Special to The Daily Tribune. Stanford, Aug. 29.—Tillman Bain, Will Dupere and Mrs. Robert Skelton have organized an orchestra, piano, drums and violin. They played at Montague recently for their opening performance.

CHICAGO MAGISTRATE A VISITOR IN MONTANA

Special to The Daily Tribune. Stanford, Aug. 29.—Judge Samuel Trude of the municipal court of Chicago, returned to his home there Monday, after a two week's visit at the W. R. Lewis home north of town.

RETURNS FROM DENVER TO DIRECT OPENING OF STANFORD SCHOOLS

Special to The Daily Tribune. Stanford, Aug. 29.—W. R. Henderson, superintendent of the Stanford schools, is again in town, after a two months sojourn at Denver. He made the trip both ways in his Ford and never had a blow-out the whole trip.

BIRTH AT CONRAD

Special to The Daily Tribune. Conrad, Aug. 29.—A daughter was born on Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Flynn of this city.

RETURN TO OKLAHOMA AFTER SUMMER IN CONRAD

Special to The Daily Tribune. Conrad, Aug. 29.—Mrs. Conrad Strecker and two sons, Frank and William, left this morning for Oklahoma where they expect to make their home. Mrs. Strecker has spent the summer with her son, Herbert, manager of the Strecker Hardware company.

PRIESTS OF PONDERA ATTEND HELENA RETREAT

Special to The Daily Tribune. Conrad, Aug. 29.—Rev. Fr. Hanna left on Monday for Helena to attend the priests' retreat held in that city this week. He was accompanied by Fr. Van de Gavel of Valier.

Common tea is half tannin and half poor tea-flavor. When you make it, the tea-taste develops first. It hardly gets going before the tannin comes along and smothers it. Tannin, the rank, harsh, injurious—what people use to tan leather with.

LODGE PIN SAVES MERCHANT'S LIFE FROM MEX BANDIT

Upon Learning Chinaman Is Member of Same Order, the Chieftan Frees Him.

Juarez, Mex., Aug. 29.—A lodge pin and grip saved the life of a Chinese merchant of Parral when Francisco Villa's troops captured Parral some months ago, according to a sworn statement made by the merchant to the American consul here upon his arrival from the interior recently.

Anaconda Women Want Police Job

Special to The Daily Tribune. Butte, Aug. 29.—So far seven women have applied for the position of police matron in Anaconda, a place which has just recently been provided by the city council. The woman who is appointed for this position will have the powers of a policeman, deputy sheriff and constable in looking after the welfare of young boys and girls on the border line of delinquency.

Deer Lodge County Gets Big Army Truck

Special to The Daily Tribune. Butte, Aug. 29.—One of the first government army trucks to be delivered through the state highway commission for road work has been sent to Anaconda for work in Deer Lodge county. The distributor of trucks for these trucks for this part of the state is Deer Lodge, home of Frank Conley, chairman of the highway commission. This truck sent to Anaconda was built in Kenosha, Wis., as an ammunition wagon, but owing to the sudden cessation of hostilities overseas its speedometer shows it has been run only 69 miles. It is a three-ton, four-wheel drive contraption, and is being altered somewhat in its construction before it takes up its peace time work.

Women Incorporate Consumers League

Special to The Daily Tribune. Butte, Aug. 29.—Women of Butte, who recently formed the Consumers league, have taken further steps towards stabilizing their organization by filing articles of incorporation with the clerk and recorder, giving 10,000 shares at $1 each as their capital stock. The directors are Delia A. Potts, Marigold E. Benedict and Catherine Penner.

Butte Wants to Get Clark's Publication

Special to The Daily Tribune. Butte, Aug. 29.—Sam H. Clark of Bismarck, N. D., owner and publisher of Jim Jam Jems, was in Butte yesterday on his return from Virginia City, where Mr. Clark possesses controlling interest in three gold mine properties, which he declares hold great promise. Because of his extensive mine properties near here overtures have been made Mr. Clark with the view of bringing the publication of his magazine to Butte, but Mr. Clark says he has no idea as yet of moving his headquarters from Bismarck, where he began the publication of his book eight years ago, and in that time has amassed a small fortune.

Anaconda Provides Camp for Tourists

Special to The Daily Tribune. Butte, Aug. 29.—Rotarians in Anaconda have decided to establish modern camping grounds for automobile tourists passing through this section of the state. The permanent camp site chosen is a grassy plot shaded by willows in the southeast corner of the race track grounds. Water will be piped to the grounds, and toilets and ovens will be built. The A. C. M. company will furnish the wood. Markers will be placed along the highways leading into Anaconda. It is thought this venture will bring no little favorable advertising for the smelter city.

Painted Robe Coal Field to Be Developed

Special to The Daily Tribune. Roundup, Aug. 29.—According to the terms of a lease filed with the county clerk, work in developing a coal field near Painted Robe will start within 30 days. Bidding capitalists are interested in the proposition, and agree to spend not less than $50,000 in development within the next year. The land is owned by Horsky brothers of Helena. The proposed coal mine is on the Northern Pacific line, and the lease has been made for 10 years.

TO DESTROY WHISKY FOUND IN COAL CAR

Special to The Daily Tribune. Missoula, Aug. 29.—A decision handed down today by Judge A. L. Duncan in the district court instructs Sheriff Green to destroy 45 cases of whisky seized a few weeks ago when a coal car in the Northern Pacific yards here was searched. The authorities have been unable to locate the owner of the contraband, which was shipped from Wyoming. At bootleggers' price, the whisky is worth about $5,500.
