The Washington Chronicle of the 12th, publishes the following list of persons in Mississippi, relieved from political disabilities under act of Congress of July 20th, 1868:
James L. Aleora, Benjamin D. Nabers, J. L. Wofford, Austin Ballard, Tishomingo; Joshua S. Morris, Chadrou; Charles C. Shaekeford, Madison; Edward A. Peyton, Samuel Connell, Hinds; G. A. Webster, Simpson; G. C. Sullivan, Oktibbeha; George Stovall, Carroll; William H. Noble, Wilkinson; George R. Aleora Coahoma; Orville M. Blanton, L. B. Velland, Frank Vallant, Washington; T. W. Adams, John McKee, Keulper James D. Stewart, Jackson; E. J. Vasser, W. A. Sykes, N. G. Elkin, J. N. Walker, G. W. Remington, Monroe; J. W. Vance, DeSoto; W. M. Haley, Copiah; Robert W. Flournoy, Pontotoc; W. H. Beardon.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.—Dr. Benj. Land and old and respected citizen of this county died this week.

SCHOOL OPENING.—The school of W. B. Davis will open on Monday August the 31st inst.

THE FALL TRADE.—Nearly all our merchants are getting ready for the fall-trade. Several of them have gone north for that purpose, other being ready to go and a majority prospecting just now. We expect a lively time during the fall and winter, everything tends that way now.

SONG MESSENGER.—This first class musical publication, issued by Messrs Root & Cady, at Chicago, Ill., comes to us this week, a most welcome visitor. It should be found on every piano in the land. Our crowded columns preclude further notice to-day.

DIED.—We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. Janet Stevenson, which occurred in this city day before yesterday. She was one of the purest of women; universally esteemed and loved for her social good qualities, and her loss leaves a blank that time will not easily fill. Her death is a loss to the whole community.

THE RAIN AND CROPS.—It seems that heaven has opened its flood gates upon us—in other words, it never rains but pours. We have of late had so much rain that it seems as though we are to have another flood. We venture to say old father Noah never witnessed more rain during his forty days of trial and tribulation than the South has for the past two months. We hear of considerable complaint by our farmers but we do not think the crops is as badly injured as the fears of many now picture it.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE.—While the train, on Saturday morning last, of the New Orleans and Jackson railway was under full speed, between Jackson and Canton, one of the newsboys, in attempting to cross from one car to the other, was suddenly precipitated between them! The train at that time was passing over a trestle work and fortunately the boy fell between the cross ties, striking several beams on his way down. The distance he fell is estimated about fifty feet. The boy was very badly hurt but is recovering fast. His escape from being crushed instantaneously is almost a miracle.

JOHN ROBINSON'S CIRCUS.—This world renowned Circus which has astonished all America with its wonderful combinations of talent will be here on the third of Sept. next. Our citizens will have a rich treat as this Circus has ever come to which could at all compare with Robinson's. In order to prove what we say we give the following complimentary notice of this 'Big Show' from the Memphis Avalanche of a late date: "We had supposed that it would be an useless task to attempt an improvement upon the admirable performance daily and nightly presented at Robinson's Circus, and Menagerie; but it seems nothing is so perfect but that an improvement can be made, as was evidenced last night, when the far-famed jester, John Lew or, made his appearance, and diffused the very spirit of Momo among the vast assemblage. John is a genius of the first water. Unlike the generality of clowns, his jests are spicy, pungent and original, not old Joe Millerisms dressed up, but real, shrewd, pure sparkling. Mr. Lew's act, in her admirable act of equestrianism, gains more upon the audience. The performances of this 'amphibian' Lewis, the colored jockey wonder, are surprising. Such daring exhibitions have never before witnessed in this city. As might be expected from a troupe of bona fide stars, the performances throughout are of the finest order. The gymnastic exercises of the company are among the most brilliant efforts we have ever seen, and would be a card in any theater in the country. We are sorry that the company can not remain longer, sorry for those of our citizens who delight in the higher order of arena and manly feats of the circle, and sorry for the mongers, for with a population like ours we are satisfied that such performances would draw the same brilliant audiences for an indefinite period.

W. B. Davis, Esq., our popular and genial-hearted Sheriff, was in the city on Thursday last, looking as pleasant and kindly as ever.

RESIDENCE.—The most sensible thing the second Ward Democratic Club of Memphis did, which is one of the most energetic of that city, was to choose George Robbins, one of the popular proprietors of the Overton Hotel, its treasurer and Billy Barlow chief clerk of the same house, its secretary. These gentlemen are an honor to that club and have a host of friends everywhere. If the second Ward Democratic association had chosen from the whole country it could not have selected better officers than these two gentlemen. Socially, in the business circle or take them where you will they are the same courteous and affable gentlemen all the time.

Another of the set of carpet-baggers who attempted to impose the miserable renomination on our people, has taken his departure. He did not have the moral courage to apologize for his crime; nor the fortitude to live among a people whom he had so foully wronged; and hence he takes his leave, we trust forever. He claimed to represent Carroll county. The Wisconsin Democrat thus alludes to his exit: "The people of our city, on last Sunday morning, were very jubilant over the fact that Stovall, who mis-represented our country in the late conglomeration of the 'bad' burrows and other mis-conceivers, who lately held a short council at Jackson of over one hundred and thirteen days, and who boasted of having the honor of being a member of the committee of five, to recall and brand all thieves robbers, in case the insulted and indignant people of Mississippi should have the boldness to denounce their villainous schemes of arson, murder, plunder and rapine—was seen putting himself, family, baggage, carpet-bag and all, on the northward bound train. We understand he intends inflicting his carcass on the good people of Kentucky."
