GREAT FALLS SOCIETY DOINGS.

Mrs. G. E. Huy and Mrs. H. O. Chown Entertain Friends in the Parlors of the Park Hotel.

A LARGE AND FASHIONABLE GATHERING.

Miss Weitman Also Receives the Members of the Young Ladies' Club at the Park Hotel.

Other Social Gatherings and Parties in the City—"Dove Parties" Growing in Popularity.

Mrs. George E. Huy and H. O. Chown yesterday entertained their lady friends yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the Park hotel. The gathering was large and fashionable and the afternoon most agreeably spent in the mysteries of progressive euchre. The head prize, a beautiful shopping bag made of velvet and leather, was won by Mrs. Metcalf. Mrs. Kelley won the lone-hand prize, which was a very handsome gauze opera fan. The progressive prize, a hand-painted kid photo case, was carried off by Mrs. Matt Dunn. The top prize, a pretty cushion, passed, fell to the lot of Mrs. Hawkins. After the distribution of prizes, an excellent luncheon was served by colored waiters in full dress. Those present were: Mrs. Matt Dunn, Mrs. S. S. Hawkins, Mrs. Frank Webster, Mrs. Wm. Webster, Mrs. Geo. Italian, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Ed. Hooker, Mrs. C. Shaw, Mrs. Thos. Gibson, Mrs. Wm. Roberts, Mrs. Ed. Kelley, Mrs. Ira Meyers, Mrs. E. G. Muelay, Mrs. M. S. Parker, Mrs. R. D. Beckon, Mrs. Joe Conrad, Mrs. J. E. McClelland, Mrs. Geo. W. Taylor, Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs. W. W. Conner, Mrs. Joseph Murphy, Mrs. Judge Benton, Mrs. John Sweet, Mrs. T. E. Collins, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Peter Baum, Mrs. Andrew Jensen, Mrs. E. A. Ringwald, Mrs. J. E. Newman, Mrs. Joseph Bookwalter, Mrs. Thos. Gahagan, Mrs. J. R. Leslie, Mrs. John Bush, Mrs. Daniel Tracy, Mrs. R. R. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Ernest Crutcher, Mrs. A. G. Laid, Mrs. J. P. Lewis.

The growing popularity of these afternoon parties presaged a rather lonesome time for the married men and bachelors and judging from the expressions of those who attended yesterday we gather they are not likely to grow less in favor.

THE H. O. O. CLUB.

Miss Weitman Pleasantly Entertains the Young Ladies at the Park Hotel. A jolly and merry crowd of young ladies are the members of the H. O. O. club. It is safe to say a happier party never graced the parlors of the Park hotel than that presided over by Miss Weitman yesterday afternoon, assisted by Miss Gregg. It was with some trepidation that a Tribune man ventured within the limits of the mystic circle, but the friendly greeting of the hostess assured him that he would at least suffer no bodily harm. He was just in time for lunch (it always happens so) and during its progress tried to draw the young ladies out as to the purposes of the club. It was no use. They were as dumb as oysters. This may have been owing to the fact that the worthy president sat at the head of the table and kept a very strict lookout that no secrets were divulged.

The afternoon was devoted to playing progressive "middle-winks" and from the general hilarity we know they enjoyed it. Miss Cockrill captured the head prize and Miss Josie Trigg the second prize. The body prize, a tin whistle, was unanimously voted to the Tribune man.

Those present were Miss Weitman, Miss Hawkins, Miss McClelland, Miss Trigg, Miss Newman, Miss McNeil, Miss Graves, Miss Rich, Miss Ingalls, Miss Vance, Miss Focht, Miss Cockrill, Miss Perkins, Miss Gregg.

A Pleasant Party.

Of the many pleasant soirees of the past week, none was more thoroughly enjoyed than that given by Miss Susie Hawley, of Fifth avenue, south, on Friday. Dancing and refreshments were the features of the evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. White, Mr. and Mrs. Houle, Misses Spencer, Redding, Lux, Ross, Lynch, Quenneville, King, Welsh, Robinson, Ghering, Hawk, Clifford, Forrest, Susie and Bessie Hawley, Messrs. Felton, Ghering, Lyall, Coffey, Lux, Regan, Sullivan, Tolun, Wesson, Burns, Reed, Joyce, Hawley, Goodau, Finney, Wein, Palmer and Foot.

An Afternoon Tea.

Mrs. Meyer Harris entertained a few lady friends on last Friday afternoon. A 5 o'clock tea was served and the afternoon spent most pleasantly. There were present Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. McFarland, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. Trigg, Mrs. Gahagan and Miss Josie Trigg.

NOW PARTNERS FOR LIFE.

Two of Fairbank's Prominent Young People Are Wedded. A special telegram from Fairbank, Minn. says: At the cathedral of Our Merciful Savior, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 4, Samuel Grant, only son of David Grant, and Miss Alice C. Joseph Hogan of Butte has been appointed the new mine inspector. This position is an important one, for upon the competency of the incumbent depends the lives and safety of the men employed in the actual work of the mines. It is to be hoped Mr. Hogan will meet the requirements of the position.

A musically representative and very enthusiastic audience listened to this most excellent club last night in its opera house. Their enthusiasm was well repaid as the artists were very generous in responding to encores. The excellent tone pictures painted by this happy combination were truly a revelation to the listeners. The personnel of this properly named "ideal" organization is as follows: G. L. Lansing, H. W. Harris, A. D. Grover, B. E. Shattuck and L. H. Calcutt. These gentlemen possess the happy faculty of getting an ensemble together where he was allotted a secondary place in the instrument scheme, thus permitting the themes or solo parts to stand out in due and proper relief. It is almost needless to particularize regarding their playing or what they selected. It was all superb, and not a word of anything but praise was heard on any hand. The Evening Recorder, Brockville, Ont.

The phenomenon of a very brilliant and beautiful sun-dog was on exhibition here yesterday afternoon. It was luridest at the sides, where it bore the appearance of two smaller suns, almost as dazzling as the sun itself. Last night the electric street lights shined from a distance, a very peculiar appearance. Long streams of light shooting vertically into the air for a great distance over each lamp. These peculiar appearances, according to a local weather prophet, presage a violent storm within thirty-six hours. As these predictions usually go by contraries we may expect more summer weather.

The much cannot be said of the coal found in the section of Chinook. Without doubt if a trial could be made or if capital could be interested in these coal fields, this coal would successfully compete with any native coal in the state. No depth has been attained in any of the mines, yet the coal burns fine. It is a surprising fact that as great a bonanza as this coal is should lie as it is right under the eye of the capitalists of our state and not be touched up. In the meantime the people of Chinook are using a cheap, dirty fuel—but we want to see our enterprise developed.—Stock Journal.

O. P. Romigh, better known as "Brooky Pete," the tin-horn gambler who caused the row in Edmuntz & Henderson's saloon on Friday night, appeared before Judge Gehring yesterday afternoon charged with "carrying and exhibiting deadly weapons in a threatening and angry manner. He pleaded guilty to the charge and Judge Gehring sentenced him to ninety days in the county jail. Jack Egan, right charged with the same offense, gave $200 bail to appear on next Tuesday. It has been learned later that "Brooky Pete" has been released from custody on bail.

NORTH MONTANA SHEEP CO.

The Company in a Most Prosperous Condition.

At the regular annual meeting of the North Montana Sheep company, held yesterday afternoon in the law office of Thos. E. Bradley, the secretary, the following trustees, who are the only stockholders of the company, were elected: Paris Gibson, John Ross, W. W. Eastman of Minneapolis, and Thos. E. Brady. At a subsequent meeting of the trustees, Paris Gibson was elected president, John Ross vice-president and manager, and Thos. E. Brady, secretary and treasurer. The inventory of the live stock of the company was filed by the manager, showing the assets of the association in live stock to be $23,870.50. The treasurer's report showed the dividends paid during the past three years to have aggregated 64 per cent. while the capital stock stands above par value.

The manager, Mr. Ross, reported to the meeting that the sheep and other live stock are prospering upon the range and are in a healthy condition. He stated that so far this season they had been fed hay but a couple of days, although the company was amply provided to meet the contingencies of the most severe weather. The present flourishing condition of the company tells more plainly than words what business sagacity and luck will do in the sheep business in northern Montana.
