Agnew-Nestor.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Marie Agnew to Dr. Michael James Nestor of Providence, Rhode Island, will be interesting news to many Columbians.

The Daughters of the Confederacy. With the approach of November, plans for the general convention of the U. D. C. to be held this year in Atlanta are assuming definite shape.

Meeting of the College Alumnae. The Lowndes county members of the College Alumnae will meet with Mrs. William Baldwin Saturday afternoon at half-past three o'clock for the purpose of outlining the work upon which they will enter this season.

Accounts of the Missouri-Mississippi football game played amid so much enthusiasm at Memphis make special and most complimentary mention of Mr. Claude Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lee, formerly of this city, and a young soldier on the staff of Col. Baker during the encampment here.

THE FOUNDER OF INDIGESTION. The founder of indigestion was Noah; he forgot to leave the pigs ashore. From the hog comes lard; from lard, indigestion. The moment you put lard-cooked food into your stomach, you send a pressing invitation for dyspepsia to come and take possession.

Next Count Saturday. The next count of the ballots in this paper's subscription contest will occur on next Saturday, October the 31st, as advertised. The box will be closed at noon, and every ballot therein will be counted and the result will be published in the following Sunday's paper, and each of the candidates will be mailed a copy of that paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Witherspoon and little daughter, Margaret, leave today for Magawah Meadows to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Turner. Later they will spend a few weeks at Gallatin, Tenn., before going to Chicago for the winter.

Miss Adele Clark, formerly assistant in Latin at the I. I. and C., now the Y. M. C. A. secretary of that institution, was in Verona for the week.

The illness of Mrs. Z. P. Landrum is sincerely regretted, and countless friends share the hope that she will be benefited by a visit to Hot Springs, to which resort she will go early in November.

An embroidery club, with twenty-six members, is an acquisition to clubdom and to the pleasure outlook of the winter. The club met informally with Miss Emmie Power at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Whitfield Saturday evening.

Mrs. John Ervin has returned to West Point. Her aunt, Mrs. Waddell, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is considered better, and the improvement in her condition comes as pleasant news.

Miss Sarah Neilson, who has been so cordially greeted by friends of auld lang syne, left Monday for St. Louis, after a month's stay with Capt. and Mrs. John A. Neilson.

Miss Margaret Russell of Baltimore will not be able to resume her duties at the McKinley Sanitarium this winter. She has been ill at a Baltimore hospital recently, and will rest until her health is restored.

Miss Christine Rogers, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnston for the horse show, returned Saturday to Aberdeen. Mrs. Ben Allen, who was also a visitor during the gala days of the fair, left Monday for Macon.

Miss Martha Campbell will remain with Mr. W. A. Campbell and Miss Campbell a few weeks longer. Upon her return to Nashville she will be accompanied by Miss Maggie Campbell.

The critical illness of Mr. Eugene Harrison, the bright young son of Judge and Mrs. James T. Harrison, brings general regret. On yesterday his condition was practically unchanged.

Next Count Saturday. The next count of the ballots in this paper's subscription contest will occur on next Saturday, October the 31st, as advertised. The box will be closed at noon, and every ballot therein will be counted and the result will be published in the following Sunday's paper, and each of the candidates will be mailed a copy of that paper.

The candidate having the highest number of ballots to her credit in next Saturday's count will be given an order upon a merchant or business house in Columbus for five dollars' worth of merchandising, and the candidate second to the highest will be given an order for half that sum. This is just to make the count in the contest interesting.

Ballots will be given for every dollar paid upon subscriptions, and this is the only way in which they can be obtained. Canvass your neighborhood for old subscriptions, and after they have been secured make a house to house canvass for new ones. This is the field in which to work for ballots. Candidates are urged to get their subscriptions into this office as early as possible on Saturday, that

Interest in Revival. A great deal of interest is being manifested in the revival which is being conducted by Rev. M. F. Ham, of Bowling Green, Ky., at the First Baptist church. Mr. Ham spoke to men only at three o'clock last Sunday afternoon, and at the evening service took occasion to gently prod the ladies. He said whenever he found a city without saloons that the men were all right, and he had no fault to find with members of the sterner sex in this city, but had some criticism to offer on the conduct of the ladies. He said that they were too fond of playing cards, and allowed card parties to keep them from religious services.

While Mr. Ham praised the male contingent, he condemned baseball, a sport that is dear to the heart of the average man. He said he had no use for baseball because it was sometimes played on Sunday, and kept people away from the church. Mr. Ham did not know, perhaps, that Sunday ball is tabooed in Columbus, but it is, and his remarks were not therefore applicable to this city.

Mr. Ham also criticized those members of the church who visited the horse show last week in preference to attending his services, declaring that in doing this they had committed a grave sin. He said that unless they made public acknowledgement of the sin God would never forgive them, and requested all who realized that they had done wrong in going to the fair and wanted God's forgiveness to walk up to the pulpit and shake hands with him. A few responded to the request.

There was a large congregation present at the service Sunday evening, and the music was an especially delightful feature, the choir having been materially strengthened for the occasion. Mrs. George Gatling presided at the organ with consummate skill, while the piano under the artistic touch of Miss Taylor and the artistic playing of the violin by Miss Greenup of the Industrial Institute and College faculty added materially to the ensemble.

Why James Lee Got Well. Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of Rural Route No. 8. She writes: "My husband, Jas. Lee, firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the king of throat and lung remedies. For colds and coughs it has no equal. The first dose gives relief.
