

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE

MARKETS

Wednesday, December 31

Wheat, Dark Northern	$3.00
Wheat, Durum No. 1	1.98
Wheat, Winter No. 1	2.48
Flax, No. 1	4.25
Oats	.65
Barley	1.20
Rye	1.60
Dairy Butter	.60
Eggs	.65

The Herald is the buyer's guide. Opportune and World's Best flour at Patton's Elevator. 34-4f Mrs. Jack Smith of Poplar was in town shopping Wednesday.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Otis Albert on December 29th.

We buy and sell second-hand stoves and ranges. Kelly Bros. 38th Hugh N. Marron is spending a ten-day vacation with friends at Great Falls.

Mrs. Adolf Hauge entertained a few friends at her home Saturday evening.

A handsome new gold letter sign adorns the front of the Buttrey-Swift store.

Mrs. Etta Johnson of Billings is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Culver.

Friday, an Artcraft Special at the Liberty, this week, showing Henry B. Walthall in "False Faces."

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen announce their annual ball for January 19th, at the Coliseum.

W. S. Carson, Great Northern yardmaster at Bowdoin, came down Tuesday to attend the Masonic installation.

Jack Leonard, formerly of this city, is now traveling salesman for the Cudahy Packing Co., with territory along the main line.

Don't miss the big basketball game at the high school gym Friday night, Jan. 2, between the Glasgow and Wolf Point city teams.

The Masonic lodge generously remembered the needy of the city on Christmas morning, the distribution being in charge of Chief Butterbrodt and Claude Moore.

Charley Smith says that false fire alarm last week resulted from a mistake at the Central office. The little run up the street didn't do the boys a bit of harm, anyway.

Arlie M. Poor returned the first of the week from Williams county, North Dakota, points where he went to spend Christmas and attend the wedding of his friend, Wm. O. Hougen.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Commencing Sunday, January 4th

SUNDAY

PARAMOUNT-PATHE

Margaret Clark in "COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN." Good Comedy and Pathe News.

MONDAY

AMERICAN-PATHE

All-Star cast in "MOLLIE OF THE FOLLIES." Also "TIGER'S TRAIL."

TUESDAY

JEWEL ATTRACTION

Monroe Salisbury in "THE MILLIONAIRE PIRATE." A Comedy entitled "THE TEA HOUND."

WEDNESDAY

FOX-LKO

Peggy Hyland in "MERRY-GO-ROUND." Comedy entitled "SIRENS AND SOAPSUDES."

THURSDAY

UNIVERSAL-PATHE

Harry Carey in "RIDERS OF VENGEANCE." Pathe News.

FRIDAY

ARTCRAFT SPECIAL

Henry B. Walthall in "FALSE FACES." Mutt and Jeff in "MUSICAL SOUP."

SATURDAY

PARAMOUNT-ARBUCKLE

Ethel Clayton in "THE MYSTERY GIRL." Fatty Arbuckle in "The Sheriff."

COMING: BIG SPECIAL "CHECKERS"

Opportune and World's Best flour at Patton's Elevator. 34-4f

Fatty Arbuckle, Saturday, January 10th, at the Liberty.

Joe Klinkhammer is helping Ole Dahl in the Home Meat Market.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buchholz were among those in from the Southside Saturday.

Don't fail to see Fatty Arbuckle Saturday, January 10th, at the Liberty theatre.

If your kodak needs adjusting bring it to the Wolf Point Studio. Gulhaug can fix it.

A girl or woman wanted for general house work. Address L-14, in care of The Herald. 45-2t.

Mrs. J. M. Leonard of Poplar is visiting at the Adolf Hauge and F. H. Livingston homes.

Read The Herald's interesting serial, Swami Ram's Reincarnation, which begins in this issue.

Mrs. W. A. Rogers left Tuesday morning for Minot to spend a couple of weeks visiting relatives.

C. H. Winship lost one of his best horses last week. Impaction caused by too much dry feed was the cause.

"Riders of Vengeance," featuring the popular star, Harry Carey, next Thursday, at the Liberty.

The Davey Tailors are still at your service, whether you want a new suit or your old one fixed up. 36-4f.

Merry little Margaret Clark will appear at the Liberty Sunday, in "Come Out of the Kitchen."

Mrs. Charles E. Clark and Miss Mary Miller are Wibaux visitors in the city today.—Glendive Monitor.

J. S. Bruner is at St. Paul attending the annual convention of the Griggs, Cooper wholesale grocery force.

Marcell LaRoque and Annie Beauchman were married on the afternoon of Christmas Day by Father Benedict.

Northsiders should remember the meeting of third ward voters, Saturday evening, Jan 3, at the Northside school house.

George L. Onstad of Westby has been in the city the past week assisting his partner, C. J. Severson, with the opening of their new theatre, the Liberty.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Olson returned to their home at Whitefish Monday morning after a ten-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Severson. Mr. Olson and Mr. Severson are brothers and had not met for 24 years.

Mrs. J. L. Siglias came in from her reservation home Tuesday and took No. 2 Wednesday morning for Minneapolis where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Bird, who will be remembered as Miss Lydia Terpe.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hanson and daughter, Olive, returned Sunday night after spending Christmas at the home of Mrs. Hanson's people at Ray, N. D. Miss Mildred, Amundson, a sister of Mrs. Hanson's, accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hougen, who were married at Williston Dec. 24, returned Sunday evening after a few days spent at the farm home of the bride's parents near Ray, N. D. Later they will begin housekeeping in their pretty bungalow on Edgar Street.

The Degree of Honor lodge is looking for a new meeting place. Installation of new officers, which should take place next Monday, has been postponed until a suitable meeting place can be secured. Members wishing to pay their dues can pay them to Mrs. Emma Johnson at the Park Hotel.

A big New Years Ball was held at the Coliseum last night and was attended by a jolly crowd who thoroughly enjoyed dancing the old year out and the New Year in. Manager Rogers says there will be no dance at the Coliseum Friday night, but if there are enough who desire it there will be dancing tonight (Thursday).

We of Montana want all you folks at a distance to know that for two weeks Montana has had the most delightful weather anyone could ask for, with the temperature ranging from a little below freezing at night to a little above thawing during the day time. It made a delightful holiday season, besides being a welcome fuel and feed saver.

THE MASQUERADE BALL

The grand masquerade ball held at the Coliseum last Friday night was an enjoyable success in every way and was participated in by 142 couples. Many attractive costumes were worn, which ranged from the beautiful to the laughable. The prize winners were:

Mrs. W. V. D. Chapman, who was "Waiting at the Church," a five-pound box of chocolates; Mrs. F. J. Owens, as an Indian maiden, a five-pound box of chocolates; Mrs. Albert LaRoque, as a colored lady, five dollars in cash; "Heinie" Hein, as a typical bum, a box of cigars.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCHES

Lutheran Church Sunday school every Sunday at 10:00 a. m. Morning service in English every Sunday at Wolf Point, 11:00 a. m. Alfred Hendrickson, Pastor

Methodist Episcopal Church "The People's Church—Make It Your Church" Sunday school 10 a. m. Morning worship 11 o'clock Epworth League 7 o'clock. Evening service 8 p. m.

The subject of the morning sermon will be "The Measure of a Man," and of the evening sermon, "In the Hands of a Master." This will be the first Sunday of the New Year. Let's make it a "Go to Church" Sunday for everybody. This would be a good time to begin again.

Our Christmas entertainment was a great success. We regret very much that we were not able to accommodate all the people who desired to come and that some turned away because there was no room. Our thanks are due to the committee that had charge of the program for that evening.

We cordially invite you to our services.

R. I. STONE, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church Morning service at 11 a. m. Evening service 7:45 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

The Christmas program given on Christmas Eve, and published in another column, was immensely enjoyed by all. A large offering was received and sent forward to the relief of the Syrian orphans. At the close of the program Santa Claus appeared amid the sound Christmas bells, and gave an address that will be long remembered by all those who heard him. He then handed out the Christmas gifts. Santa, we thank you for your advice, good cheer and smiles, for your presence made Christmas more real and filled our hearts with joy.

The Pastor wishes to express his appreciation for many thoughtful and valuable gifts received during the Christmas season.

Rev. Amos Oneroad, pastor of the Indian church, will preach the sermon on Sunday evening. This will be a privilege as well as an opportunity to hear the Gospel from the standpoint of the Indian.

S. McIVOR.

Census Enumerators Named

Dr. W. H. Barth, supervisor of the census for this district, announces the following enumerators so far appointed for Roosevelt county: Martin L. Walter, Charles Gordon and John Erickson, Wolf Point; Oscar A. Lawson, Poplar; Mrs. Mamie J. Curran, Brockton.

BAINVILLE TOWN TEAM LOSES TO OUR WOLVES

The town basketball teams representing Bainville and Wolf Point met on the local high school gym floor last Friday evening with the result an easy one-sided victory for the Wolves. The visitors played a clean, game contest but lacked the experience needed to cope with the local athletes.

King and Poore were back in the line-up in the forward positions and showed remarkable speed and excellent scoring ability.

Berlin at center and Kandler at guard made the top records for basket shooting with an even dozen each. When Frahm gets back in his position, the "Big Five" will be a combination that will seek far for its equal. Hall, Pouder and Lenz each took turns at guard and showed up well. The line-up and scoring records follow:

Wolf Point	Field Baskets	Foul Baskets
King, l. f.	8	0
Poore, r. f.	11	0
Berlin, c.	12	0
Kandler, r. g.	12	0
Hall, l. g.	0	0
Pouder, l. g.	0	0
Lenz, l. g.	0	0

Bainville	Field Baskets	Foul Baskets
Sweetman, r. f.	2	0
Coulson, l. f.	2	0
Dettmer, c.	0	0
Mitchell, r. g.	0	0
Reynolds, l. g.	1	0

LIVELY GAME ASSURED

The city basketball teams of Glasgow and Wolf Point will meet on the local high school gym floor Friday night, Jan. 2. The game will be fast and exciting, as both teams are strong and confident. The Wolves have not lost a game and do not intend to start with Glasgow. This game will be worth seeing. Let's go, and root.

1920

At the threshold of the New Year, we wish to thank our many friends and customers for their loyal patronage during the year just closed, and extend to them and to those that we have not had the pleasure to serve, the Season's Greetings and Best Wishes for a Prosperous New Year.

The Globe
COOK & CAMPBELL
Outfitters of All Mankind

Happy New Year

That 1920 may be a year of much happiness and prosperity for each one of you is our sincere New Year wish. :: :: ::

BUTTREY-SWIFT CO
"The QUALITY STORE"

Wolf Point

Montana