Drama Staged By Alcorn Group Is Real Treat

Those of us who braved the rain and chilly winds to see The "Attorney for the Defense" were well paid for our trouble. The young people from Alcorn certainly put on a real drama.

Mrs. Lawson and Mr. James had thoroughly trained their stars; and between the acts our boys scored high with their Swing Bands. Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Clarksdale who are the parents of Mr. Robert Jones, who played the title role, motored to Mound Bayou to witness the play. Quite a number of Mound Bayou socialites attended the performance. The Alcornites were entertained at Ouida's Grill after the performance. Thursday night's pleasures will live in our memories a long time.

Mrs. Hattie Powell had a severe sick attack early Monday morning. Her relatives and friends are experiencing keen anxiety over her condition. Her children from Chicago are expected to arrive here this week.

Mrs. Ida Darling returned home from Chicago Monday where she has been for the past three weeks in attendance at the sick bed and funeral services of her mother. Consoling friends thronged Mrs. Darling's house Monday afternoon, when sleep came down to soothe her weary eyes they left her smiling pleasantly.

Mrs. Ella Gordon returned home Saturday much improved after having suffered a second severe attack of sickness while out on her farm five miles east of Mound Bayou.

Mrs. Missouri Connaway, of Banks and Francis addition, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis last Saturday. She is improving nicely at this time.
