The surgical dressings department of the Red Cross desires a large number of workers at its headquarters in the S. D. The fact that this shipment arrived a week late will necessitate a full attendance every day in order that the full quota of the Columbus shipment may be met. BRAVE SONS OF FAR WEST

Boys' Sole Object in Going to War, Like That of Others, is to "Can the Kaiser."

Maj. E. Alexander Powell, in Scribner's Magazine, says "it has been my good fortune to have marched with many armies, but none of them has given me the thrill of pride which runs up my spine when I see these loose-limbed, brown-faced, clear-eyed sons of the far West go swinging by under the stanting lines of steel.

"They are for the most part serious looking, with a curious set expression about them which makes you feel that, though they realize the immense difficulty of the task for which they are preparing, they intend to see it finished, no matter how long it may take. Just as their fathers carried the frontier of civilization westward from the Mississippi, so these, their sons, are going to push that same frontier from the Rhine.

"But that isn't the way that they would put it. Should you ask them what they are fighting for, they will say nothing about the liberty of small peoples or about making the world safe for democracy. They will assure you that their sole object in going to war is 'to can the kaiser.' And, upon thinking it over, it seems to me that their answer, though somewhat inelegantly phrased, perhaps, expresses the sentiments of all of us."

Uniforms Too Tight.

The army council order about the tightness and fitting of soldiers' uniforms led to expert discussion as to which force has the best, says the London Chronicle. Wounded officers with experience ranging from Bagdad to Ypres voted for the Australian. Its shirtlike tunic with buttoned sleeves is ideally workmanlike. The Norfolk jacket-like waistband gives trimness without necessitating the wearing of a belt.

And just as unanimously expert opinion declared the U. S. A. uniform the worst.

"It's too tight—it's skin tight. Bless you, the pockets won't hold anything—they're for appearance. You couldn't cram a handkerchief in one. And I used to carry quite comfortably a pair of socks, a couple of Mills grenades, a tin of bully, chocolate, cigars, and my revolver in one side of my jacket. "A thing in your pocket is worth a stone in your haversack."

Grand Old Man of Liberty. Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Md., was the signer of the Declaration of Independence who lived longest after July 4, 1776. He survived until November 13, 1832.

ASSERTS MUSIC MAY BE SEEN

English Violinist Declares Wondrous Notes Can Be Displayed to Eye as Well as to Ear.

That music may be translated into color and displayed to the eye as well as to the ear is the new and highly interesting theory developed by Isidore Berger, the English violinist, according to the Pittsburgh Gazette. Music and color, he declares, express exactly the same emotions and feelings, and therefore an opera or a symphony may actually be turned into color and seen. By understanding the interrelation of color and sound even the deaf can learn to enjoy music when expressed in color. Mr. Berger says:

"Color is not to be an accompaniment nor a mere light effect, but a clear, logical expression of music. The synchronism must be perceived emotionally rather than scientifically. For instance, red always expresses passion, anger, temper or any intense feeling. Yellow, the color of light, means love and happiness. Blue is the mystic color. Modify the yellow of love with the mystic blue and you have a violet, a pensive, sad emotion. All the other grades of emotion are the result of the blending of passion, mystery and love, or red, blue and yellow. They are three primary colors and the three primary emotions."
