The campaign by the opposition. The gentlemen who are engineering the fortunes of the personal candidates for Mayor have been engaged during the past week in trying to effect a consolidation of forces; and finally after much negotiations consummated, or "arranged" for, the withdrawal of Mr. Tilford in favor of Mr. Alexander. Considering that there was the bitterest contest and feeling between these candidates, both two years ago and before the Wynn ticket was announced, we are at a loss to divine what arguments were used to effect such incongruous combination; without listening to and countenancing reports of what to say the least, and we think the best,—is to say nothing. But will any good citizen say that an administration having its strength and source in unknown and secret collusions and methods is to be given control of city affairs? Certainly Mr. Tilford's followers have too much sense of pride and thought to sanction this "arrangement" by their votes; and they will not be swapped and bargained off like a lot of cattle. The Councilmen put forth by the managers of this movement are Messrs. H. Wilczinski, T. B. Shaw and
