toward forming a relief fund for members of the Theodore Thomas Orchestra.

Reception Honoring Mrs. J. C. Hanway

An unusually handsome social event of the late winter took place on Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being a reception tendered by Mrs. Ann S. Haway to Mrs. John C. Hanway, one of the season's lovely brides.

The receiving party included Mrs. A. S. Hanway, Mrs. J. C. Hanway, Mrs. James Grasty, Miss Heintz of Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. Jno. Cannon, Mrs. Shanahan, Mrs. William Crump and Mrs. LeRoy Percy, who stood in a graceful semi-circle amid the exquisite floral ornaments, of white carnations, ferns and palms, that decked the drawing room.

Mrs. Hanway was gowned in gray embroidered crepe de chine and point lace.

Mrs. John C. Hanway, white duchesse satin, garniture of lace and pearls.

Mrs. Grasty, imported gown, blue pena cloth, Miss Minnie Hanway, robe of white lace over silk.

Miss Heintz, white silk with over dress of lace.

A color scheme of lavender was carried out in the dining room. The table was covered with embroidered grass linen and ornamented with carnations tied with lavender ribbon and Japanese baskets filled with violets, while from the chandelier an inverted Japanese parasol formed of lavender blossom was suspended. American Beauty roses and smilax were effectively used in the decorations of the library.

Mrs. John Jackson and Mrs. W. F. Fordham presided over the punch bowl and the tea girls were: Misses Minnie Hanway, Jennie Paxton, Annie Moore, Mary Walker, Birdie Robertshaw, Jennie Cannon and Sadie Maude Rucks.

Music was rendered throughout the afternoon by Prof. Boenich's orchestra.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve at most any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargan, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.
