OUR FALL OPENING

Pattern Hats and Bonnets, Dress Goods, Silks, and all the Newest Novelties of the Season.

Not in several years have the fall prospects for business been so bright as now. Prosperity indeed seems to be returning after a long period of depression and discouraging delay. It has been heralded before but got side-tracked, but this time it seems surely coming. With wheat climbing to the dollar mark and other produce going up in sympathy; with a good cotton crop assured to the south and a profitable market awaiting it; with general stocks reduced and factories resuming operations, the era of good times, if it has not yet arrived, cannot be far off. On all sides are strong evidences of improving business. Let all take fresh hope and prepare to share in the benefits to flow from a revival of trade.

OUR STOCK IS COMPLETE IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.

The ladies indeed seem to fully appreciate our efforts to please, and we feel encouraged to push forward to higher attainments in selecting our stock and extending our trade.

The dress goods are specially attractive this season. Indeed it seems as though a master hand had copied them from the beauties of the skies from their tints and loveliness. They range in price from 10c to $1.50 per yd. P. D. Corsets, Warner Bros.' Corsets.

Mrs. Jas. L. Gillespie herewith presents her respectful compliments to her numerous patrons, and to all ladies who appreciate the advantages of artistically made and perfect fitting costumes that combine the latest novelties in fabrics with the most improved designs in vogue at the fashion centers of the world. Her parlors are now at our store.

Our millinery department is filled with choice selections from the largest importers in the country—and prices much cheaper. Miss Hammond and Miss Berry will be delighted to have you call and inspect them.

The largest and finest ribbon department in this section. This will be pre-eminently a ribbon season. Ribbons will be very extensively used for all kinds of trimming, and will be quite an important factor in the make-up of evening gowns and street costumes. Ribbons will be greatly in demand for bows, for neckwear, for neckties, for ruchings, for sashes, and will be much in vogue with the new hat and bonnet conceptions. Ribbons will be wanted for everything.

Plain Colored Silks. Rich Novelty Silks. Evening Silks.
Perhaps in no other single department is our supremacy more clearly demonstrated than in our silk department. More wedding costumes and handsome dresses are sold over our silk counter than anywhere else in this country. It's the magnificent line of goods which we carry that does it. The grandest bringing together of silk elegance in this country—in whites and creams, in every delicate tint and hue, in plains and brocades, stripes and multi-colored fancies—at 30c, 50c, and up to $3.00 per yard.

SHOES! SHOES! SHOES!

Hamilton Brown Shoe Co's, Shoes, Bering & Co's. Shoes—Our ability to suit you cannot be questioned. The character of the shoes we carry is too well known. Our stock is undoubtedly the largest in this section, and always fully up-to-date. We have been catering to the wants of the trade for this section for a number of years. We have made the art of fitting feet our constant study and know how to do it. There may be larger shoe stocks in some of the great eastern cities, but their goods are not so well adapted to your taste nor fit. We are anxious for your trade, and will do all in our power to please you; so come right along and buy your shoes from us. Our styles are the very latest, and our prices are abreast with the times.
