

Buying cheap glasses is poor economy. Have your eyes correctly fitted and save your most valuable asset—eye sight. Dr. Byron Mitchell, Eye Specialist, of West Point, Miss., will examine and test your eyes free at the New Herring Hotel in our city on September 17th and 19th.

Dr. Mitchell devotes his entire time to the practice of optics and is Vice president of the Mississippi Optical Society.

Mrs. S. D. Hubbard left Sunday morning for Memphis to spend the coming winter with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Canterbury.

Little Miss Dovie Smithart returned home last Sunday from Memphis where she had been for several weeks with relatives and friends.

Mr. N. S. McLean, of Memphis, was mingling with his old friends a few hours last Monday.

WANTED—Boarders in private family. Convenient location and comfortable arrangement. Apply at this office.

Sheriff and Mrs. F. H. Simith left last Sunday night for Gulfport to attend the Mississippi State Sheriffs' Association, which was in session Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Little Miss Oma Clement, of Velma, spent a few days' in our city last week the guest of Miss Veta Thornton.

The Baraca Bible Class of the First Methodist Church Sunday School holds the second entertainment this (Wednesday) evening at the parsonage. There will be a contest among the members on questions taken from the past quarter's lessons, after which music and other features of entertainment will be enjoyed. On next Sunday the Library will be installed, and all persons desiring to contribute books, are asked to be present with them.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McCracken and little son and daughter, of Huntington, Ark., returned home Monday after a several days' visit to the family of Mr. J. C. Lewis a few miles south of the city.

MAYER - CINCINNATI ALL-WOOL TAILORING

COLLEGE men and others who fancy the more extreme effects in good tailoring can get just what they want in Mayer-Cincinnati tailoring. The Mayer people make a great feature of young men's styles.

Their big new line of fabrics for Fall and Winter is now on display at this store. Each and every fabric is all-pure-wool through and through—no cotton-mixed goods are permitted in the Mayer line. Yet the prices are not a bit higher than you are asked for part-cotton fabrics—$17.50 and up for suit or overcoat, made to your own individual measurements and guaranteed to fit and satisfy.

E. E. STEVENS,
MERCHANT TAYLOR,
Second Floor,
Spencer-Flake Drug Company.

Mr. Luther Thorne left Monday evening for Blue Mountain to attend a session of the Blue Mountain College.

Miss Kate Johnson, of Big Springs, returned home Monday afternoon from a few days' visit to Coffeeville, where she was the guest of the Misses Pate.

Miss Ora McCormick, of Castleberry, returned home Monday from a several days' visit to friends and relatives in Torrance.

Mrs. J. T. Nason left Monday for a few days' visit to friends in Jackson, Tenn.

Get Your Clothes Pressed.

I will clean and press your clothes in exchange for discarded garments. Will also buy second hand clothing at reasonable price. If you have no old clothing I will press your new ones reasonably and dye them any color you want. Second-hand clothes for sale.

BOB REED.