It is hoped that every citizen of the town will right now resolve to clean up all rubbish which has been allowed to accumulate on his premises or near his place of business. It is also hoped that the Mayor and Board of Aldermen will arrange to clean up all streets and clean out all the ditches and pour oil over all the places where water stands on city property, and cut the weeds.

Dr. A. F. Wicks and Prof. W. M. Cox have been appointed inspectors to inspect Okolona in the "Cleanest Town" contest. We understand that these two gentlemen will make a thorough inspection of the town on Monday. We trust every person who has not already done so will get busy and have everything in apple pie order before that day. We published the requirements and the method of grading several weeks ago, and if any person has forgot these, we will be pleased to give the needed information on application.

Appearance is Not All.
A gentle spirit may express itself in rude words of illiteracy; it is not therefore rude. Ruffianism may speak the language of learning or religion; it is ruffianism still. Strength may wear the garb of weakness, and still be strong; and a weakling may carry the weapons of strength, but fight with a faint heart.—Harold Bell Wright.

Scotch Bard's Remarkable Eyes.
The most striking feature of Burns was his large dark eye. It was, we are told by one writer, "full of mind and literally glowed when he spoke with emotion or interest." Sir Walter Scott, who knew the poet when he lived in Edinburgh, says: "I never saw such another eye in a human head, and I have seen the most distinguished men of my time."

Mrs. Nichols Honored
Mrs. Annie Glass entertained a few friends at Five Hundred on last Saturday afternoon in honor of her visitor, Mrs. W. E. Nichols.

After enjoying a number of interesting games of Five Hundred a delicious salad course was served, after which the guests departed all declaring Mrs. Glass an ideal hostess.

Those fortunate enough to be present on this occasion were Mesdames G. W. Cole, A. F. Wicks, Jesse Dawson, Walter Smith, J. A. Donaldson, Misses Clem Miller, Lillie Reinheimer and Annie Miller.

Lanier Club
The Lanier Club held its first meeting with Mrs. Tom Gean. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent, the subject being Mississippi and its Physiology and Geology also its government. Mrs. T. L. Betts, Mrs. W. E. Barden and Mrs. Walter Smith read some very fine papers.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. R. B. McEachin, served delightful refreshments. After the next meeting the club will disband for the summer.

Gregory School Closes
Friday afternoon a most successful school term ended at Gregory School. This school closed its successful term under the guidance of the efficient and capable teacher, Miss Hortense Gregory, who with her charming personality won the love and esteem of all her pupils, an asset so necessary to educational fitness.

In appreciation of her work, in shaping and moulding the young and tender characters of the future, the patrons of the Gregory School expressed a unanimous desire of retaining this ability for another term and Miss Gregory will again be the guiding star of educational fitness at the Gregory School next term.

Missionary Society Entertained
Mrs. Crabtree threw open her home to the members of the Woman's Missionary Society, of the Methodist church, on last Monday afternoon from three to five. A large attendance, a delightful time and very enthusiastic meeting was reported. The President, Mrs. E. I. Keller, in her charming way, presided. She puts a life into the meeting and inspires every one with her spirit. An interesting program was carried out, and many matters of business were disposed of. There were about thirteen members and five visitors present.

Summer time does not stop missionary work, we are always on hand to enjoy good things.

The hostess, assisted by Miss Clemmie Cox and Mrs. Tom Gregory, served the guests with delicious refreshments.

A unanimous vote of thanks was given the hostess for such a pleasant afternoon and such royal hospitality.

SET A HEN AND SANCTIFY A PIG

How a Methodist Church in a Kansas Village Raised Money For Missions.

Southern Methodist Church Receives $1,232,503 For Missions—Interesting News.

It happened out in Kansas and the actors were all good Methodist men and women. Living in and about a little village.

Money was needed for a great missionary cause, and there was scarcely a person who knew of it who did not want to give something. But it was in the spring that the call was made, and that is the time farmers are raising every cent they can get hold of to make a crop. No one had any money to give. Then there came a bright suggestion. Some one said: "Let us set a hen and sanctify a pig."

Every woman who had chickens went out and selected a most motherly old hen and fifteen of the best eggs she could find and then and there dedicated that hen and her brood to the cause. The farmers selected a nice young pig or shooat, which pig was sanctified to the cause of missions.

Of course, the hen hatched a fine brood of chickens. All summer it was a matter of great interest in the village to the homes where there were Methodist farms and sanctified pigs. Farmers would point and say: "Yonder is the sanctified pig." Women would call up all the chickens and point out the old hen and her brood and tell people how great old hen was raising better chickens for the church.

If it is worth doing at all, it's worth doing well.
