To Make Good Investments.

At the request of many of our friends and customers, who were not able to attend our sale this week...

We Have Concluded to Continue Our Great Sacrifice Sale

ONE WEEK LONGER

Beginning Monday, August 3, Ending Saturday, August 8.

This is positively the last extension, and we hope to see you all here to help us crowded every department of our big store again, as we have done the past week, giving evidence that the public appreciates our efforts to furnish good merchandise at lower prices than they were ever offered before.

We have just received a number of New Goods which will be included in this Sale to make it more attractive to our patrons.

Death of Edward T. Sykes.

The friends and acquaintances of Mr. E. T. Sykes, Jr. were horrified to learn of his death by his own hand in Mobile Friday morning. Mr. Sykes was a young man well known here and numbered his friends by the score, and the news of his death fell like a cloud over them. He was a son of Gen. E. T. Sykes, of this city, and had resided here nearly all his life. For a number of years he held a responsible position in this city, but left some time ago depressed and discouraged by business reverses and it is thought that these misfortunes led to the taking of his own life. From here he went to Mobile, Ala., where he occupied a position as bookkeeper for Block & Co., and was in their employ at the time of his death. Mr. Sykes was a young man of fine business ability and his untimely demise takes from the business world a man of unusual talent. While in the employ of Block & Co. he won their respect and esteem and was considered by them one of the best bookkeepers they had ever had, always keeping his books in the best of order and balancing accurately.

On the day of his death he seemed worried, going out frequently, evincing signs of mental worry. Shortly before eleven o'clock he wrote some letters. Putting on his coat he left the office and walked down the stairs to the second floor. Soon after a shot was fired and Mr. Sykes was discovered dead at the foot of the stairs.

The body arrived in this city last night over the M. and O. and the funeral will be conducted from the residence this morning at 9:30 o'clock, Rev. A. J. Miller of the First Baptist church officiating. The following will act as pall bearers: Messrs. Henry Humphries, Leighton Lide, Chas. Hale, John Hale, Hartwell Cocke, Will Cox, Chas. Stockard, Reese Frierson. In the hour of sorrow and gloom which has enveloped the Sykes home in this city the heartfelt sympathy of countless friends goes out to them and in this THE DISPATCH heartily joins.

Another Week.

It will be noticed in this issue that Simon Loeb & Bro. make the announcement that they will continue their sacrifice sale for just one week longer. This sale has been an immense success and the firm has been requested by many of its patrons to give them another chance to take advantage of reduced prices, hence all who have not attended this sale would do well to go to their store this week and see if they cannot save some money on goods they need and must have.

A delightful house party began at the beautiful country home of Mr. T. W. Hardy on Thursday. Those who are guests from Columbus are Miss Annie Stockard, Alyda Carr, Mary Anthony Young, Mamie Jephtha Harris, Susie Owen; Mr. Jamie Billups and Messrs. Rogers and Ackers, of Aberdeen. They were the honorees of a dance given by the young men of Crawford Thursday night.

Rev. G. O. Hubbert begins this morning a protracted meeting at the church at Caledonia which will last through the week. He will be assisted by Rev. J. B. Oakley, of this city, who will also assist him in the meeting which begins at Woodlawn next Sunday and which will last a week. Mr. Hubbert will later conduct a meeting assisted by Mr. Oakley at Beersheba.

Col. Chas. R. Smith and his accomplished daughter, Miss Estelle, who have been traveling in Europe, will return home not later than the 6th of August. Miss Estelle has been studying in Europe for several years and her friends are looking forward to her home-coming with great pleasure. The Colonel's friends will be glad to see him once more.

Cheap Excursion August 15th.

Round trip rate from Columbus, Miss., to St. Louis, $10.00, Chicago, $15.00. Tickets will be sold for trains leaving Mobile August 15th and will be good to return leaving either point until and including August 31, 1903. Apply to M. & O. R. R. Agents for further particulars.

Base Ball Notes.

The Tuscaloosa "Heavy Hitters" arrived in the city Thursday for the purpose of giving Manager Ottley's team a few lessons in the art of playing ball. Rain prevented the game Thursday but the public was treated to a double header Friday between showers. Those who missed the first of the three games missed a treat. Pete Cox was in good trim and held the Tuscaloosa boys down to three scores while eight runs were piled up to the credit of Columbus.

The second game was played under difficulties, rain preventing a clean cut exhibition. Sanders twirled for Tuscaloosa in a manner that made the home boys wonder if they were ever going to cross the home plate again. There is a possibility that a different tale would have been told "if" the weather bureau hadn't ordained that rain should fall in the first half of the ninth inning. Higgins, for Columbus, did good work, only two scores having been made when the game was called in favor of Tuscaloosa.

Heavy hitting by the Columbus boys was the feature of the last game. By well placed hits at the right time the home team netted eight scores, leaving Tuscaloosa with only two runs. Cox and Cox was the battery for Columbus while Sanders and Harris were in the points for Tuscaloosa. Manager Ottley intends putting his team against Demopolis in the near future on the home grounds.

To My Fellow Citizens.

For some weeks I have been confined to my bed with an attack of rheumatism. This will prevent me from making a thorough canvass of the county as I had hoped to do. I write to let you know that I am still a candidate for County Treasurer and sincerely hope for your vote and influence. If your neighbor does not receive this letter I will thank you to hand this one to him. Regretting an illness that will deny me the pleasure of meeting you, and grateful for your kindly consideration of my claim, I am, Your friend, R. S. CURRY.

Mr. Perry Halbert and family will move to this city on the 1st of September and will occupy their home on College street, the house at present occupied by Mr. H. F. Surrall, who moves into his pretty cottage on Main street. Mr. Halbert's friends are glad to welcome him to Columbus and with his family they will be quite an addition to the business and social circles of Columbus.

Nearly Forfeits His Life.

A runaway almost ended fatally, started a horrible fever on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally effective for burns, bruises, skin eruptions and piles. 25c at Chapman & Mayfield's drug store.

Your complexion is everything. Don't go around with blotches on your face, indicating a bad, sluggish condition of your blood.

It is repulsive to your friends and besides you can't feel just right when your blood is out of order. You're liable to contract some disease, too, because germs are more easily taken into the system when your blood is bad.

Spoke Factory.

Mr. J. F. Hart, representing the Weiss & Lesh Manufacturing Co., whose headquarters are at Muncie, Ind., spent last Friday in the city in consultation with the officers of the Citizen's Progressive League. Mr. Hart wants to locate a spoke factory in this section of the State and is favorably impressed with Columbus as a suitable site for such an enterprise. His company is one of the largest in the country, has abundant capital and asks nothing from the people where they locate except their good will which they already have in Columbus.

He expects to return here about August 10th when he will bring a number of timber experts with him whose duty will be to examine the timber resources of this section. They use hickory almost exclusively and to the end that they may be placed in touch with the hickory timber of this section, THE DISPATCH requests all who have hickory timber, or who know where there are large tracts, to let us know or notify Mr. John A. Stinson, secretary of the league. This is one enterprise which we can secure without expending a dollar; it means a large pay roll here, quite an addition to our population and we must secure it.

The weather bureau has furnished this section with ideal weather for the past few days for making an assured fact an abundant crop of cotton and corn. In the Caledonia neighborhood much needed rains have fallen, the prairie farms have been blessed with showers and all through the south and east come reports of the broken drought. The promise of plentiful crops and a good fall trade causes a cheerful expression on the face of the farmer and merchant alike.

Mysterious Circumstances.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c at Chapman & Mayfield's, Druggists.

The Public Library has been moved to the rooms in the City Hall. The apartments are large and airy and in a few days Miss Estes will have the books in their cases.
