Dear Mrs. Everett.

With the exception of articles in the Democrat about a week since...

I took the stage in company with sundry ladies and gentlemen...

Who was that made me take another drink I wonder. I ought not to have taken that drink...

Everybody looked warm; everybody using their handkerchiefs.

The Captain rushed to the bell gave such a terrific rattle...

When I went down I found the cabin full and dancing going on.

I got a chair and set myself close by to look on. Presently the music dropped and the quadrille party sat down.

I think that snortish is a devilish fast one. The dance continued and after a while we came to Vicksburg...

At any rate I went in again took another drink my carpet sack and umbrella...
