TO THE PUBLIC.

Recognizing that a large body of representative and influential citizens have united and organized in support of the Wynn Ticket, and that this action is dictated by no personal aims or motives, its supporters believing that in such organization they can best secure improved city government, I defer to their judgment and am no longer a candidate for Mayor. With the spirit of the movement which has produced the Wynn Ticket I am in full sympathy; though it is due to myself to say that had I been elected as Mayor, my best and most honest efforts would have been to the same end, which they proclaim. I thank my friends for their support, and hereby release them from the pledges so generously made.

JNO. H. MOORE.

That John Moore would or could stand out against or withold his support from such a movement as he states this to which he defers to be, no one who knows him believed. In falling into line with it he is just where he belongs. We applaud his action, dictated all will avow, by sense of duty and conception of the right as he sees it.

Box Factory.

Mr. C. L. Merrill has been in Greenville for several days and has finally about closed all necessary arrangements for establishing a large box factory at this point. He has been met in the most liberal manner by Messrs. Deaton and Skinner, relative to a site and has placed all the stock he wished to dispose of without difficulty. He left to-day to look at some cottonwood north of here.

WANTED.—A well furnished and well ventilated room in a private house near business portion of the city. Addres "M," TIMES office, stating price and location.

In the meeting last night there was a good lot of spontaniety at some of the points made by the distinguished speakers. This is well, but bear in mind, boys, that this campaign is on principle and for a principle; "no enemies to punish" after the fight is won. In the language of our epigramatic friend, Dr. S. R. Dunn, who the other day bestowed this advice on ye editor: "Keep 'em in the middle of the road."

Messrs Paterno & Coovert have moved into their new Studio in Phelps building, and will be pleased to have all call and see their work. Oct. 12
