"He's evidently been working overtime. His wife is suing him for divorce and names six correspondents."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Has Been About Some.

"Your boy has graduated?"
"Yes," said Mr. Grabola. "Now he wants to go abroad and see something of the world."

"Why don't you let him see America first?"

"You couldn't interest him in a proposition like that. He traveled with the football team."

Apparently.
"Boss, is you connected with de courthouse?"
"Yes."

"Kin you help me out? I wants a marriage license."

"No, I'm a police magistrate. Best I can do is to give you a year in jail. You're after a life sentence."

A Little Bit of Blarney.
Misses—Maggie, I can't have you entertaining policemen in the kitchen.
Maggie—Sure, mum, an' it's a big heart ye have. I was sayin' to Michael O'Flinn only last night that if I'd spake th' word ye'd let us have th' drawin' room.—London Answers.

The Difficulty.

After Thorough Trial a Detroit, Mich., Man Endorses Pe-ru-na

The following letter written from Detroit, Michigan is no snap judgment expressed on the merits of Pe-ru-na, the well-known cathartic remedy, but rather a mature, sober opinion formed after a full year's trial.

This is the way Mr. Michael Fako of 909 East Palmer Avenue, in the Michigan Metropolis, writes: "After using PE-RU-NA for about one year I say I have found it a very good medicine for catarrh. It has helped me a great deal and I am very well satisfied. I have gained in weight, eat and sleep well, my bowels are regular and better color in my face."

"PE-RU-NA has done wonders and to me is worth its weight in gold. I shall continue to use PE-RU-NA as long as I live and recommend to my friends who are troubled with catarrh." Nothing can be more convincing than an endorsement of this nature from an actual user. There are many people in every community whose experience, in using Pe-ru-na, has been identical with Mr. Fako's. It is the standby for coughs, colds, catarrh, stomach and bowel disorders and all catarrhal conditions. Put up in both tablet and liquid form. SOLD EVERYWHERE.

CONSIDER USE OF AIRSHIPS

Possibility of Their Successful Employment in Making Aerial Observations of the Himalayas.

Consideration has been given to the possibility of aerial observations in the Himalayas. The range, it appears, has only six peaks above 27,000 feet high, and an aviator flying at about 25,000 or 24,000 feet should have no difficulty in crossing if the highest peaks were avoided, while, if he chose certain of the gorges, an altitude of some 19,000 feet would suffice. The greatest of the many obstacles to be encountered is the mountain sickness, which occurs in the highest altitudes through deficiency of oxygen. The gradual climber, going afoot, is less handicapped in this respect than the aviator rising suddenly from sea level in his machine; on the other hand, the pedestrian has more fatigue to undergo, and this practically equalizes matters. The chief consideration in any case is an adequate supply of oxygen, with a proper inhaler.

A Good Word for Him.
Hans Schmidt was reputed to be the meanest man in the neighborhood. He died. His body was placed in the grave, and according to an old Pennsylvania German custom the people stood around the open grave, waiting for some one to say some good things about the deceased before filling the grave. After a long wait Gustave Schulz said: "Well, I can say just one good thing about Hans; he wasn't always as mean as he was sometimes."

PRISON LOSES "CAMERA EYE" DIDN'T GET AWAY FROM HIM

Man With Exceptional Endowment Gives Up Position He Had Long Held at Sing Sing.

Sing Sing is without the "human camera eye" which pierced through disguises and made alibis futile, for Louis Powers, Bertillon expert at the prison for 20 years, who finger-printed and photographed more than 20,000 Sing Sing convicts during his service, has retired.

He was famous for his ability to identify criminals, and for years has been known as "the camera eye of Sing Sing." He was often called on for information about criminals in various parts of the world, and frequently attended trials to establish prison records of men and women on trial. Besides learning by experience that women, even though preparing for the death sentence, were "very vain," Powers said he had profited little from his unique position except what he obtained in the way of salary.

Discorde Might Have Been Omitted, but They Were Very Apparent to Mr. Spinks.

Spinks, the musician, and his wife were on their way home from a concert and were overheard discussing the merits of the entertainer.

"It set my teeth on edge," Spinks said, "to hear the orchestra playing 'Yankee Doodle' and 'Dixie' at the same time. The idea is all right, of course, and even commendable from a sentimental point of view, but the two pieces, when played together, are full of discords."

"But didn't you notice," said his wife, who is something of a musician herself, "that where certain notes or passages would have been discordant they were omitted from one air or the other and left to the drums?"
"Of course, I noticed it," he testily rejoined, "but I could hear the discords in my mind just the same!"—Milwaukee Sentinel.
