Be sure to see them get an education. It gets funnier all the time

SEATS 50, 75, $1.00 ON SALE AT
STREET'S DRUG STORE
MONDAY, NOV. 1st.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. J. W. Wright, of Ethelville, was a visitor to the city Monday.

Mr. W. O. Peck and family, and Mr. L. B. Divilbiss and family spent Sunday in Aberdeen.

Mr. Gains Bush and Mr. Gains Whitfield, of Artesia, spent Monday in the city on business.

Mrs. Oscar Mellwin and little son, of Artesia, are visiting Miss Mamie Watson on College street.

Mrs. M. F. Flood's many friends are glad to know she is improving after several day's illness.

Mrs. A. C. Halbert's friends will regret to learn of her illness at her home on South Third avenue.

Rev. W. S. Slack, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, delivered a sermon at the high school in Artesia Sunday evening.

The Philathea class of the First Methodist church will give their entertainment Friday evening instead of this afternoon as formerly announced. All members are urged to bear this change of date in mind.

The faculty Club will be at home to its friends Saturday afternoon from four-thirty to six o'clock. Misses Hooper, Suttle, Timberlake and Ellen Crawford will be hostesses. No cards.

Captain T. H. Sharp's countless friends are glad to know that he is improving after a very serious illness in New Orleans. He will return to Columbus as soon as his condition will permit.

Mrs. G. M. Flynn and Mr. Leo Flynn left Monday afternoon for Macon, to join Mr. and Mrs. Nat Harrison, and together they motored to Memphis in Mr. Harrison's new Cadillac. The party expect to return home Friday.

Mr. Jonathan Richardson's countless friends regret to learn that he suffered another attack of appendicitis Tuesday afternoon. He was taken to Memphis for treatment, being accompanied by his mother and brother, Mr. Claude Richardson.

Mr. Knox Whitfield, who had the misfortune to break his arm while playing football last week, did not give up but kept right along with his school work. His friends are glad to know that the broken limb is getting along nicely.

Hon. and Mrs. Richard L. Bradley are receiving congratulations from their countless friends upon the arrival of a son and heir. The little fellow has been named Richard L., after his proud father, and there is no happier man in all Mississippi than Mr. Bradley. Mrs. Bradley and the baby are at the McKinley sanatorium.

Charlton Convicted in Italian Court. Como, Italy, Oct. 25.—Porter Charlton, the American who has been on trial here charged with murdering his wife in 1910, was today condemned to six years and eight months imprisonment. He will, however, serve only twenty-nine days on account of amnesty.

Baron Sciacca, the presiding judge, before the case went to the jury asked Charlton if he had anything to add to his defense. With tears in his eyes, he exclaimed: "I trust entirely to Italian justice. I can only say that I am a very unfortunate young man."

Features of Annual Wedding.

In the article of the annual wedding held at the Industrial Institute and College Saturday evening, the Commercial of Sunday omitted a number of the most attractive features. Nothing could have been more fascinating than the flower girls, who were Misses Annie Ramsey Longino, of Jackson, and Frances Woodley, of Hattiesburg.

The ring bearer, Miss Frances Street, the attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Street, Jr., and Cupid, impersonated by Little Frederick Carleton Price, the dear little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Price, were so sweet and cunning that they won the hearts of the entire audience.

Dollar Sale Going On.

The Woman's Store inaugurated a two day's Dollar Sale yesterday morning and immense crowds have visited that place and have taken advantage of the low prices offered. The sale will continue throughout today, and your attention is called to the advertisement appearing in this issue.

Will Have Steam Heat.

The Presbyterian church is to have steam heat at a cost of $1,400, and the contract for this work has been awarded to Kidder and Lussey, local plumbers.

To Observe Health Day.

The pupils in the primary room at Barrow Memorial school will observe "Health Day" at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. An interesting program will be rendered.

U. D. C. INSTALL LEADER.

San Francisco, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Frank Odenheimer, of Maryland, was installed as president-general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, at the final business meeting held tonight. Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stephens was the retiring president-general, and was presented with a silver vase, filled with roses of red and white, by the hostess chapter of California.

The next convention, in 1916, will be held at Dallas, Tex.

The delegates from Asheville, N. C., endeavored to secure the Daughters for their city, but were defeated by a large majority.

The Confederate Veterans will have a home, both for themselves and their widows, if the bill presented by Senator John D. Works to the senate, which is before the committee on military affairs, is favorably acted upon. The bill provides that the national home now occupied by the Union veterans in Tennessee, be turned over to the Confederate veterans, and the present occupants be placed in other homes.

The Daughters of the Confederacy today pledged $5,000 for memorial windows in the memorial hall which is being erected in Washington.

A special committee was appointed to ask the government not to allow the words "Civil War" to be placed above the doorway, but "War of the States," which the Southerners prefer to call it.

WANTED—Saleslady who has experience in breaking in new help, also to look after customers, and see that they are properly waited on. Apply in own handwriting to P. O. Box 537.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake is Made By Many Columbus Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause. If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right.

A Columbus resident tells you how. Mrs. F. Callender, of 1225 Fifth Ave., S., Columbus. "I believe over-taxing myself brought on the trouble. I was confined to my bed for six months at one time and was so helpless that I couldn't raise my head from the pillow. Kidney disease had undermined my health. I had pain and soreness across my kidneys and didn't sleep well at night. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me a lot of annoyance. I was a physical wreck. Dizzy spells came over me and I felt as though I was going to faint. I took doctor's medicine but suffered just as badly as ever. My feet became so swollen that I couldn't put on my shoes and other parts of my body bloated. While in this condition, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and 2 boxes cured me. I can truly say that Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Callender had. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SAYS SOMETHING WRONG.

Aberdeen, Miss., Oct. 25.—The fall term of the Monroe County Circuit Court convened this morning with Judge Claude Clayton, of Tupelo, presiding. The grand jury was empaneled and ex-Sheriff J. C. Crosby, one of Monroe county's most progressive farmers, was made foreman. Judge Clayton delivered a charge to the grand jury that was full of ginger. He told them that there was evidently something wrong around here and that a thorough investigation was needed. After the charge they began the examination of witnesses. Owing to the absence of District-Attorney Carl Bratton, it was impossible for the court to proceed, and adjournment was taken until tomorrow morning at 8:30, at which time the criminal docket will be sounded. There are eleven murder trials, three very important ones, Johnson for killing his son; Beauford Wilson for the murder of L. L. Lann, Jr., partner in the Lann and Carter Hardware Company, and Messrs. L. L. Brewer, George Brewer, Lowrey Brewer and Earnest Brewer, for the murder of George Nichols. There are a number of witnesses for these three trials, and if all are examined it will take all of this week and possibly some of next week to wind them up. District-Attorney Carl Bratton arrived in Aberdeen this afternoon and will be on hand at the opening of the court tomorrow morning. Hon. Julius E. Berry, of Baldwin, Miss., the newly elected district-attorney and other prominent attorneys are in attendance. With the docket as heavy as it is, three weeks and more will be required to dispose of it.

Nature Warns

AGAINST USING CALOMEL

The sickening, nauseating feeling that follows the use of calomel is the natural result of disarranging your entire system. Doctors everywhere are agreeing that the action of calomel is much too strong, and leaves the body sick and weakened.

LIV-VER-LAX is a wonderful substitute for calomel, that has all of its good effects and none of its bad ones. It acts soothingly but thoroughly on the liver, cleansing it of bile, and ridding the entire system of stagnating poison.

LIV-VER-LAX is strictly a harmless vegetable compound, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money will be refunded. Insist on the original, bearing the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigsby. For sale here at 50c and $1.00 at John Laws.

Seniors to Give Play.

One of the early events of the college will be the production of "Such a Little Queen," to be presented by the senior class on Nov. 12th. This play was made popular with the American audiences by Elsie Ferguson, and with the movie world by Mary Pickford. Under the direction of Miss Emma Ody Pohl, with Misses Emmie Chandler and Zaida Musselwhite playing the leading roles, and assisted by a talented and well chosen cast, the production promises to be one of the most enjoyable of the year. A large audience is expected. Tickets: children 25c; adults 35c.

Great Free Attraction—The Malleable Man.

Will be here October 22 to Nov. 2, inclusive, to demonstrate the celebrated South Bend Malleable Range at the Columbus Hardware and Furniture Co.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. W. R. Nickles and children wish to thank their many friends for their kindness and courtesy shown them in the illness and death of their sister and daughter, and for the beautiful floral offerings.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

Many young men say that they cannot save any money. Did it ever occur to you that most young men who make money, but never have any ten dollar bills in their pockets at the end of the month, are always found in the same class with those who have nothing to do when the day is over, nothing to occupy their minds, and are usually seen loafing on the streets at night? They go in search of amusement and as soon as they receive their pay checks, soon part with their money, and the result is that a year is soon gone and they are prepared to hold no better position than they were twelve months before. Furthermore, they have saved no money, and many of them are in

Invest Your Money.
The best way to save money is to invest it if you have nothing but your salary to depend upon, and it is only thirty, forty, or fifty per cent, the very best thing you can do is to invest a portion of that in a business education. Make a short-hand course and it will help double your earning power, if you will keep busy and improve yourself. Become a good stenographer and you will have no trouble in securing employment. Do you know a young man who is a good stenographer, but unable to find employment? I don't mean one who only knows enough to write "Dear Sir," and "Yours truly," and trusts memory to fill in the rest of it; I mean one who knows how to take dictation, transcribe it accurately, and write a letter upon which his employer could look with pride.

A Good Investment.
You can be just such a stenographer if you will take my shorthand course and follow my instruction. I will teach you six months, five nights in the week, two hours a night, for $30.00. If you are one of the young fellows who cannot save money, you can readily see that you will spend much more than $5.00 per month foolishly by having nothing to do, and that this is a real business proposition. I will help you save some of your money and invest it in a business education. I am an experienced teacher of shorthand and typewriting and you will receive first-class instructions. My class will begin the course November 15th. I have made no effort to secure students among the young ladies of the city, as they can learn shorthand at the I. I. and C., but two have requested me to allow them to join the class, and I shall be glad to have others. If interested call at 622 College street after 6 p. m., or address me P. O. Box 418, Columbus, Miss.
