Engagement Announced.

The engagement is announced of Miss Maria Afong and A. S. Humphries. Mr. Humphries is the rising young lawyer now handling the practice of Judge J. A. Magoon. The marriage is to take place very soon in the new year.—Hawaiian Star.

The friends of Abram S. Humphries, Esq., formerly a prominent young lawyer of this city, but now practicing his profession in Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, will read with pleasure of his marriage in a few weeks to Miss Maria Afong, of Honolulu. She is reputed to be a woman of great beauty and high social position, one of her sisters being the wife of Commander Whiting of the U. S. Navy. Mr. Humphries is kindly remembered here by his many friends, who recall his loyal friendship and his brilliant talents, which give promise of a splendid and successful career. He is a member of one of our oldest and most influential families. His father, the late A. S. Humphries, during his lifetime was one of the wealthiest planters in the State of Mississippi.

Across the stormy waters we beg to wait him our greetings and best wishes for himself and the lovely woman who is soon to be his wife.—Columbus Dispatch.

Referring to the above we can only say, that Mr. Humphries moved from Columbus before we became residents here; but he is a Columbus boy, the brother of our esteemed citizen, Col. W. D. Humphries, and is largely connected here, and we unite with other friends in extending to him our heartiest congratulations.

The Baptist Meeting.

Rev. Sid Williams, the noted evangelist, arrived in the city Thursday and began a series of meetings in the Baptist church Thursday night. He has preached morning and evening every day since to good sized and appreciative congregations. He preaches with great earnestness and force, impressing his personality upon the audience with good effect. Not the least part of the services is the singing by Mr. J. A. Brown, who assists the evangelist at all his meetings by rendering sweet and soul-stirring music. He plays his accompaniments on an Italian harp, adding to the attractiveness of the services.

At the conclusion of the services a number of persons went forward and evinced a desire to lead a better Christian life, and it is thought much good will result from the services.

Preaching to-day at 11 a. m., 3:30 and 7 p. m. Everybody cordially invited to be present.

Something New and Elegant.

William N. Munroe & Co. are showing a line of Christmas Greeting Cards from the establishment of Raphael Tuck & Sons that are destined to become quite popular. They are "Christmas Greeting" cards of many tasty designs, to be printed with the address of the sender, and when sent out to friends is a pleasant and happy reminder that the recipient is in the mind and recollection of some distant friend. It is quite a pretty custom, brought here from London, and is destined to become quite popular, as it is a cheap but graceful way of remembering one's friends during the holidays. Call at the book store of William N. Munroe & Co. and see these samples and give them an order.

Henry Morgan (col.) was tried by Mayor McDowell Friday charged with stealing $10 from Oscar Troupe a man of his own color. Henry was bound over to Circuit court under a $500 bond. Jim Moore (col.) was tried before Justice Foote Saturday, charged with being an accomplice of Henry Morgan's. He was also bound over to Circuit court under a bond of $500. These prisoners were captured by Capt. Mungler after a long and tiresome search.

Woodlawn Items.

Woodlawn, Dec. 2, 1895.

A large crowd assembled at Woodlawn on the morning of the 25th. Miss Young dismissed her school at 11 o'clock to attend church services. The children made a very pretty picture as they marched from the academy to the church, their bright faces reflecting the joyousness of youth. The visiting teachers were Misses Nellie Brown, Lula Duncan, Pamela Mayo and Lucy Egger, of this county, and Prof. C. L. Wood, of West Point. We also noticed Chas. A. Vaughan and Neil B. Wood, of the A. and M. College. We were glad to meet Miss Johanne Wright, of Columbus, and hope she will come again. The 11 o'clock services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Barber, of Columbus, who made a splendid talk, speaking not only of personal, but of national blessings.

Expressions of thanks were made by Mrs. W. A. Harris, C. B. Stinson and several young ladies followed by Messrs. A. P. Pressley, W. A. and R. A. Harris, John A. Stinson and others.

At the close of the morning service, a bountiful dinner was served by the ladies of the church and community. A number of absentees were remembered and well filled boxes were sent them.

In the afternoon Mr. John A. Stinson, president of the County Christian Endeavor Society, addressed the Wood Lawn society in behalf of the Palmer Orphanage. A collection was taken amounting to more than $10. Mr. Stinson is a whole-soul endeavorer, a fine speaker, and Wood Lawn will always welcome him to hearts and homes.

These meetings of Christians do much good, spiritually and socially. "Ipsa sharpeneth iron, so the man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend."
