

THE CLARION. THE FRATERNITIES.

Pertinent Points. At the recent annual election of officers in Niagara Lodge, No 375, Lockport, N. Y., the retiring Wor. Master, Bro. John Hodge, delivered a very sensible address...

Allow me to suggest that the members of this Lodge and the craft generally in this District, endeavor to cultivate and encourage a more liberal and charitable disposition towards each other.

I note as another feature which claims our attention, the fraternal love which Masonry inculcates. It is well to encourage, on general principles, any institution, which, shunning that which is wrong, gathers together those who have peculiar regard for each other's welfare.

But the point which I most desire to impress upon you is, that the heart in having its sympathies thus aroused toward brethren is not thereby rendered any less cordial to those who are Masonically considered outsiders.

Another thing which should receive our attention, notwithstanding we, as members of this Lodge, are comparatively free from, is the excessive use of spirituous liquors. I am not an advocate of prohibition or teetotal abstinence, but I do insist upon that Masonry and liquor cannot combine and live harmoniously any more than can the devil and the angels of heaven.

An Indispensable Tenet.

One of the decisions recently made by the M. W. Bro. Keifer, Grand Master of Masons of Ohio, respecting the belief of a candidate, will be read with interest by the Masons of the United States, as it affects a question often brought up.

Late Lodge Hours.

Late hours are always objectionable, but they are more particularly so when applied to Masonry. The institution being founded in secrecy, a natural prejudice arises and is cherished in the bosom of our families...

But the usual routine of business may always be performed within the proper limits, provided the Master allows no undue latitude to the workmen, and sets the craft to work and gives them proper instruction for their labors.

comes, and the Lodge orators spread themselves, and titular dignitaries have their say, and the funny brother from his inexhaustible budget culls another of his funny stories...

ALBERT PIKE, the Grand Commander of the Southern Supreme Council and the most learned Masonic author living, is now in his seventy-third year.

Slanders in Masonry.

We have had frequent occasions to notice the restless state of brethren when in the presence of persons given to tattling, and on former occasions have expressed our dislike of the poor practice of tale-bearing.

In looking over the decisions made by Grand Master John T. Irian, and reported in January last to the Grand Lodge of Tennessee, we notice one that should arrest the attention of scandal-mongers, and excite the approval of all the Masons.

OUR GRAND MASTER, KING SOLOMON.

Our Grand Master, King Solomon, felt this when he said, "A good name is like precious ointment," and "is better than great riches."

GRAND MASTER KING, of Maine, in his annual address to that Grand Lodge, said: "I am a member of no other secret society; I am solely and wholly a Freemason, and have been for nearly a quarter of a century."

ARE WE ALWAYS AS CHARITABLE TOWARDS THE WEAKNESSES AND FAILINGS OF OTHERS AS THE TEACHINGS OF FREEMASONRY INSTRUCT US TO BE?

MASONRY has taught all nations to speak one language by signs and symbols. She glories in age, without the least sign of dotage. She presents herself to-day in all the vigor of youth, and with the wisdom of manhood.

SHE attended a ball-danced to a late hour—became overheated—went home thinly clad, in a cold, damp night air and caught cold. Next day—headache—loss of appetite—slight fever—dry skin—pains and aches—chilly sensations—indisposition to get up, Remedy—one bottle Dr. Drogogool's English Female Bitters.

No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

"I can testify to the virtue of Hunt's Remedy in kidney disease from actual trial, having been much benefited thereby."

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.
