The Flag of the Union.

Vol. III.

City of Jackson, Miss.

Thursday, February 4, 1853.

No. 12.

Flag of the Union, published by Thos. G. Worthington, Proprietor.

PUBLISHED every Saturday.

POST-MORTEM EXAMINATION OF MR. WELKER.

Everything in relation to Mr. Welker is now in the possession of his personal representatives, and the medical attendants of the deceased. Mr. Welker has been published in the Washington Medical Record, and the case of his death is now under the care of Mr. Welker's personal representatives.

There is some little delay in the examination of the post-mortem examination of the body of Mr. Welker, but, in fact, it was done with the greatest care and attention.

The examination was made by Dr. Myers, who was present on the 20th of August, and the body was removed to the New York Medical College.

The examination was made by Dr. Myers, who was present on the 20th of August, and the body was removed to the New York Medical College.

The examination was made by Dr. Myers, who was present on the 20th of August, and the body was removed to the New York Medical College.

The examination was made by Dr. Myers, who was present on the 20th of August, and the body was removed to the New York Medical College.

The examination was made by Dr. Myers, who was present on the 20th of August, and the body was removed to the New York Medical College.

The examination was made by Dr. Myers, who was present on the 20th of August, and the body was removed to the New York Medical College.

The examination was made by Dr. Myers, who was present on the 20th of August, and the body was removed to the New York Medical College.

Mr. CALDWELL ON THE QUESTION OF THE DAY.

During the progress of the case of the Great Salt Lake Claim, the following questions were raised:

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?

The question of the day is, whether the claim of Mr. Caldwell is for the use of the State or of the people?