

A New Firm.

Messrs. Charles Pitcher and W. L. Gill, composing the firm of Pitcher & Gill, of Louisiana, arrived in our city last week, and are arranging to open in a few days a first-class and up-to-date Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoe Store, in the old stand formerly occupied by H. J. Jennings & Co.

Prof. A. H. Ellett will lecture at Big Springs Baptist church Saturday night, October 15th. Every one is urged to attend. An admission of 25 cents will be charged for expenses.

Mrs. J. W. Tindall, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Norris and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Norris left last night for a couple of weeks' visit to Biloxi and Gulfport.

The K. of P.'s had a great rally under the leadership of Special District Deputy, J. H. McMillan, of Water Valley last Friday night.—Amory Times.

More good reports from J. H. Give him leverage and he will do the work.

The servant house of Mr. Lee A. Flake, just west of his dwelling, was destroyed by fire last Monday morning at one o'clock. The value of the property was about $500; insurance, $300. The house was supposed to have been set on fire. It was occupied by a colored family.

The Rev. Irenaeus Trout, Priest and Orator, will deliver his celebrated Lecture on "The Science of Right Living" in our city next Friday night, Sept. 30th, at the Court House, for the benefit of the Episcopal church. All who are interested in the higher and purer life; who believe in and wish to encourage courtesy, kindness, purity and refinement, should hear this noted Lecturer. It will be instructive and elevating. Admission 25 cents.

We are glad to announce to the many friends of the family that the condition of Mrs. W. B. Carter, who has been critically ill for the past two weeks, is thought to be greatly improved.

Death of Prof. L. B. Hutchinson.

By a very regrettable oversight we did not chronicle the death of our good friend, Prof. L. B. Hutchinson, in the last issue of The Itemizer, who died at the home of son, Mr. Charley Hutchinson, in Vaiden, on Sept. 14th.

He was one of the counties best citizens, and was well known throughout the county—esteemed, loved and respected by those who knew him. For thirty-five years he was conspicuous in the educational circles, standing high in his chosen profession as educator. But above all he was conspicuous for attending exclusively to his own business and letting other peoples' alone—for his unostentatious character. Withal, he was a most clever and congenial gentleman and strong friend.

He was a brave Conderate soldier, and earnestly entered the service of his country in the cause he conceived to be right. Returning home his service was devoted to the civil good of his country.

The many friends of the family will learn with regret that Mrs. George Woods is seriously ill with typhoid fever.
