BUENOS AIRES STRIKE BRINGS DICTATORSHIP

General Handling Riots Proclaims Friendly Military Rule.

MOB BURNS CHURCH; RIPS UP R. R.; HALTED BY RAIN

Buenos Aires, Jan. 10.—General Delle Piane, commander of the forces opposing the strikers, has assumed a military dictatorship and has taken over all the forces of the government.

A general strike was declared throughout the Argentine republic last night. At 1 o'clock this morning a thunder storm and heavy rainfall cleared the city's streets of idlers and within half an hour the business center was as quiet as if the disorders of the day and the evening were had not happened.

Early this morning there already were indications of disturbances in the flow of food supplies and other commodities, especially ice. The temperature of the last three days has been nearly 100 degrees in the shade, adding to the suffering of the public, which has been forced to walk because of the transportation shutdown.

Serious disorders followed the funeral yesterday afternoon of five persons killed in Tuesday's disturbances. A thousand or more strikers burned a passenger train on the Pacific railway, which runs near the cemetery, then tore up the track, paralyzing traffic on the Trans-Andine line.

They later burned a Catholic church and the girl's school adjoining, throwing images and pianos into the street and leaving the 400 girl pupils without dormitories. The mob then burned a fire department automobile carrying firemen to the scene of the disturbances.

The district police station at the Vasena Iron foundry was captured by armed strikers, but it was asserted at police headquarters at midnight, that the station had been recaptured. During the night the strikers entrenched themselves around the Vasena plant.

The official socialist party organ, La Vanguardia, will say this morning that all the unions have decided to continue the strike indefinitely as a protest against Thursday's events and that the government has disembarked marines and sailors because it has no faith in the army.

New York, Jan. 10.—The injunction suit brot by the Commercial Cable company and the Commercial Pacific Cable Company against Postmaster Burleson to restrain him from taking over for the government their respective cable lines was dismissed, today, by federal Judge Learned Hand.

The court's decision was based on the contention of the United States district attorney that the court was without jurisdiction in the case, inasmuch as the action was undertaken by President Wilson as an executive act for war purposes.

HARBOR STRIKE AT N. Y. NOW IN WILSON'S HANDS

Disorganization in Army Return and Famine in City Emphasized.

BAKER VISITS PORT TO STUDY THE SITUATION

Washington, Jan. 10.—Further government action to end the strike of marine workers which has tied up shipping in New York harbor awaited word, tonight, from President Wilson in Paris. Urgent reports on the situation, suggesting the president take action to prevent possible famine in the city and disorganization of export movement to the army overseas, were sent to him by the department of labor and the executive offices of the White House, after government representatives had failed in efforts to compose the differences between the boat owners and their employees.

It was said the president's personal influence with the workers was counted to induce a resumption of work, pending a settlement of the question.

Secretary Wilson and Hugh L. Kerwin, chief of the division of conciliation of the department of labor, were in close touch all day with department representatives at the scene of the strike. A new plan of action was said to be under consideration, but its nature was not disclosed.

Hope that the strike, at least so far as it affects railroads and coal, would be ended within 48 hours was expressed tonight by railroad administration officials.

CONSERVATIVES FILL HIGH POSTS IN NEW CABINET

English Papers Asking Whether Premier or Aides Will Rule.

PLEGED TO PROGRAM OF LIBERAL REFORMS

London, Jan. 10.—The new cabinet of Premier Lloyd George was announced tonight. It presents few surprises. The question the British newspapers are asking is whether Lloyd George will rule his cabinet, or whether his conservative advisers will dominate him.

The majority of the members of the cabinet in high places are conservatives, notably Andrew Bonar Law, Earl Curzon, Arthur J. Balfour and Viscount Milner. Only four years ago British party regarded Lloyd George as the conservative who would rule the cabinet.

In the new cabinet, Lloyd George takes the premiership and the portfolio of first lord of the treasury. The premier is pledged by his campaigning speeches to a sweeping program of liberal reforms, particularly by the giving of land and houses to workmen, and discharged soldiers. His principal advisers are regarded as representatives of land-owning interests, who, following tradition, would place barriers in the way of such reforms.

SHIPPER OPPOSE R. R. CABINET CHIEF TO CONTROL LINES

State Commissioners and Securities Owners Also Shy at Plan of Secretary of Transportation.

Regional Rate Commissions Proposed, to Act With Present Federal and State Bodies.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Attitudes of shippers' interests, railroad securities owners, and state commissioners towards railroad legislation became known in part here, today, in advance of their presentation by representatives of the various interests to the senate interstate commerce commission, next week.

The shippers oppose establishment of a secretary of transportation, the federal incorporation of railroad companies, as proposed by the following:

Rates sufficiently liberal to guarantee proper maintenance of railways and ample returns to security holders; government regulation by the interstate commerce commission; common use of terminals and other facilities; co-operation among railways to promote efficiency of service, but with pooling and unification agreements subject strictly to the Interstate Commerce commission and restoration of the roads to private ownership as soon as remedial legislation has been enacted.

Oppose Five-Year Control. Railroad security owners oppose the five-year extension of government control, and urge return of the roads to private management after enactment of legislation paving the way for partial unification. They are opposed also to the executives' plans for creating a secretary of transportation, and for federal incorporation of railroads.

Among the proposals of the state railroad commissioners are that state governments should retain their authority over intrastate rates and regulation, that regional rate commission should be created to assist the Interstate Commerce commission, and that the federal commission and state commissions cooperate in all matters of railway regulation.

FLAWS DEFEAT HOUSE CONTEST IN SILVER BOW

Papers Not According to Law, So Committee Throws 'Em Out.

CAN REINSTATE CASE BY PROPER PROCEDURE

(By WARREN W. MOSES.) Helena, Jan. 10.—That the Silver Bow legislative contestants were practically out of court, even before any hearing could be conducted upon their claims, was determined by the committee on privileges and elections after having looked over the papers filed in the matter and after having inquired into the statutes governing such proceedings.

That the contest was not filed in accordance with the law and that it would necessarily be thrown out, with privilege of reinstatement under the proper procedure, was announced early today by Chairman E. H. Cooney. As a matter of fact, the contestants appear to have adopted a proceeding set forth for contests of county officers and to have wholly overlooked the fact that the law upon this subject has no bearing whatsoever upon contests for legislative seats.

When the papers were filed with the secretary of state and transmitted by him to the house of representatives, they came open and not sealed, as is required by statute. Strange to say, not (Continued on Page Two)

SOUTH AND SOCIALISM OTHER LINES FOR 1920

Women Sit First Time in National Committee Meeting.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—Bolshevism, anarchy and socialism, were denounced today at the meeting of the republican national committee, by Governor Burnquist, of Minnesota, who said the hope of the country for the future was in the election of a republican president. He also spoke of the activity of the Non-Partisan league in the Northwest and said the sympathy of the democratic party had been with the socialist organization.

Governor Burnquist was followed by the Rev. C. R. Maxwell, who asked chairman Will H. Hays to urge congress to make an investigation of the activities of the Non-Partisan league in the Northwest. Maxwell was formerly a lecturer for the organization and said that Colonel Roosevelt, just before his death, had advised him to take his request to Chairman Hays.

Memorial to Roosevelt. Acting on a suggestion made by Chairman Hays, it was decided to appeal to the republicans of the country to erect a permanent memorial to Theodore Roosevelt. It is planned to raise the necessary funds by popular subscription.

The character of the memorial will be decided upon by a special committee, of which W. B. Thompson, of Yonkers, N. Y., is chairman. The other members of the committee will be named by Chairman Hays later.

Members of the committee applauded speeches attacking the democratic national administration for what was termed its socialist tendencies and demanding that the railroads be returned to their owners without unnecessary delay. Scathing denunciation of bolshevism in every form was the keynote of a majority of the addresses.

Every one of them, by George, is a bear for fighting."
