Military Movements.

By a letter from the Adjutant General of the U. S. A. to Gen. Gaines, in our paper to day, it will be seen that the latter is instructed to countermand his order for the several regiments of Mounted Gunmen. This is to be regretted; because it dampens the patriotic ardor of our citizens, to foster which, should now be the aim of those in whose hands the military destinies of the country are in a great degree placed.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, May 18, 1845.
General—I am instructed by the Secretary of War to acknowledge your letter, received this evening, of the 11th inst., and to say that he desires you will countermand your call for the "several Regiments of Mounted Gunmen," which you state were to rendezvous at Fort Jesup, on the receipt of this letter, as this requisition will interfere with the arrangement already made by the War Department relative to the quota of Volunteers to be called into service of the General Government from the several States under the new law.—The Volunteer force called into the service from Louisiana Alabama &c., on your authority, and which you have previously reported, I am instructed to say, meets the approval of the Department.

I am, General, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
[Signed] R. JONES, Adj Gen'l.
To Bvt. Maj. Gen. Gaines, Comm'g
Western Div. New Orleans, La.

INVASION OF MEXICO.—We are prepared to state, on the very best authority, that it has been determined by the government that General Scott is to march to the city of Mexico. It is not expected that he will participate in the present struggle on the Rio Grande, as he cannot recruit in season. The laurels of that contest will be left to be reaped by the sword of the gallant Taylor. When the main army shall have been concentrated, the hero of Lundy's Lane will lead them to the Capital of Mexico.

We understand that a high military authority in Washington has expressed the opinion that the volunteer forces cannot be concentrated on the Rio Grande before the close of August of the opening of September. The task of collecting such force from our widely extended territory, organizing and preparing them for the field, cannot be effected, even with the most strenuous exertions, before that period. The army will consist of twenty odd thousand men, and will be provided with all that is necessary to insure triumph.

This measure will meet the approbation of the entire American public.—The most vigorous counsels are now the most moderate, as they will secure an early and glorious termination of this unhappy contest. [Phil. American.]

Revenue Cutters.—There were thirteen Revenue Cutters in service during the past winter. They spoke and boarded 1264 vessels; they relieved and assisted 89 other vessels; and sailed an aggregate distance of 26,354 miles. The Union states that on Saturday last the following Cutters were ordered to repair forthwith to the seat of war. Steamers Spencer, McLane and Legare, schooners Ewing, Woodbury, Morris and Eorward—with an aggregate force of two hundred and fifty men and thirty-five guns, of from thirty-two to twelve pound calibre.

We have no doubt that these vessels will be of very great service in the war with Mexico, by reason of their light draft of water. We hope that Congress will speedily carry out the proposed measure of uniting the Revenue and Post Office Navies with the Navy proper, thus placing the entire naval establishment of the country under one head. [Balt. American.]

CASTLE OF SAN JUAN D'ULLOA.—What is certainly a singular fact, says the New York Courier & Enquirer, the stone of which this fortification is now constructed, was obtained from one of the quarries among the Highlands on the Hudson. A large number of heavy guns, some of them Paixhans, have been mounted; a force of about 3000 men is there; competent and skilful English and French engineers have the direction of the works, and the whole is under the command of Gen. BRAVO, one of the ablest and bravest generals in the Mexican service.

The President of the United States, says the United States Gazette, has a perfect model of the Castle, with all its parts, appendages, additions, floating batteries, &c., furnished to him or to an American officer for him, by the very engineer that superintended the work for Mexico.

Trinity Church, New York, which has been so many years in building, was consecrated on the morning of the 21st. The Journal of Commerce says: "Long before the hour appointed, the house was crowded with those who were so fortunate as to obtain tickets; while hundreds of spectators lined Broadway, and crowded the buildings, waiting the procession which was announced to move at half past 10 o'clock. At a quarter past 11 it arrived, preceded by the police. The beadle, in surplice and cap of office, was followed by 108 boys of the Trinity school; then came the bishop and clergy, 144 in all, wearing surplices; the students of the Theological Seminary, members of Trinity church, etc., succeeded; and a body of police brought up the rear. Hundreds who followed with the hope of getting admittance, at least within the enclosure, crowded around the closed iron gate, pressed upon the police, and went away disappointed. The sermon was delivered and consecrating services conducted by Right. Rev. Bishop McCoskry."

THE TARIFF.—The New York Express says!
The ad valorem principle recommended by Mr. Secretary Walker, is unpopular with nearly all our importers, many of whom, if not a majority, are anti-tariff, free trade men. Ad valorem they know lead to frauds, and make it almost impossible honestly to collect by them. Besides, they are aware that the system will bring about all sorts of innumerable disputes and troubles.—As an instance, that neither American nor Foreign importers here, wish to do business on this system, we are informed that the importers of silk goods, almost without exception, have signed a remonstrance against the application of the ad valorem principle rule to their business, and that this will soon be laid before Congress, having been already forwarded to Washington.

INDIAN DISTURBANCES.—The Galveston News, of the 22d inst., states that information from Indian Point, near Port Lavacca, has been received, that a party of one hundred persons, mostly Germans, with a large number of baggage wagons, on their way to the settlement of Mew Braunfels, had been attacked by a large body of Camanches and compelled to fly for safety, leaving their wagons in the hands of the Indians.

ARMING OUR PACKETS.—The packet ship Saint Mary Captain Foster, running between this city and New York, has been armed, and a double complement of men put on board, and we understand it is the intention of the proprietors of the Union Line, to arm their other fine ships, so that they can protect themselves from the small piratical cruisers. [N. O. Bulletin.]

Orders have been received, as we understand, for rations for four thousand men (mostly mounted) to be provided immediately at Fulton, in Arkansas, where is also to be a rendezvous. This force, we may suppose, is intended for the protection of that remote frontier, and to keep the Indian tribes in check. [N. O. Bulletin.]

Arrival of a Chilean Ship.—The Chilean ship Maria Helena, arrived at Edgartown, Mass., 22d inst. from Valparaiso, 7th December last. This is the first Chilean ship which ever visited the United States. By her we received our files of Spanish papers, but they are not so late as those previously received. [N. Y. Sun.]

A COSTLY WEDDING ORNAMENT.—It is stated in Paris papers, that there is now to be seen in a jeweller's shop on the Boulevards, the diadem of precious stones to be worn by the Princess Olga, of Russia, on her wedding day. The diadem is worth 10,000,000f. This diadem is to be presented to the bride by her imperial father.

Increase of the Army.—The passage of the bill increasing the number of men to 100 in each company of the United States Army, and the organization of a new Rifle Regiment; will make a total of some fifteen thousand American troops, when fully organized.

Four Thousand Dollars Reward.—This sum is offered by J. G. Gest, of Xenia, Ohio, for the apprehension of the person or persons who murdered Wm. Steele and Jas. Kinney, in Xenia, on the 3d day of August last. [Nat. Cour.]

Lord Cathcart took the oath of office as governor-general of the British North American provinces, at Montreal, on the 24th of April.

A cannon ball bearing date 1771 has been disinterred at Hempstead, L. I.

DISPATCHES FOR COMMODORE CONNER. The Mobile Register states that Purser WATSON had arrived in that city, and would sail on the 27th for Vera Cruz, in the Revenue Cutter Wolcott, with dispatches for Commodore CONNER.—Mr. W. had expected to find conveyance at Pensacola, but there being no suitable vessels in port, Commodore LATIMORE sent him round to Mobile, with a request that the collector would dispatch the Revenue Cutter, as the readiest means of communicating with Commodore CONNER.

DR. J. A. NASH
WOULD most respectfully inform the citizens of Atala and the adjoining counties, that he has just received from Cincinnati, Ohio, and will continue to receive, as they are demanded, fresh and genuine Botanic Medicines, many Compounds and mixtures of purely Botanic Medicines that have never before been offered for sale in this country; and for cash will sell to families genuine Medicines cheaper than any Botanic Medicines previously sold in this country, and for a small fee will give out such directions with the medicines as to enable families to manage all ordinary sickness without the calling of a Physician. He will keep constantly on hand cathartic anti-bilious and quinine pills, ague tonic, cordial for diarrhea, compound syrup of sarsaparilla, hepatic liquid, No. 6 emetic tinctures, female bitters, &c. &c.
In confirmation of the efficacy of the above Medicines, when rightly and timely administered, he would remark, that he has administered the above Medicines to upwards of two hundred patients within the last twelve months, without the loss of but one single patient, where he attended from first to last.
It affords me pleasure unspeakable to console myself with the idea that the success that has attended my former practice bespeaks a glorious and successful future for
