

Millsaps College.

Jackson, Mississippi, November 6.
To the Parsons and Friends of Millsaps College.

The Sixth Annual Session of Millsaps College will begin Wednesday, November 17 and will continue, without intermission for the Christmas holidays, until June 14.

The entrance examinations in Latin and Greek will be held, Nov. 16; in English and Mathematics, Nov. 17. New students should be present Tuesday in order to be promptly classified.

A full session's work will be completed. The advancement of no student will be delayed as result of the postponement of the opening.

Students immediately from infected points will not be received so long as there is danger of infection.

During the summer extensive improvements have been made on the college grounds and buildings and many books added to the library, so that Millsaps College is better prepared than ever to do satisfactory work.

THE ARENA

Edited by
JOHN CLARK RIDPATH, LL. D.

The leading reform review is now entering upon its sixth year. Its course has been one of reform and the promotion of measures for the betterment of the People. Today THE ARENA is better, stronger, more vital than ever. It is the friend of the ignorant and the friend of the orphan.

It stands pre-eminent as Champion of Popular Liberties.

It is ever true to the interests of the people and its policy is based on no uncertain sound in their behalf. The recent reduction in the subscription price should make THE ARENA in the hands of every serious American man and woman. The ARENA is never dull; every issue is replete with bright and interesting articles on the living issues of the hour. Our arrangements are such that we can with confidence promise that under the Editorship of John Clark Ridpath, assisted by the most eminent writers and workers.

The ARENA for 1898 will be the ideal magazine for the American People.
