

Another Veteran Passes Out of Service.

On Wednesday Sept. 17th, Mr. C. C. White, the Veteran Commercial Appeal Agent of our city, walked into the Memphis Commercial office in company with Mr. W. W. Gardner, one of our home boys, and proceeded to introduce him to the business manager of that great paper, and immediately tendered his resignation as Circulator for the Commercial Appeal in Water Valley, and endorsed his associate to become his successor, whereupon Mr. Gardner was appointed and installed agent for the Commercial Appeal to succeed C. C. White. The former passes out of the service with expressions of the most profound gratitude to the people of Water Valley, who, for nearly seven years, have exercised untiring patience with him as a public servant, while the latter assumes new duties in the business world with full determination to perform every function of his new office to the entire satisfaction of a fair-minded people, and thereby comply with every requirement that can be duly made by the public whom he has sought to serve
