POPULISTS MEET.

Four Big Conventions in Progress in Washington. Today.

It is Hoped a Plan for Limiting the Mining Laws of the Party Can Be Found.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. Representatives of the populist party from over a score of states are gathered here today for the purpose of taking action regarding the future platforms of the party.

Warring Kansans.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 22. A special from Topeka, Kansas, says: The friends of Judge Martin are making a tremendous effort to prevent the election of an other senator.

Owing to the death of Leland J. Webb, whose father, Judge W. C. Webb, is counsel for the Dunsmore house, consideration of the Gunn habeas corpus case was adjourned by the supreme court this morning until 2 p. m.

The republicans apparently have no fear of the result should the court decide the case on its merits. But they are not so confident of success should the court decide it on the question of jurisdiction.

Time for Panama.

BOGOTA, Colombia, Feb. 22. The Colombian government has granted M. Mauge, the representative of the canal, a temporary extension of the concession.

The Colombian government has sent a request from Bogota that an expression of public opinion be given in Panama on the advisability of granting further concessions to the Panama Canal company.

An Upright Judge.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. The president will make no nomination of a successor to Judge Jackson. In the first place Judge Jackson has not resigned, and it is understood that he will tender his resignation to Mr. Cleveland or else delay it so long that the senate will not have the time to confirm his successor, even if President Harrison should nominate.

The Coming Attorney-General.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22. A Brooklyn, Pa., special to a morning paper says George A. Jenks will be the attorney-general in Mr. Cleveland's second administration. He received the news of his appointment from Mr. Cleveland in three telegrams Monday, the last one arriving at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Homesteaders Out on Bail.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 22. Hugh O'Donnell, Jack Clifford and Hugh Ross, leaders of the Homestead strike, charged with riot, conspiracy and treason, were released yesterday on $10,000 bail each. The accused have been in jail for three months. They left for Homestead at once.

How He Knew.

Before the fish-commissioners of California decided to stock the streams of the state with that much despised but powerful fish, the German carp, they were greatly concerned as to whether it would live in certain waters.

Samples of the water were obtained and turned over to the professor, who in a short time submitted a favorable report, and the carp were accordingly turned loose in the rivers.

The commissioners were greatly impressed by the professor's knowledge, but one of them had a question to ask. "How could you be sure that carp would live in the water submitted to you?" he inquired.

"Why," answered the professor, with an amused look, "I brought a carp, 10 cents and put it into the water. I lived."—Youth's Companion.

Not Enough.

Member of Committee—We expect to hold a convention of inventors of safety car companies in this city shortly, and I would like to make arrangements to have them all stop at this hotel. If suitable terms can be—

Clerk of Convention Hotel, in consideration—By contract, we have only 1200 rooms in the house.—Chicago Tribune.

Evidence of Good Faith.

"Of course you are willing to work," observed the lady. "How can you doubt it," protested the tramp when after a short rest he attacked with renewed vigor the chicken leg she had given him.—Detroit Tribune.

The Way.

Skiddy—I wish I could get a great literary name. Snooter—All you have to do is to win a prize fight.—Truth.

Look Out!

"Ma says you are to bring that woman to her instead of running over to that brown den with it, and she says if you don't do it then you have the farm 'till you get it."—Life.

When a Mistake May Do.

Mr. Grayson—Young man, was it you who pulled the string this morning that I never clear up in the wheat pit yesterday?

Leopold—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop.

Mr. Grayson (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying lace and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

The Reason Why.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway is the favorite:

It is the oldest and was first in the field.

Its train service is the very best.

It is the first to adopt improvements.

Its sleepers are palaces on wheels.

It runs elegant drawing room sleepers on all-night trains.

Its trains are lighted by electricity.

It runs luxurious chair cars on day trains.

It is the only line using the electric berth lamp.

Its dining car service is unexcelled.

Its trains run solid to Milwaukee and Chicago.

It is the best route to St. Louis and the south.

It is the best route to Kansas City and the west.

It runs four trains daily to Milwaukee and Chicago.

It runs two daily trains to St. Louis and Kansas City.

It is the government fast mail route.

It is popularly styled the "Old Reliable."

It furnishes safety, comfort and speed to patrons.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners. A. H. SWERDFIGER, Clerk of Board.

Unequal Division.

"I am sorry to go," said a lady after making a long afternoon call. "But I promised to be home before tea."

"Oh, no, stay, and I'll explain it to your husband," replied the hostess, who had been urging the invitation.

"Don't you do it!" came her nephew's voice from the next room. "Don't let her lead you into misadventures that you will be punished for afterward. She used to coax me in just the same way when I was a boy, and then I had to suffer for it."

"Nonsense, Henry!" said his aunt. "That is nothing but a joke. Don't take any more notice of it. Mrs. Bell, but you must stay to tea."

"You see, when I was in school," pursued the ruthless nephew, "we lived out of town, and I was expected to be at home every night before dark. Once a week I used to run in and call on auntie, and she always persuaded me to stay to tea and go home in the evening, and when I said father would settle with me afterward she used to say:

"Oh, just stay, and I will take the responsibility!"

"Well, didn't she take it?" asked the visitor.

"Yes," was the reply, "she took the responsibility, but I took the whipping."—Boston Transcript.

The Glass Industry.

The progress of the glass industry in America has been far from constant. It has suffered severe and violent fluctuations, amounting almost to annihilation. Several times it has needed to be born again. But the sum total of these successes and vicissitudes has been the establishment of an industry which, while it is the oldest, is also at the present time one of the most promising and most highly developed of all our industries.—Professor C. H. Henderson in Popular Science Monthly.

A London Idea.

In certain London restaurants each customer is allowed to make his or her tea. The waitress lights the gas burner, which is affixed to each table, and sets thereon a silver kettle. Then she presents to the tea-maker a silver caddy divided into compartments and offering a choice of Scotch, Ceylon or green tea. Any one who is compelled to drink the ink-warm stuff called tea at restaurants will appreciate the new idea.—London Letter.

Now Try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good if you have a cough, cold, or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to give relief or money will be paid back. Sufferers from a gripe found it just the thing, and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at Wright's drug store. Large size 50c and $1.

Cheap Rates to the Inauguration.

For the inauguration of Cleveland and Stevenson at Washington on March 4th, excursion tickets, reading via Baltimore and Ohio railroad, "The Picturesque Route," will be placed on sale at the ticket offices of principal railroads of the west, as well as at the ticket offices of the Baltimore and Ohio company. The fare from Chicago will be $17.50 for the round trip. These tickets will be sold from February 28th to March 3rd inclusive, and will be valid for return journey until March 8th inclusive.

The Baltimore and Ohio is the shortest route to Washington from nearly all points west. Its trains are vestibuled from end to end, and carry Pullman sleeping cars.

No railroad in America is better equipped than the B. & O. to transport with dispatch, safety, and comfort the large crowd which will visit Washington to witness the inauguration ceremonies. Its long experience in transporting crowds to former inaugurations, G. A. R. Encampments, Knights Templar Conclaves, and similar gatherings, on an extensive scale, will prove most valuable in arranging for the coming inauguration.

For more detailed information as to rates, time of trains, etc., apply to L. S. Allen, Asst. Gen'l Passenger Agent, The Rookery, Chicago, or O. P. McCarthy, Asst. Gen'l Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.

Is the name very appropriately given to shoes that lack fit and style. No matter how good the materials may be nor how strongly put together, if they lack these two essentials they are useless to the wearer.
