

CITY HAPPENINGS. Poor and Weak

Mrs. Robert Fulton, nee Miss Cordelia Witherspoon, came over from Birmingham to attend the Beard-Lipscomb wedding. While in the city she is the guest of Miss Willie Gresham.

Mr. Frank Ervin, one of Lowndes county's most promising sons, of the New Hope neighborhood, left Wednesday for Oxford, where he goes to resume his studies at the State University, and where he will graduate at the close of the session.

Attention is called to the card of Mr. J. C. Burns, the "up to date" paper hanger, which appears in another column. Mr. Burns' shop is on First Avenue, North, opposite the Christian church, where parties needing work in his line will do well to call on him.

Rev. E. P. Jones leaves to-morrow for Starkville where he goes to assist in a protracted meeting which is being carried on in that city by Rev. Mr. Sellers, the pastor of the Baptist church there. Mr. Jones will be absent two weeks so there will be no services at the Baptist church next Sunday.

Rev. W. R. Dye, the beloved rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, left Wednesday for Augusta, Ga., in response to a telegram summoning him to the bedside of his mother, who is very ill. In consequence of his absence there will be no preaching at the Episcopal church to-day.

Miss Annie Armstrong, of Greenville, Texas, who visited Columbus last winter as a guest of the family of her uncle, Mr. J. T. Armstrong, is expected to arrive in a few days and will spend the winter in the city taking a special course at the Industrial Institute and College.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Roberston, and their charming daughter, Miss Lavina, who have been spending the summer in Battle Creek, Mich., and St. Louis, Mo., have returned to their home in this city. Mr. Roberston is much improved in health and his wife and daughter are looking unusually well and seem to have enjoyed their trip immensely.

The following gentlemen

Cataract and Bronchial Trouble—
Had no Appetite—Now Better in Every Way—A Delicate Child.
"Some time since I took a sudden cold and could not get rid of it. Being subject to catarrh and bronchial trouble I coughed terribly. I lost my appetite and grew poor and weak and I did not feel like work. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time the cough disappeared, I slept well, had a good appetite and I was better in every way. Last spring I was not feeling well, I had no appetite and no strength. I resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon felt more like work. My little nephew was a delicate child and had a tumor which troubled him so he could not rest at night. He has taken a few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and now he has a good appetite and is able to sleep." MISS ABRAHAM J. FREEMAN, South Duxbury, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists sell it. Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, aid digestion, etc.

Beard-Lipscomb.

An event which has been long looked forward to by the friends of the contracting parties and one that has been the absorbing topic of conversation in social circles for many weeks past was solemnized at the Methodist church at eight o'clock last Thursday night when the hearts and hands of Mr. Ernest N. Beard and Miss Laura Lipscomb were joined together in the holy bonds of matrimony. The choicest flowers had been culled from all of the principal conservatories and flower gardens of this city to contribute to the decorations of the church, which were perhaps, the most tasteful and beautiful ever seen in Columbus. It was a chrysanthemum wedding and these beautiful and gorgeous flowers were used to the exclusion of all others. The pulpit and choir railing were one solid mass of white loveliness and over the chancel rail was an arch of the same beautiful and fragrant flowers. From the center of this arch was suspended a white dove, the emblem of purity, a fit symbol of the loving hearts, noble characters and pure lives whose fates were soon to be linked together.

Promptly at eight o'clock Rev. Geo. H. Lipscomb, a brother of the bride who performed the ceremony,
