THE TALE OF A FISH.

As Related to His Friends by the Veracious Jenkins.

They had been discussing fish and fishing, when Jenkins suddenly added: "Did I ever tell you about Pitti Sing, my pet Japanese fan-tailed goldfish?"

Smoked in Church.

Although the present universal habit of smoking is of comparatively recent date, the use of tobacco was carried to a great excess when it was first introduced.

Ancient "Cure" for Madness.

In the "Dictionarium Domesticum, Being a New and Complete Household Dictionary for the Use Both of City and Country" (1736), is this sure cure for a malady which has in modern times been regarded as rather obstinate: "For lunacy and madness—

Sport of the Infant Japanese Girl.

Little girls make a play of one thing that in after years becomes labor, labor of love though it is. So soon as a girl is old enough, she has three or four, her dolly is tied to her back in the same way that she was fastened to her nurse's back when she was a baby.

Siamese Object to Walking.

The Siamese, above all nations in the world, hate to walk; no such mode of progression is tolerated by a Siamese if he or she can by any means ride.

His Classification.

"Oh, I don't intend to be scrupulous about the way I get on," said the young lawyer, who thought himself the greatest ever.

OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal it is because the blood is not pure and healthy, as it should be, but is infected with poisonous germs or some old blood taint which has corrupted and polluted the circulation.

I was afflicted with a sore on my face of four years standing. It was a small pimple at first but it gradually grew larger and worse in every way until I became alarmed about it and consulted several physicians.

THOS. OWEN, West Union, Ohio.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

Then the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, all pain and inflammation leaves, the place scabs over, and when S. S. S. has purified the blood the sore is permanently cured.

"GET THE FIRST $1,000."

Ancient Axiom That Has Set Many Men to Saving.

"Get the first $1,000. After that money-making is easy." This is the old-time sage advice of the hard-headed, self-made man.

STYLES OF 4,000 YEARS AGO.

Tend to Prove There is Nothing New Under the Sun.

For women archeology assumes a deeply interesting phase in the question which has been raised by Signor Mosso as to styles in dress as they existed 4,000 years ago.

Properties of Gold.

Pure gold is unaffected by the atmosphere either at ordinary temperatures or when the metal is heated. It is also proof against the action of common acids when used singly.

The Grave of Goldsmith.

That Oliver Goldsmith was buried in the churchyard of the Temple has been placed beyond doubt by the entry in the register. But the stone on the north side of the Temple church, around which the enthusiasts of the Goldsmith club gather, has been placed on a spot purely conjectural.

The Charming Woman.

Of all the women born into an ungrateful and unappreciative world none can compare to the really charming one.

Tact.

The right kind of a wife never harps upon her husband's misdeeds, still less does she remind him of his misfortunes.

QUALITIES OF THE OYSTER.

One Particularly Good Point Which Bore Might Emulate.

A San Franciscan has discovered a new method of cutting short recitals that promise to become too long-winded.

Great Slaughter of Salmon.

In the Sea of Okotsk the salmon are suicidal and one of the most startling examples of the spendthrift side of nature may be found in the rivers that run into this sea.

It is freely predicted that pigs will be thinner this year than usual on account of the shortage of crops.

When you see a girl eating green onions it is pretty sure sign that she has no love affairs to worry her.

Lillian Nordica says—

After a thorough trial of her piano: "The more I use my KIMBALL piano the better I like it."
