Who could Offer More than this Child? The following little story is a touching one and the hero thereof is a well known young gentleman of this city.

One evening, three weeks ago, he went out walking and some one gave him a glass of wine. This awakened the sleeping fond, and he went off on a grand carouse. For three days he lost all mastery over himself, and scarcely knew where he was.

and told the story and asked contributions, giving himself all the money he had with him. He succeeded in raising over forty dollars, and sent the little kindly hearted one on her way rejoicing.

Some one has sent to the Atlantic Monthly the following exposure: "Lightly she lifts the large, pure, lustrous shell, and poses it in her strong, shapely hand."

When Adeline Patti was a very little girl she was extremely fond of music and singing, and would at night, after going to bed, get up and secretly enter for her own pleasure the music which she had composed at the time.

Georgia, under Democratic rule, has saved $800,000 a year, Alabama $500,000, and South Carolina nearly double that sum. This saving of, say $230,000 a year in three represents a practical addition to the wealth of the taxpayers of nearly $4,000,000.

Behind the scene—Stage manager: "John, go and see whether the ballet are all dressed." John returns: "About ready, sir; got most of their clothes off."
