COMMISSION MERCHANTS, ABERDEEN, MISS. WE again tender our sincere thanks to all those who have heret fore so liberally patronized us in the Storage and Ware-House Business, and most respectfully solicit a continuance of the wanting to give entire satisfaction.

From our long experience in the business, and the security afforded to Planters, in consequence of the situation of our Ware-Houses (being about FOUR HUNDRED YARDS BELOW TOWN, immediately on the BANK OF THE RIVER, remote from any buildings, or combustible materials, thereby affording greater security, in the event of FIRE), we hope to merit and receive a liberal patronage from a generous public.

In consequence of the situation of our Ware-Houses, COTTON shipped from them is the Last on Board (at this place), so that none of it goes into the Hull of the Boat, thereby avoiding a great necessity for insurance.

The old established firms of "C. Byram & same, pledging ourselves that no effort shall be great necessity for Insurance.

The old established firms of "C. Byram & Co.," "Strong, Babbitt & Co.," and the original firm of "Williams & Co.," being dissolved, we anxiously solicit a part of that patronage hereto fore so generously extended to them.
