

GRENADA SENTINEL

J. A. SIGNAIO, Editor. Saturday, Aug. 22d, 1868. FOR PRESIDENT. HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR, OF NEW YORK.

EXPLANATION.

Our paper this week is crowded with official, to the exclusion of editorial, local and other reading matter. Every citizen of Grenada feels a deep interest in what we publish in this issue.

THAT ODIUS TAX.

There seems to be the greatest repugnance to paying the street tax in our city—the law being one really odious—but the people fill, as a majority, to make the right difference. A great many throw the odium on the city officers when it is really the framers and not the executors of the law that deserve the blame.

IMPORTANT OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

The following letter from the Commander of the Post bears an important relation to the official matter published in today's paper and will be found interesting:

HEAD Q'RS POST OF GRENADA, Grenada, Miss., Aug. 15, 1868. HON. R. D. McLEAN, Mayor of Grenada.

SIR: As the streets of the town of Grenada are in a very unsatisfactory condition, and as some doubt may exist in your mind as to the expediency which the military authorities may exercise over the State laws or municipal ordinances relating to vagrants, you are hereby respectfully informed that the working of vagrants, regarded less of color, on the streets or for other improvement for the general good, will be encouraged by them and most wish their support, the same be always done in a just and proper manner.

HEAD Q'RS POST OF GRENADA, Grenada, Miss., Aug. 16, 1868. HON. R. D. McLEAN, Mayor of Grenada.

SIR: You will remember that I spoke to you in April last, having been spoken to by some citizens on the subject in relation to making a statement of the finances of the Corporation of Grenada for the information of its citizens. At that time you informed me that all accounts had been audited and adjusted and that you then had in preparation a paper making an entire exhibit which would be posted in your office. This has all been done and from your exhibit I am satisfied of the correctness of your accounts.
