A CARD.

TO MY FRIENDS & FELLOW CITIZENS OF TIPPAH COUNTY, MISS.

GENTLEMEN:

I presume that many of you have understood for several months past, that I was or would be, at the proper time, a candidate for Sheriff. Since I have become a candidate, a number of other gentlemen has declared themselves as candidates for the same office, of which I have no right to complain. I would here say that no motive, earthly, prompts me to ask you for office, but that of making a liberal support for my family, and thereby be of some service to my fellow-citizens. In thus announcing myself a candidate for Sheriff, it does not become me to say that I am competent for the office. I seek at your hands from the fact that I have been permitted by your kindness to hold a very laborious, yet important office in your county, for several years past. My official acts as an officer are before you, and subject to your investigation. Examine them for yourselves, and decide accordingly; and with your decision I shall be satisfied. In conclusion, should you be pleased to give me the office of Sheriff, at the next general election for county officers, it shall be my pleasure as well as my duty, to attend strictly, to the duties of the office, according to Law and Justice, to the best of my ability. For the favors I have heretofore received at your hands, I shall ever feel grateful, and would, therefore, return you my humble thanks.

Respectfully, your ob't serv't,
JNO. W. McDONALD.

Feb. 24th, 1858.

Job Work,

Of every description, neatly executed, at the shortest notice, and upon the most liberal terms at this office.

A Lucky Man!

"Wise men...let's sail and wail their loss,
But cheerly seek how to redress their charms."

With a persevering spirit and undismayed by the blanks he had drawn, Mr. Heinrich Peters, an employee on the South Carolina Railroad, purchased a ticket, No. 29330, Class 5, in Swan & Co.'s Georgia Lottery. Imagine his feelings when he found that No. 29330 had drawn $30,000!

Undiscouraged by trivial disappointments, his reward is a competency for life.

"When fortune means to men most good,
She looks upon them with a threatening eye."

So all that want money read the splendid scheme in our columns, and send a $10, $5 or $2 50 to S. Swan & Co., Augusta, Ga. Never despair. It may be your turn next. "Things out of hope are compassed oft with venturing."

Of course the prize will be promptly paid, when due.—Swan & Co. are noted for prompt payment. Publishers of papers will vouch for that; we do.—Charleston (S. C.) News.

We were present in Swan's Office yesterday morning when Mr. H. Peters received his prize money, and the good looking old gentleman puffed his segar, and seemed satisfied that he had at last obtained what he knew was in store for him.

[Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist.

MEN OF AMERICA—MEN OF THE AGE.—The greatest man, "take him all in all," of the last hundred years was George Washington—an American.

The greatest Doctor of Divinity was Jonathan Edwards—an American.

The greatest Philosopher was Benjamin Franklin—an American.

The greatest of living Sculptors is Hiram Powers—an American.

The greatest living Historian is Wm. H. Prescott—an American.

The greatest Ornithologist was J. J. Audubon—an American.

The greatest Medical Chemist of modern times, Dr. J. C. Ayer—inventor of Ayer's Chery Pectoral and Cathartic Pills, is an American.

The greatest Lexicographer since the time of Johnson was Noah Webster—an American.

Something good to Eat.

SELLING Cooking Stoves is the most pleasant part of our trade, from the fact that we are always induced from necessity, to talk about something good to eat. Buy a Cooking Stove, and work your garden and you will (if grateful for blessings,) appreciate the luxuries of life, three times a day. The saving in wood, time, labor and convenience, saying nothing of the superior manner in which they cook, is worth more in twelve months to any family than the cost of a Stove.
