INDIAN WAR.

August 6—Three Indians just arrived at Fort Gibson, from the Cherokee country, bring the following intelligence:

The Cherokees have had a battle with the Osages, in which the latter were defeated with the loss of 19 killed and 30 wounded. The Osages had 17 killed and 40 wounded. The battle was fought on the Arkansas, about 30 miles above the mouth of Grand River. The Osages had crossed the Arkansas, and were on their way to the Cherokee country, when they were met by the Cherokees, who had crossed the river for the purpose of intercepting them. The Osages had 300 warriors in the field, and the Cherokees 200. The Osages fled after the battle, and the Cherokees pursued them to the Verdigris river, where they gave up the pursuit.

The Osages have been at war with the Cherokees for a long time, and have killed a number of the latter. The Cherokees have been at peace with the whites, and have not molested them.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Pursuant to a public notice, given, a meeting of the citizens was held in the Court House, on Saturday the 8th inst. Robert Lapsley, Esq. was called to the Chair, and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Secretary. The Chairman briefly explained that the objects of the Meeting were set forth in the newspaper notice contained in the Southern Planter, of that date, which was referred to.

Whereupon G. D. Royal, Esq. offered the following preamble and resolutions, which on motion, were adopted.

Whereas, we view the present political excitement in our country as being of such a character as to jeopardize the best interests of our citizens, the stability of our Union and our free institutions; and whereas, we view the re-election of ANDREW JACKSON, and the support and continuance of the leading and fundamental principles of his administration, as essential to the preservation and prosperity of our happy Union; and whereas we feel in the State of Missouri, a deep interest in these subjects, and for the purpose of expressing our sentiments and demonstrating our feelings and wishes, therefore—

Resolved, That it is expedient that the friends and supporters of the present Administration here assembled, do attend a public Barbecue, to be given to them at such time and place as may be found convenient.

Resolved, That a committee of citizens be appointed for the purpose of inviting our Senator the Hon'ble. Thomas Ellis, and our Representative the Hon'ble Franklin E. Plummer, to participate with us on this occasion, as a testimonial of the high respect which we entertain for them on account of their steward efficient support of the Administration of Andrew Jackson.

Resolved, That these committees be appointed to carry into effect the first resolution, and to act upon such time as shall seem best, so as may best suit the convenience of our Senator and Representative, and the worthy fellow citizens of Apple and other counties in this State, be invited to co-operate and participate with us.

On motion of John W. Gildart, Esq. the following named gentlemen were appointed a committee of invitation, viz: W. W. Whitehead, G. D. Boyd and M. F. D Gardner.

On motion of J. W. Gildart, Esq. the following named gentlemen were appointed the committee of arrangements, A. Hazel, A. M. Fetter, John H. Talbot, J. L. Jones, Thomas Batchelor, Morgan Bass and T. Crawford.

On motion of W. W. Whitehead, Esq. resolved that the Secretary be instructed to furnish a copy of these Resolutions and proceedings to the editor of the Southern Planter, for publication and also the other papers printed in the State friendly to the administration, he requested to republish the same.

On motion, Resolved that the President and Secretary sign the proceedings of this meeting and that it adjourn sine die.

ROBERT LAYSON, President.
THOS. J. HAMILTON, Secty.
Woodville, Sept. 24, 1832.

NATCHEZ, Sept. 2.

Yesterday, according to previous arrangements, GEORGE POINDEXTER, the free and independent Senator of the State of Mississippi, and his constituents, met at the Court House, in Adams county, in this city, escorted by the committee of arrangements and a number of other citizens. On his arrival at Parker's Hotel, where accommodations had been provided for him, a salute of thirteen guns was fired from the cannons in front of the city. Until the hour of dinner, he was visited upon by a number of the principal citizens of the county and city. At four o'clock, the hour of the entertainment, he was escorted to the table by a committee of arrangements, and a large number of citizens, preceded by a band of music. The table was spread in the spacious dining room of the Hotel, and was loaded with the most delicious viands that the season and the country could afford. The company was large, and the greatest harmony prevailed throughout the whole of the entertainment. The cheering was frequent, and the toasts were drunk with the most enthusiastic applause. The following are the regular toasts, and the sentiments which they elicited:
