A GREAT ENTERPRISE! UNITED STATES SATURDAY POST AND CHRONICLE.

A FAMILY NEWSPAPER OF THE MAMMOTH CLASS.

NEW VOLUME, OCTOBER, 1842.

The proprietors of the Saturday Evening Post have just purchased the entire establishment of the "Saturday Chronicle," and also of the "United States" weekly newspapers, the immense subscription lists of which concern them united with the heavy list of the Saturday Post, a family paper of 23 years standing, and now issue the three in one, under the title of the "United States Saturday Post and Chronicle."

THE GREAT SIZE. It is a sheet of the largest class—printed on fair, clear, type, with fine white paper, and contains more reading matter than any weekly paper published.

POPULAR TALES. It is devoted to the highest grade of light literature, each number containing three or four choice original and selected TALES; which, while they shall interest the young, shall at the same time point a moral. It also contains much good, and every now and then a POETRY. A copious compend of well-told Anecdotes, Rich Humor, Pointed Wit, Just Satire, and Sentiment the most touching. It contains also the greatest variety of Original Tales, Sea sketches, Essays, Poetry, Songs, Characters, besides the latest and best selections from the American and English Magazines, and all the other fountains of choice Original literature.

Original Stories appear in every number of the paper, with Original articles on all subjects! PUBLIC LECTURES. A portion of its columns will be devoted during the Lecture Season, to Scientific Lectures, correctly reported at length—a feature possessed by no other weekly paper. In its columns all the valuable Lectures of Professor Lyell on Geology, in this city, and the still more interesting ones of the justly celebrated Dr. Lardner, on various Scientific subjects have appeared. The new series of "LECTURES ON THE FRENCH REVOLUTION, BY DR. LARDNER," just commenced in this city, will be reported in full, by one of the best Reporters in the United States. Hence, subscribers remote can have all the advantage of these highly popular discourses with but little cost. The great size of the paper also enables us to give all important Congressional Proceedings at length, and all reports and other public documents in full, together with occasional Congressional Speeches in full.

THE FARMERS. It is intended to make the paper one of great interest to the Farmer, by giving the reports of the different agricultural associations; the new inventions; late experiments in tilling, and able papers from every source entitled to confidence; so that the agricultural portion of the community will find in its columns, without entreaching upon other matter, all that is desirable to know, without the expense of a separate journal.

AS A NEWSPAPER. As a weekly newspaper it is believed that the "UNITED STATES SATURDAY POST" is not equalled by any weekly literary paper now existing. It contains a full and well digested account of every matter of consequence up to the hour of printing. This is a great desideratum to those who take only a single weekly paper, and which means less extensive than those connected with the establishment cannot accomplish. The number of persons employed, and the steam power engaged in the publication of this paper, altogether surpass that of any other of a similar character.

INDUCEMENTS TO POSTMASTERS AND TO CLUBS. As a means of compensation to Postmasters for their trouble as agents, or as an inducement for neighbors to combine, and thus save to the Publishers the cost of individual packing, direction, &c., the following additional advantages are held out: For every 5 dollars current money, free of postage, will be sent 3 copies for one year. For every 10 dollars current money, free of postage, will be sent 7 copies for one year. For every 20 dollars current money, free of postage, will be sent 16 copies for one year. For every 50 dollars current money, free of postage, will be sent 40 copies for one year.

PROSPECTUS FOR THE AGRICULTURIST.—AND JOURNAL OF THE STATE, AND COUNTY SOCIETIES. VOL. IV, FOR 1843.—PRICE $1.

In the midst of the "HARD TIMES," we send our proposals forth once more for patronage to a Journal to which we confidently hope to be able to make it the interest of everyone capable of reading to subscribe. It will be our constant aim to report every useful invention and discovery in the wide field of science, and the subject of Education that heretofore. The analysis, combining, and manuring the different soils, will be presented in the most familiar and practical manner. The most suitable crops for the different climates and soils, with the best modes of cultivation, will be extensively discussed, and the Garden and Orchard will occupy a large space in our columns.—Household matters will not be forgotten, and the requisite Economy for the times will be urged with our best powers. The breeding, rearing, feeding, diseases, and use of all domestic animals, will receive strict attention, and in a word, every thing beneficial to the physical, intellectual and moral condition of mankind, will be investigated.

Our thanks are tendered for the very liberal support to the "Agriculturist," during the three years of its publication, and we ask one effort more from our patrons, and we believe from the exceeding cheapness and utility of the work, the subscription list can be easily increased fourfold.

JOHN SHELBY GERARD TROOST, TOLBERT FANNING,

To any person who will procure five subscribers and remit the money free of postage, one copy will be sent gratis; and a commission of 20 per cent. allowed on all subscribers over five. CAMERON & FALL, Publishers, Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 1842.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE OF LITERATURE, ART AND FASHION. GRAHAM'S LADIE'S AND GENTLEMEN'S MAGAZINE! THE PROSPECTUS FOR 1843. Editors. GEORGE R. GRAHAM AND RUFUS W. GRISWOLD. REGULAR CONTRIBUTORS: J. Fenimore Cooper, Richard H. Dana, William Cullen Bryant, Henry W. Longfellow, T. C. Grattan, Charles F. Hoffman.

It is the oldest & most popular of the American Literary Magazines. The number for January, 1843, will be the first of the 35th volume. Its long and uniformly successful career, from its commencement with a few hundred subscribers, until the present time, when it has a circulation of 50,000 copies per month, is perhaps as good an evidence of its great and constantly increasing merit as the publisher has it in his power to offer. To its old subscribers, he trusts, no assurances are necessary of his determination to maintain its present ascendancy over all the rival periodicals of the country. The engagement during the past year of such men as BRYANT, COOPER, DANA, LONGFELLOW, HOFFMAN, MANCUR and others, of high reputation in the literary world, as REGULAR CONTRIBUTORS, in addition to a previous list embracing many of the first names in the nation, is a sufficient guarantee that the work will continue to be the principal medium of communication between the best authors and the public. Among the attractions of the 35th volume, will be several TALES by Mr. COOPER, Mr. Grattan, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Mancur, Mr. Herbert, Miss Leslie, "Mary Clavers," Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Elliot and Mrs. Stephens. POEMS by Mr. Bryant, Mr. Dana, Mr. Longfellow, Mr. Street, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. Osgood and Mrs. Sigourney; ESSAYS by Mr. Fay, Mr. Jones, Mr. Tuckerman, Mr. Poe, etc. etc. The following more complete list of contributors will convince the readers that it is well nigh impossible to have a superior corps in the present age:

James Fenimore Cooper, Author of "The Spy," "The Pilot," "The Pioneers," "Natal History," "Home as Found," "The American Democrat" etc. R. H. Dana, Author of "The Encyclopaedia," "The Idle Man," "Discourses on Shakspeare," etc. W. C. Bryant, Author of "The Ages," "The Fountain, and other Poems," etc. T. C. Grattan, Author of "Highways & Byways," "Jaqueline of Holland," "History of the Netherlands," "The Heiress of Bruges," etc. H. W. Longfellow, Author of "Voices of the Night," "Hyperion," "Outer Mer," "Ballads & other Poems," etc. N. P. Willis, Author of "Two Ways of Dying for a Husband," "Jokings of Adventure," "Letters from under a Bridge," etc. C. F. Hoffman, Author of "Wild Scenes in the Forest and Prairie," "A Winter in the West," etc. W. Falconer, Author of "Translations from the temporary French & German Poets; Residence in the Isle of France," etc. Henry William Herbert, Author of "Oronwell," etc. H. T. Tuckerman, Author of "Rambles & Reviews," etc. T. S. Fay, John S. Mancur, Rufus W. Griswold, Epes Sargent, Author of Velasco, The Genoese, etc. Park Benjamin, Author of Sonnets & Lyrical Poems, etc. William Gilmore Simms, Author of Guy Rivers, etc. James Russel Lowell, Author of A Year's Life & other Poems, etc. Frederick W. Thomas, Author of 'Clinton Bradshaw,' etc. Cornelius Mathews, Author of The Politicians, etc. Rev. Walter Colton Author of Constantinople & Athens, etc. L. F. Taistor, Author of Random Shots, Agathe, etc. Alfred B. Street, Author of Nature, The Burning of Schenectady, etc. George Hill, Author of The Ruins of Athens, etc. Albert Pike, Author of Hymns to the Gods, etc. Edgar A. Poe, H. H. Weld, James Aldrich, Hon. Robert T. Conrad, William E. Burston, George Lunt, Rev. Louis L. Noble, J. K. Mitchell, C. R. Peterson, J. H. Ingraham, H. Greeley, George H. Colton, Reynold Coates, M. D., Walter Lander, James T. Fields, Robert Morris, W. A. Jones, J. Inman.

Graham's Ladies' & Gentlemen's Magazine has been from its establishment more than any other the favorite periodical of the gentle sex. Though its plan does not entirely exclude articles of the most important character—such as have raised Blackwood's, and some other foreign Journals to their high influence & reputation—its pages will be principally devoted to what is usually termed light literature. It will be distinguished from other publications of similar

TERMS. The Vesperus will be printed on fine white paper, with beautiful new type, in the quarto form expressly for binding. Will be issued from the office of publication, No. 9 Kilby street, every Saturday, at $2 per annum in advance. Thus making it the cheapest as well as the handsomest paper of its kind in America. At the end of each volume a handsome Title Page and an Index will be given to each subscriber. Agents are wanted in every city, town and village in the U. S. and British Provinces, to whom a net liberal per centage will be allowed. Country Editors giving this advertisement three or four insertions will oblige the publisher and entitle themselves to a copy of the Vesperus without an exchange by sending papers with the advertisement marked. All post paid communications will meet with strict attention; none others will be attended to.
