COMPETITION DEFIED. — Goods and Prices are guaranteed as GOOD and as LOW as the same can be purchased East, North and West, at the Mammoth Clothing House of M. P. LEVY & CO., Nos. 16, 18 and 20 North Water street, Mobile Ala.

THE LIFE OF COPELAND.—Dr. Pitts the author and proprietor of this work, writes us—"You have the exclusive Agency in Jackson County. No one can obtain the work from me at any price in localities where I have an agent;—Agents' rights in this respect must, and will be by me protected."

The work is expected, now to be issued every day. It will contain 220 pages, outside of illustrations. It will contain, writes Dr. Pitts,—"Quite a lengthy communication from a gentleman in your County, concerning a member of the Copeland Clan, that will be read with much interest—and by the way is a valuable document—written in forcible language and elegance of style".

Send in your orders (your names) that we may know how many to order for this County.

Price $1.50—to be paid when you get the book from us. Address STAR office, Scranton.

The above books have arrived.

PRICES WILL TELL—and everybody tells the prices, that the Cheapest and Best Clothing can be purchased only at the Mammoth Clothing House of M. P. LEVY & CO., Nos. 16, 18, and 20 North Water street, Mobile, Alabama.

LUMBER STATEMENT.

Cleared from Sept. 1st.	5,454,339.
" This week	193,000.
Total	5,647,339.

REMARKS.

To above statement 25 per cent should be added for lumber shipped in vessels under coasting license, not clearing at Custom House.

It is with the greatest sorrow that we record, that MR. ADOLPH POL, one of the noble band of young men whom we allude to in our article as devoted to us in our family sickness, and who assisted at the funeral of our wife on last Monday afternoon, is at this writing, on Friday afternoon, near the extreme hour of his life.

A noble young man, full of generous impulses and beloved by his associates, and by all who knew him, at the early age of twenty-two years, full of manly vigor and robust strength, yields to the terrible fever which has afflicted this community.

Later.—He died last evening at 7 o'clock, and his funeral will take place at 3½ o'clock this afternoon (Saturday).

Entertainment at Elder's Ferry, Friday Dec. 11th, at 7 o'clock p. m., Tableaux and charades by children of the school assisted by the young ladies and gentlemen of the neighborhood. Also a Magic Lantern exhibition by Professor Julius Caesar Bonneclus, of Blowemup and Showemoff Academy. He will exhibit thirty-six pictures life size, with suitable lectures.

Admission 25cts., tickets to be had at Kreb's, Scranton, Mr. Blumers and Mr. Randalls, Moss Point and at Elder's Ferry.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Capt. Henry Hetherman of the Sch. Zenobia died very suddenidly aboard his vessel at Moss Point, on 26th inst. Supposed, we understand, of heart disease.

Adamson's Botanic cough Balsam cures consumption, coughs and colds. Try it. 35 and 75 cts. per bottle.

W. HARRINGTON & CO.,

General Purchasing Agents
AND COTTON FACTORS.

FOR THE

Patrons of Husbandry for the States of Mississippi, Alabama, and Kansas.

No. 79 CANONDELET STREET,

New Orleans.

THE undersigned having been elected by the State Granges of Mississippi, as purchasing Agents and Cotton Factors for the Granges of the State, as this point, would respectfully inform the Order throughout the State, that he has associated with him Mr Kennedy Harrington, of Central Mississippi, and that we are now prepared to transact all business accepted to our care. The business of the Agency will be conducted on strictly a CASH BASIS. All orders accompanied by the cash, or its equivalent, and under seal of the Grange, will be filled at wholesale prices. We would suggest, for the good of the Order, that the Granges consolidate their orders, where it is practicable. By strict attention to your interest, we hope to merit your favors.

We will advance three fourths of the value of Cotton consigned through us to the firm of W. C. WATT & SON, Liverpool.

W. HARRINGTON.

At the recent session of the Executive Committee of the Patrons of Husbandry, held at Hot Springs, Ark., on the 10th of June, 1874, the business Agency of W. Harrington & Co., of New Orleans, was continued in the name of the late firm under the management of K. HARRINGTON.

All orders from Brothers of the Order will receive prompt attention, and we pledge ourself to spare no effort in giving satisfaction to those who may favor us with their business.
