McNutt and the Press. Truth is stranger than fiction, and very especially in regard to politics and those engaged therein. The fact that a portion of the Democratic press of the State are vehemently urging the claims of this man McNutt to the high and responsible office of United States Senator...

subserviency to one man, rendering them contemptible in the eyes of every high minded man in the community. We think instead of their being called independent Democratic papers they should be called dependent McNutt papers.

About McNutt's private character we have never written one word, and intend not to do so; it is with his political misdeeds we have to deal, and we now say to his friends that we will continue to oppose him, as long as he is held up as a candidate of the party...

We have before us a letter relative to the appointment of Delegates from Abstan's and Callahan's Magistrate Districts. It seems that Lockett and Bogard's Districts have appointed five Delegates...

We are requested to state that the Temperance Celebration will be held at early candle-lighting, on to-morrow evening, in the Presbyterian Church.

Wa. F. STEARNS, Esq., will deliver an address. Good music will be in attendance.

The Hon. LOUIS McLANE, of Maryland, has been appointed Minister to England; vice Edward Everett, recalled.

We have noticed several insinuations, and heard that some industry has been used to give currency in a covert manner, to the charge contained in the extract below from the Heroldo Phenix...

"We understand that two of the most distinguished jurists in this State have taken to their old calling. Gen. Henry Stuart Foote, one of the oldest, if not the oldest editor in the State, has become the 'guardian editor' of the Reformer...

Correspondence of the Guard. MEMPHIS, JUNE 29, 1845. The river continues rising here, and is, as I am informed by those who know, within six or seven feet of high water mark. It has risen from 15 to 18 feet within the last fortnight...

no doubt, I apprehend, in the minds of the reflecting portion of the community, but that their entire abolition would vastly improve the morals of that neighborhood, and that ranges of well conducted stores would tend to introduce peace and quietness into a region which has too often been the scene of violence and discord...

On Thursday evening last, a man by the name of Gamble, familiarly called Jack Gamble, was shot by another named Charles Green, the successor of Cockerell, the livery stable keeper. It appears that they had some dispute in regard to a business transaction...

At a called meeting of the MARSHALL COUNTY CAVALRY, on Friday the 28th of June, on motion, Capt. Jas. E. Selby, was called to the chair...

At a meeting of Holly Springs Lodge No. 35, of Free and Accepted Masons, held at their Lodge Room in Holly Springs, Miss., on the evening of the 23d ult., on motion of R. W., G. A. Wilson, P. G. M. of Mississippi, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted...

Resolved, That the high and meritorious character and services of our deceased countryman and fellow citizen, Gen. Andrew Jackson, has reflected the highest credit upon the American Armies and Nation.

Resolved, That we, as a Company, will wear the usual badge of mourning for 30 days.

Resolved, That the proceedings be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and furnished for publication.

At an adjourned meeting of the "Marshall County Mechanics Association," held at the Court House on Saturday 28th ult., James Elder, Esq., was called to the Chair...

Resolved, That we, as a portion of the Democratic party deem that our candidate for the United States Senate, should be sound and orthodox on the great Democratic principles...

Resolved, That if any of the above named Delegates should not attend at said Convention, that their places may be filled by the Delegates that may attend from that precinct.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the President and Secretary, and forwarded to the Editors of the Holly Springs Guard for publication.
