ORANGE HERRINGTON.

Card of Thanks.

From the fulness of my heart I desire to thank the good people of Ellisville and community, for their kindness shown to me in the death of my husband. Kindness and attention in the hour of my great grief will ever be lovingly remembered by me as long as I live. I also want to thank the masons, for the respect and attention shown to my dead husband, and for the contribution received by me from them.

Yours Affectionately,
MRS. MINNIE ANDERSON.

Did you ever think how many of your troubles would die a natural death if you had not so much time to attend to them? Most of the worries and troubles that so darken our hours are delicate house plants; if we grow too busy to nurse and water them for a few days they shrivel and die.—Exchange.

Cleaning Up Time At Johnson-Hand Company's

AT THIS time we are naming unusually low prices—always do that at this time of year in order to clear our shelves of summer goods and make room for the New Fall Goods soon to take their places. It's a custom with all stores to clean up at the end of the season. Many stores make it a point to run in a lot of "Cheap Stuff" at these cleaning up sales, on which they make what seems like a low price. No price is low unless the merchandise is good. At this store, no matter what the price, you can depend on the quality of the goods. Come here for quality, for satisfaction and for low prices; and remember that

Our Money Is As Good As Your Neighbors At This Store.
