MAGNOLIA GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED TWICE A WEEK.

STATE CAPITOL NOTES.

Col. and Mrs. J. E. W. McCord, of New Albany, were married in Washington, D.C., on Tuesday, January 15, 1898. The marriage was performed by Judge W. H. Crockett, of that city. The wedding took place in the National Capitol building, and was attended by many of the prominent politicians of the nation.

The State Capitol, which was rebuilt after the fire of 1861, is one of the finest legislative buildings in the country. It is a magnificent example of the style of architecture known as the “Greek Revival.” The building is constructed of stone and marble, and is2,000 feet long, 500 feet wide, and 200 feet high. It is capable of accommodating 10,000 people.

The Senate Chamber is located on the second floor, and is one of the most magnificent rooms in the building. It is 120 feet long, 60 feet wide, and 30 feet high. The ceiling is painted with frescoes representing the chief events in the history of the United States.

The House Chamber is also located on the second floor, and is 160 feet long, 80 feet wide, and 30 feet high. It is adorned with statues and paintings depicting the great statesmen and soldiers of the nation.

The Library is located on the third floor, and contains a vast collection of books, manuscripts, and historical documents. It is one of the most important libraries in the world, and is open to the public.

The State Capitol is a symbol of the nation’s enduring commitment to democracy, and is a site of many important events and ceremonies. It is a testament to the ingenuity and creativity of the nation’s builders, and is a source of pride for all Americans.

D. B. HUFF, Editor and Publisher.

PUBLISHED WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1898.

MAGNOLIA, PISI COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

STATE CAPITOL NOTES.

The State Capitol is the seat of government of the State of Mississippi. It is located in the city of Jackson, and was completed in 1857. The building is constructed of granite and marble, and is one of the finest examples of Greek Revival architecture in the United States.

The State Capitol is a symbol of the state’s history and progress. It is a testament to the ingenuity and creativity of the nation’s builders, and is a site of many important events and ceremonies. It is a source of pride for all Mississippians.

D. B. HUFF, Editor and Publisher.

MAGNOLIA GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1898.

MAGNOLIA, PISI COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

STATE CAPITOL NOTES.

The State Capitol is the seat of government of the State of Mississippi. It is located in the city of Jackson, and was completed in 1857. The building is constructed of granite and marble, and is one of the finest examples of Greek Revival architecture in the United States.

The State Capitol is a symbol of the state’s history and progress. It is a testament to the ingenuity and creativity of the nation’s builders, and is a site of many important events and ceremonies. It is a source of pride for all Mississippians.

D. B. HUFF, Editor and Publisher.

MAGNOLIA GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1898.

MAGNOLIA, PISI COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

STATE CAPITOL NOTES.

The State Capitol is the seat of government of the State of Mississippi. It is located in the city of Jackson, and was completed in 1857. The building is constructed of granite and marble, and is one of the finest examples of Greek Revival architecture in the United States.

The State Capitol is a symbol of the state’s history and progress. It is a testament to the ingenuity and creativity of the nation’s builders, and is a site of many important events and ceremonies. It is a source of pride for all Mississippians.

D. B. HUFF, Editor and Publisher.

MAGNOLIA GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1898.

MAGNOLIA, PISI COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

STATE CAPITOL NOTES.

The State Capitol is the seat of government of the State of Mississippi. It is located in the city of Jackson, and was completed in 1857. The building is constructed of granite and marble, and is one of the finest examples of Greek Revival architecture in the United States.

The State Capitol is a symbol of the state’s history and progress. It is a testament to the ingenuity and creativity of the nation’s builders, and is a site of many important events and ceremonies. It is a source of pride for all Mississippians.

D. B. HUFF, Editor and Publisher.

MAGNOLIA GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1898.

MAGNOLIA, PISI COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

STATE CAPITOL NOTES.

The State Capitol is the seat of government of the State of Mississippi. It is located in the city of Jackson, and was completed in 1857. The building is constructed of granite and marble, and is one of the finest examples of Greek Revival architecture in the United States.

The State Capitol is a symbol of the state’s history and progress. It is a testament to the ingenuity and creativity of the nation’s builders, and is a site of many important events and ceremonies. It is a source of pride for all Mississippians.

D. B. HUFF, Editor and Publisher.