LOCAL NEWS.

Weather for the last seven days warm and foggy.

All the mills are now getting logs, but the supply is rather short.

Try Stewart's poultry powders for your chickens.

Hive syrup cough candy, is to be found only at Stewart's drug store.

Singing at one of our churches every Sunday evening; all are invited.

The overseers of the various roads are trying to put their roads in good order.

Now is the time to take sarsaparilla. Go to Stewart's and get a bottle for seventy-five cents.

A good many logs came down during the last few days via Pascagoula and its tributaries and Dog river.

Drummers were as thick as hops here this week. One friend W. Watkins was out on his maiden trip.

The school question is greatly agitated now. Attend the meeting to-night at the Masonic hall and see what is going on.

Another lot of onion sets, and the celebrated cross back pole beans, finest beans grown, just received at Bingham's drug store.

Dr. J. K. McLeod and Hon. W.

Denny, are in Jackson this week attending the Grand Lodge of Masons which is in session there.

Gardening operations active. Many vegetables are already well advanced; with a favorable season we may confidently count upon an abundant supply of vegetables for home use, and a considerable surplus for exportation.

We have received from T. H. Macon, a hen egg measuring 5.5 inches in circumference, one way and 2 1/2 inches the other. The egg is
