The top crop of cotton is "a gone-cotton skin."

Quite a number of Gloster's citizens were visitors to our town on Monday last.

Two citizens of our town said they saw signs of an exceedingly light frost Saturday morning.

We have sent a number of statements to our very dear delinquents, and we hope no guilty man will attempt to escape.

The cool weather of Monday ushered in fall fights, and if we can't raise the quarantine we can at least raise a breeze.

Hon. J. A. Naul visited his home in Hillsburg last Saturday, returning Monday eve. He attended the funeral of Mr. A. B. Williams Monday noon.

We regret to learn that Master Son Faust, of Woodville, who is now visiting his grandmother, Mrs. H. M. Bates, Sr., is quite sick, but hope he will soon recover.

Sheriff J. B. Turnipseed requests us to announce that the books are now ready for the collection of taxes. Damages will be added after December 15th, no one excepted.

It has come to our ears that there will be some noted people in attendance on the Thanksgiving entertainment (mentioned in our last issue); celebrities rarely visit Liberty, so come out and meet them.

Mr. Hill, drummer for a house in Memphis, was in our town again last week, and enjoyed another good time with the boys. He likes the sport, but does not like falling over barbed wire fences.

FOR SALE—The property known as the Waring Hotel, Liberty, Miss., suitable for store or dwelling. Live stock attached. For further information apply to Mrs. A. L. Waring, Summit, Miss.

A series of services will be held in the Methodist church of Liberty, beginning Sunday next, November 14, at 11 a. m. The pastor, Rev. J. T. Miller, will be assisted by Rev. M. M. Black of the Methodist church in Gloster.

There was a good crowd in town Monday last, it being the first Monday in November and the time for the Hon. Board of Supervisors to meet, also for the bidding on the contract to build a wall around the jail, which was let to Mr. Dink Hinson, in the sum of $250, to be completed January 1st, 1898.

Sunday's rain seems to have been general not only in Amite county, but throughout the country. It began to fall in Liberty about four o'clock a. m. and continued, almost without interruption, until after dark. Monday was a cool, damp, foggy day, and there would doubtless have been frost Tuesday morning had the weather fared off early enough during the night. Wednesday morning the mercury was down 34 and frost was plentiful. Several parties reported this ice.

Mr. A. B. Williams, a prominent citizen of Hillsburg, Miss., died October 30th, at 6:30 o'clock in the evening, after an illness of nearly three weeks. He was a member of the firm of Williams, Richmond Co., and was a most excellent Christian gentleman. Mr. Williams was also a Mason, a Knight of Honor, and a member of the Board of Trustees of Hillsburg Collegiate Institute. He had many warm friends in the surrounding country, who deeply mourn his death. A large and three children survive. He was buried Monday at noon, Rev. C. Schilling officiating. The funeral was largely attended.

On Friday night last Minor Williams, confined in jail for gambling, was Wash Jackson, for forgery, made their escape by filing the lock of their cell door, (down stairs) and cutting a hole underneath the window of the corridor upstairs. It is a pity that the jail should be so riddled to had rubbish, but prisoners really ought to be paroled in this county, for then the county would not be put to the expense of carrying the jail every week or two. A prisoner is sentenced to be able to pay a fine enough to be tacked on to pay for jail, but it is inhuman and barbarous to send a man to jail for an offense, and lay him open to temptation of breaking jail and subjecting himself to the pen-

Hon. J. B. Webb, one of Pike's able representatives in the legislature, a leading lawyer of McComb City, and Miss Sarah Teunison, daughter of Mr. C. E. Teunison, of Summit, a most charming and lovable young lady, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at the residence of Mr. S. Hibbert, in McComb City, last Sunday, Rev. J. M. Morse officiating. This popular young couple stole quite a march on their many friends in the above instance, and while the ceremony that linked their lives together for weal or woe was private, every one that knows them will hope that their future will be replete with happiness and prosperity. They will make their future home in McComb City, where the SENTINEL trusts that peace, plenty and joy will ever be attendant at their fireside.—Summit Sentinel.

Died:
Oct. 22 1897, Mrs. MARY BETHEL McNEIL, wife of Dr. J. C. McNeil. Mrs. McNeil had been an invalid for several years and death, no doubt was a relief to her. She leaves two daughters, a son, a husband and two sisters to mourn her loss. Her remains were interred at the family burial ground on Sunday at 10 a. m.—Gloster Record.
Mrs. McNeil was a sister of Mrs. N. S. McLean and Mrs. L. P. Weathersby, of this place.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.
President McKinley issued his first Thanksgiving Day proclamation as follows: "In remembrance of God's goodness to us during the past year, which has been so abundant, 'Let us offer unto Him our thanksgiving and pay our vows unto the Most High.' Under his watchful providence industry has prospered, the conditions of labor have been improved, the rewards of the husbandman have been increased and the comforts of our homes multiplied. His mighty hand has preserved peace and protected the nation. Respect for law and order has been strengthened, love of free institutions cherished, and all sections of our beloved country brought into closer bonds of fraternal regard and generous co-operation.
"For these great benefits it is our duty to praise the Lord in a spirit of humility and gratitude, and to offer up to Him our most earnest supplication. That we may acknowledge our obligation as a people to Him who has so graciously granted material prosperity, I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of November, for national thanksgiving and prayer, which all of the people are invited to observe with appropriate religious services in their respective places of worship. On this day of rejoicing and domestic reunion our prayers ascend to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for the continuance of His love and favor to us, that our hearts may be filled with charity and good will, and that we may be ever worthy of His beneficent concern.
"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
(Seal.)
"Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety seven, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-second.
"WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
"By the President:
"JOHN SHERMAN, Secretary of State."
