THE STATE LEGISLATURE

Special to the Commercial Appeal.

Jackson, Jan. 17.—When Chairman Powell called the senatorial caucus together tonight, Mr. Underwood, a supporter of Mr. Allen, immediately moved that the caucus adjourn until Monday night, in view of the fact that many of the members were absent, and others desired to go home to take advantage of the adjournment of the house until Monday.

Mr. Critz, a Money man, seconded the proposition, and the same went through without opposition. Twelve or fifteen members were absent from illness and other causes.

The adjournment is without political significance as affecting either candidate, as the impression was general that tonight's balloting would show no changes. By Monday the hall will be thoroughly renovated and disinfected so far as can be, and a new carpet laid. A great many members have been indisposed since coming here, and the same is largely attributed to the bad condition of the hall.

The twelfth ballot, which was the last ballot taken last night, resulted: Money 79, Lowry 48, Allen 46, Hooker 18, Yerger 1; total 170; necessary to a choice 86.

Stock Law Bills.

The feature in the senate today was the special order relative to the bill pending making radical changes in the present stock law. It was discussed and opened to amendments and ordered printed, and will be further considered after the printed copies are received. The bill in the house making the entire state of Mississippi a stock territory got a "black eye" by the committee recommending that the same do not pass.

The Senate.

Mr Bowers asked leave of absence from day to day for Mr. Ellis, on account of sickness. Mr. Cook obtained leave of absence for today, on account of sickness.

The special order was senate bill No. 5, to repeal sections 2906 and 2907 and chapter 21 laws of 1894 and to provide substitutes therefor so as to authorize an election on a proposition for a partial stock law or an entire stock law, as the case may be.

Mr. Love said that as this bill is one of the most important likely to come before the senate he would move that the bill be recommitted with instructions that 300 copies of the bill be printed for the use of the senate, which was passed.

Mr. Nesbitt amended by inserting "and turkeys" after the word "geese."

Mr. McLaurin amended by inserting the words "including women" after the word "householders."

Mr. Rainwater amended by adding after the words "stock law" at the close of the first section the following: "When a stock law or partial stock law has been put in force in any county or subdivision of a county, any person who shall wilfully or negligently permit any stock required to be kept in an inclosure to run at large in such territory shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $10 for each offense."

By Mr. Neal: Strike out all of the last paragraph after the word "provided" and insert in lieu thereof the words "that when contest is had and the result is adverse to a whole or a partial stock law when the kind of stock law not passed on can again be voted on as now provided for, otherwise the subject shall not again be voted for two years from the date of the former determination."

Mr. Falkner: To strike out in 16th and 17th lines the words "which are separated by natural boundaries."

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED.

By Mr. Lewenthall: To amend section 4149 of the code of 1892 so as to allow persons affected by any unlawful trust or combine to recover 1000 besides actual damages.

By Mr. Graves: To repeal section 1247 of the code of 1892 in reference to the sale of toy pistols, cartridges or caps.

By Mr. Nesbitt: To amend section 1026 of the code in reference to carrying deadly weapons concealed.

By Mr. Minor: To develop the internal commerce and better facilitate the handling of products of the State of Mississippi.

SENATE BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Senate bill to raise revenue by making contracts valid which were null under previous laws for non-payment of privilege taxes upon terms of payment double the amount of privilege tax for the year in which the contract was made within sixty days from the passage of this act. Indefinitely postponed.

The House.

The committee on ways and means reported as follows: House bill No. 1, "To tax transient dealers in horses and mules;" title sufficient and do not pass. House bill No. 15, "Providing for privilege on hotels;" title sufficient and do pass.

The committee on local and private legislation reported: House bill No. 37, "To authorize the board of mayor and aldermen to take census of Pascagoula village, so that it may be classed as a city;" do not pass.

The penitentiary committee reported the bill "To provide for additional lands for the State penitentiary," do pass.

The committee on Agriculture reported on the following: "To create a lien on agricultural products for use or hire of live stock;" do not pass. "To grant right of way for emptying place for ditch," do not pass. "To collect information of crops;" do not pass. "To establish a weather and crop service for collection of data," do not pass. "Declaring the State of Mississippi a stock law territory," do not pass.

Bills were introduced and referred as follows:

By Mr. Denton: To amend chapter 46 of the code in relation to fees of justices of the peace.

By Mr. Hicks: To validate the lease of sixteenth section lands in Bolivar county to certain named parties.

By Mr. Anderson: To authorize corporations to act as guardians, administrators and executors.

By Mr. Glover: To amend the code in relation to what property is exempt from taxation.

By Mr. Frith: To amend the code in relation to rape and to provide for speedy trial of this class of criminals.

By Mr. Worthy: To repeal charter 74, sheet acts of 1894, and re-enact section 151 in reference to loan of the funds accruing from sixteenth section.

By Mr. Cox: To provide privilege tax of dealers in pistol cartridges.

By Mr. Sowers: In reference to boundary line between Marion and Pearl River counties.

By Mr. Conly: In relation to fees of justices of peace and constables in criminal cases.

By Mr. Russell: To appropriate $300 to pay J. E. McIntosh as special counsel for East Mississippi Insane Asylum.

By Mr. Herring: To amend the code in relation to jurisdiction and power of boards of supervisors.

By Mr. Sheffield: To amend the code in relation to stock law and fences.

By Mr. Talbot: To amend the code in reference to fees of sheriffs in courts of justice of the peace.

Mr. Arbo introduced a resolution to appropriate $200 to cleanse and disinfect the house by taking up the old carpet and placing a new one. The motion was adopted.

Mr. McClurg presented to the house a memorial from the county superintendents of education, in which is treated the sections of the code relating to public schools, and moved that 500 copies of the memorial be printed for the use of the house. Mr. Underwood moved that the memorial be referred to the committee on education. Mr. Coleman spoke against the printing, while Mr. Cox favored it, as did Mr. Anderson. The memorial was referred to the committee on education.

The senate was announced and admitted. Lieut.-Gov. Evans taking his seat in the speaker's chair. The roll of the senate was called by Secretary Murry, and Clerk Smith called the roll of the house. Chairman Evans stated that the business of the joint convention was the election of a state librarian, and Mr. Pickley placed in nomination Mrs. Helen D. Bell, who sought her battle so nobly and was nominated by the caucus.

SOUTHERN GLEANINGS.

Options on Battlefield of Shiloh.

The secretary of war has notified the officers of the Shiloh Battlefield association that the options held by them on the lands of the Shiloh battlefield could not be used by the government, owing to the fact that congress at the close of the last session passed an act placing a limit on the amount of money to be expended for lands on that battlefield to $20,000. One owner has asked the government $15,000 for 180 acres. Condemnation proceedings were instituted and the jury awarded him $8,580. He will appeal the case. A purchasing agent has been kept on salary for one year, at a cost of $2,400 to the government, and not one acre has been secured. Unless congress removes the restriction on the price to be paid, there will be very little land purchased on that battlefield. The options expire March 4, when the land owners will be at liberty to set their own prices on the land.

For Killing His Assailant.

Thomas B. Ponder, a member of the fire department of Savannah, Ga., who killed Frank Keenan, an ex-fireman, on June 6 last, was tried and found guilty, with recommendation to mercy, after four days' trial. Keenan charged Ponder with having testified falsely against him at an investigation in which Keenan was discharged from the force. Ponder, hearing of Keenan's threats to do him up, armed himself. While he was on duty at the fire headquarters Keenan went in and made an assault on Ponder, whereupon the latter shot Keenan three times, which resulted in his immediate death. The judge's charge to the jury was strongly in favor of the prisoner. Ponder was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. He is the first white man to receive this sentence in many years in Savannah. His lawyers will apply for a new trial, which will likely be granted.

Baldwin Acquitted.

P. M. W. Baldwin, son of a Cleveland (O.) millionaire, and a nephew of ex-United States Senator Henry B. Payne, was, at Jacksonville, Fla., declared justifiable in killing Andrew Youman, who was found in Mrs. Baldwin's room at 1 o'clock on the morning of June 8, 1893. Mrs. Baldwin, who has been divorced by her husband, was the state's only witness. She claimed Youman was like one of the family, having boarded with her and Baldwin a long time. On the night of the tragedy, her husband being away, she became alarmed and called Youman to come to her room. Youman came and laid down on her bed. She said Youman had not been in her room more than five minutes when Baldwin walked in.

Arkansas Colonists.

Says a dispatch from Birmingham, Ala.: One hundred and fifty negroes, men, women and children, have arrived here from St. Francis county, Ark., to join a colony of about a like number of Alabama negroes, to go to Liberia, Africa. The negroes go under the auspices of the International Migration society, of Birmingham, which has chartered the steamer Laurda in Philadelphia. The negroes will start from the port of Savannah. The crowd which came here had two cars of baggage in boxes, trunks and bundles.

Objects to the Word "Reverend."

Rev. J. Manning Dunaway, pastor of the Baptist churches at Accomac C. H., Hollies and Harborton, Va., publishes in the last issue of the Peninsula Enterprise a card, in which he requests his friends not to use the title of "Reverend" in addressing him. Mr. Dunaway says that he has given much study to the subject recently, and that he finds the word reverend but once in the English Bible, and then it applied to God. The use of the word in this country, as a title of respect for all ecclesiastics, he thinks is wrong.

Mobile Cotton Export Trade.

The revival of the cotton export trade via Mobile encouraged the owners of Mobile transatlantic line to build a vessel especially for this trade, and this vessel, the Mobile, arrived a that port the other day. She is th largest steamship that has reached th city wharves since the ship channe was completed.

An Augusta Cotton Factor.

At Augusta, Ga., a few days ago, an attachment was served by the sheriff on the warehouse of John P. Bones, a cotton factor. The exact amount of the liabilities are not known, but it is believed will approximate $50,000. Fleming, Thomas & Co., bankers.

Killed a Baby.

In Lincoln county, Ky., a 2-year-old child of Taylor Lackey, a farmer, was fatally shot by Charlie Woods, the 12-year-old son of a neighbor. The latter was playing with an old gun, and, not knowing it was loaded, pointed it at the child and pulled the trigger.

Shot an Incendiary.

Charles Bass, a farmer, of Halifax county, Va., shot and fatally wounded J. B. Stanfield, who was discovered in the act of setting fire to his stables. After emptying the contents of his shotgun in Stanfield's body, he carried him into his own house.

A Mad Dog's Run.

A large brindle dog, afflicted with hydrophobia, passed through the streets of Brenham, Tex., the other night, biting everything and everybody in its way.

Mixed Hats and a Fatal Fracas.

The mixing up of hats caused Tom Ross to shoot Frank Meade and John Higgins in Carter county, Ky. Meade is dead and Higgins is badly wounded.

Shot While Aiding an Arrest.

At Clarksville, Tenn., Policeman Walker was accidentally shot in the breast by Policeman Wilcox while they were taking a prisoner to jail.

Murdered by Robbers.

In Jackson county, Tenn., burglars hanged Joseph Day and beat Mrs. Day's brains out with a club because they would not give up their money.

Determined to Die.

Casper Parrovincini, a cabinet maker, committed suicide in Montgomery, Ala. He was prevented from drowning himself, and cut his throat.

Will Use Bourbon.

Miss Harriet Richardson, of Lexington, Ky., will christen the battleship Kentucky. She will use bourbon instead of champagne.

Cannery Destroyed.

The Seeman canning factory at Bridgeport, Ala., was destroyed by fire the other evening, just as the hands had stopped work.

MISSISSIPPI MATTERS.

A Mormon Colony.

There is a Mormon colony near Bay St. Louis which has been flourishing in a quiet way for two years, and has now reached quite respectable dimensions. They number, all told, about thirty souls now, and several accessions to the faith are in prospect.

It was in October, 1893, that two elders—Grantham and Hyalot—appeared in the vicinity and began sowing the seeds of their faith. They remained until March, and were succeeded by two other elders, who baptized the first converts to the church of the Latter Day Saints. They consisted of a family of five adults, residing on the Gainesville road, about five miles from town. The baptism took place in Bayou Phillip.

The following June two more families joined the church, they residing on Bayou Galoue. There were six persons in all, and they were baptized in Jordan river. Occasionally there were new accessions, until now the colony numbers about thirty souls. Their present place of worship is a private dwelling, but they have acquired a piece of land at the head of Bayou Choctaw, and intend, in the near future, to erect an edifice in which to hold their religious services.—Special to New Orleans Picayune.

A Band of Robbers Captured.

The ringleaders of a band of robbers and thieves were captured at Battlefield, Neshoba county, 22 miles northwest of Meridian. Their latest exploit was the holding up in regular Dick Turpin style of a man named Hanson, who was tramping through the country, and whom they robbed of $7 in money. The parties arrested are Van Davis, a former deputy United States marshal; Cal Pierce and John House. There have been numerous robberies and burglaries committed in the Battlefield neighborhood, and it is thought these men are largely responsible for them. The citizens of the immediate neighborhood made up among themselves a sum of money to employ counsel to prosecute the parties, and a committee was in the city today in their behalf.

A Law That Should Not Be Changed.

It will be a great mistake for the legislature to make any changes in the law relating to the State revenue agent and his duties. For years the legislature worked to make the law conform to the requirements of the constitution. That has been accomplished and it is now working like a charm. For the year 1893 Hon. Wirt Adams, State revenue agent, collected and turned into the State treasury $50,000 of back taxes. The office pays no salary, the revenue to the collector all depending entirely upon the success of the suits brought by the revenue agent. A number of these suits are now pending, and any change in the law might result in their defeat and a great loss to the State. Let the law alone.—Yazoo City Herald.

Mrs. Michael Cantone.

Mrs. Michael Cantone, an honored and respected lady of Brookhaven, died last week. Mrs. Cantone was born at Limerock, Ireland, November 16, 1834. She came to New Orleans and lived there some years, moving to Biloxi, Miss., from which place she came to Brookhaven, in 1876. She leaves five children, Mrs. Martin McGrath, Mrs. Peter Lucicha, a single daughter and two sons. Mrs. Cantone was a devoted and affectionate mother and her death is mourned by the whole community.

Options on Vicksburg Land.

The subcommittee of the Vicksburg National Park Association, which was appointed to secure options on the 4,000 acres of land surrounding the city of Vicksburg occupied by the armies of Gen. Grant and Gen. Pemberton during the siege, have completed their work and departed for Washington to present their bill to congress for the purchase of that battlefield. The land will cost more than twice as much as the land on the Shiloh battlefield would cost, but the government availed itself of the options held by the Shiloh Battlefield Association. The committee considers the price of the land at Vicksburg very reasonable, and will recommend that the government purchase the 4,000 acres, costing $112,000.

A Case of Chicken-Pox.

Starkville, Jan. 18.—There is no smallpox at the Agricultural College. After critical examination made today by the college surgeon, in consultation with Dr. E. P. Connell, both unhesitatingly pronounced the case chicken-pox. This is the eighth day and the party is almost well. He has been exposed to chicken-pox. His family at home had it, as shown, by a dispatch from the health officer of Pike county.

Killed by a Falling Tree.

Belen, Jan. 18.—Mr. O. Alston's little son, about 10 years old, was accidentally killed Thursday of this week, near his home on the Streitz place. The little boy was cutting a tree down, which, in falling, caught him under it in some way, killing him instantly. He was a bright, promising little lad, and the especial favorite and pet of his parents.

Whitecaps Thrash a White Man Soundly.

A few nights since a posse of armed men with masks on the lower portion of their faces rode up to the house of a white man named Maugone, who lives about two miles northwest of Meridian, took him from the house, carried him to the woods near by, tied him to a tree, and administered a good, sound thrashing upon his nude body. He was released and carried back to the house, where two other men were, and they were also taken out and chastised because they commented too freely upon the chastisement of Maugone.

Voted for Waterworks.

The waterworks election at Greenville last week passed off quietly, a light vote being polled, and but for a few energetic citizens who took time to notify the voters that it was election day, the vote would have been much lighter. After the polls closed and the vote counted it was found that out of 413 votes polled there could be but three votes discovered against the city furnishing $65,000 to build and operate a complete waterworks system. The waterworks for Greenville means a great reduction in insurance and a great benefit to the welfare of the people in general.

HURRAH FOR PENNSYLVANIA.

The farmers of Pennsylvania are to be congratulated. M. M. Luther, East Troy, Pa., grew over 200 bushels Salzer's Silver Mine Oats on one measured acre. Think of it! Now there are thirty thousand farmers going to try and beat Mr. Luther and win $200 in gold! and they'll do it. Will you?

Then there is Silver King Barley, cropped on poor soil 116 bus. per acre in 1895. Isn't that wonderful—and corn 250 bus. and potatoes and grasses and clovers, fodder plants, etc., etc. Freight is cheap to all points.

IF YOU WILL CUT THIS OUT AND SEND it with 10c postage to the John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis., you will receive their mammoth catalogue and ten packages grains and grasses, including above oats, free. (K.)

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
